In The Voice of America Mitchell Stephens offers a hugely entertaining sometimes critical portrait of this larger than life figure Richard Aldington and Lawrence of Arabia Fred D. Crawford, 1998 If you plan to portray a national icon in less than heroic terms you had better be prepared for a fight as Richard Aldington learned even before the publication of his 1955 biography Lawrence of Arabia A Biographical Enquiry Fred D Crawford provides the first examination of all major parties and points of view embroiled in the controversy generated by Aldington's biography of T E Lawrence In two years of research Aldington made major discoveries including the extent to which Lawrence had cooperated with Lowell Thomas Robert Graves and B H Liddell Hart in the creation of the Lawrence legend For this and other reasons Aldington concluded that Lawrence was a charlatan a poseur and a fraud Upon learning of Aldington's antagonism to Lawrence a year before Aldington's book appeared a powerful group including B H Liddell Hart Robert Graves A W Lawrence and other Lawrence partisans worked behind the scenes to suppress and denigrate Aldington's biography These attempts Crawford notes reveal a great deal about how private interests can determine what the public is allowed to read Fallen Giants Maurice Isserman, Stewart Angus Weaver, Dee Molenaar, 2010-01-01 In the first comprehensive history of Himalayan mountaineering in 50 years the authors offer detailed original accounts of the most significant climbs since the 1890s and they compellingly evoke the social and cultural worlds that gave rise to those expeditions Routledge Revivals: Radio Broadcasting from 1920 to 1990 (1991) Diane Foxhill Carothers, 2016-11-10 First published in 1991 this book presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of radio broadcasting Its eleven chapter categories cover almost the entire range of radio broadcasting with the exception of radio engineering due to its technical complexity although some of the historical volumes do encompass aspects thus providing background material Entries are primarily restricted to published books although a number of trade journals and periodicals are also included Each entry includes full bibliographic information including the ISBN or ISSN where available and an annotation written by the author with the original text in hand Austria Made in Hollywood Jacqueline Vansant, 2019 Considers over sixty Hollywood films set in Austria examining the film industry the influence of domestic factors on images of a foreign country and the persistence of clichés Maria von Trapp watching the final scene of The Sound of Music for the first time as her family escaped into Switzerland exclaimed Don't they know geography in Hollywood Salzburg does not border on Switzerland Hadshe thought about the beginning of the film which transports viewers to Salzburg Austria in the last Golden Days of the Thirties when the country was in fact suffering from extreme political and social unrest she might have asked Don't they know history either In The Sound of Music as well as in Hollywood's many other Austria films the projections on the screen resemble reflections in a funhouse mirror Elements of a real place with areal history inhabited by real people can be found in the fractured distortions which have both drawn from and contributed to the general public's perceptions of the country and its citizens Austria Made in Hollywood focuses on films set in an identifiable Austria examining them through the lenses of the historical contexts on both sides of the Atlantic and the prism of the ever changing domestic film industry The study chronicles the protean screen images of Austria and Austrians that set them apart both from European projections of Austria and from Hollywood incarnations of other European nations and nationals It explores explicit and implicit cultural commentaries on domestic and foreign issues inserted in the Austrian stories while considering the many sometimes conflicting forces that shaped the films

The Spiritual Power of Nonviolence George W. Wolfe, 2010-09-29 Religion and violence the two concepts seem incompatible given the emphasis in religion on virtue love forgiveness and compassion Yet many scriptures contain martial images and stories of god inspired military conquest The Spiritual Power of Nonviolence confronts this theological contradiction arguing that martial images and symbols found in religious texts are often meant to be interpreted as metaphors for an inner spiritual struggle and should never be used as a justification for war The analysis is undertaken from an interfaith perspective that explains many of the paradoxical concepts found in theories of nonviolence

Professor Wolfe also presents a compelling case for the sustainability paradigm and for offering peace education and interreligious dialogue on a global scale He probes the scriptures of the world proving that nonviolence is a shared virtue and that the real enemy we must battle against and ultimately defeat is actually within us An excellent introduction to spiritually based principled nonviolence Professor Wolfe's blend of different wisdom traditions is especially useful Dr Michael Nagler Professor Emeritus University of California at Berkeley George Wolfe has put the blame for proliferating violence in the world where it belongs on the crass interpretation of religion A thought provoking book Arun Gandhi President Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence Truly an enlightening book Judy O'Bannon Former First Lady of Indiana The Biographical Encyclopedia of American Radio Christopher H. Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton, 2011-08-15 In all of journalism nowhere are the stakes higher than in foreign news gathering For media owners it is the most difficult type of reporting to finance for editors the hardest to oversee Correspondents roaming large swaths of the planet must acquire expertise that home based reporters take for granted facility with the local language for instance or an understanding of local cultures Adding further to the challenges they must put news of the world in context for an audience with little experience and often limited interest in foreign affairs a task made all the more daunting because of the consequence to national security In Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell

Hamilton a historian and former foreign correspondent provides a sweeping and definitive history of American foreign news reporting from its inception to the present day and chronicles the economic and technological advances that have influenced overseas coverage as well as the cavalcade of colorful personalities who shaped readers perceptions of the world across two centuries From the colonial era when newspaper printers hustled down to wharfs to collect mail and periodicals from incoming ships to the ongoing multimedia press coverage of the Iraq War Hamilton explores journalism s constant and not always successful efforts at dishing the foreign news as James Gordon Bennett put it in the mid nineteenth century to describe his approach in the New York Herald He details the highly partisan coverage of the French Revolution the early emergence of special correspondents and the challenges of organizing their efforts the profound impact of the non yellow press in the run up to the Spanish American War the increasingly sophisticated machinery of propaganda and censorship that surfaced during World War I and the golden age of foreign correspondence during the interwar period when outlets for foreign news swelled and a large number of experienced independent journalists circled the globe From the Nazis intimidation of reporters to the ways in which American popular opinion shaped coverage of Communist revolution and the Vietnam War Hamilton covers every aspect of delivering foreign news to American doorsteps Along the way Hamilton singles out a fascinating cast of characters among them Victor Lawson the overlooked proprietor of the Chicago Daily News who pioneered the concept of a foreign news service geared to American interests Henry Morton Stanley one of the first reporters to generate news on his own with his 1871 expedition to East Africa to find Livingstone and Jack Belden a forgotten brooding figure who exemplified the best in combat reporting Hamilton details the experiences of correspondents editors owners publishers and network executives as well as the political leaders who made the news and the technicians who invented ways to transmit it Their stories bring the narrative to life in arresting detail and make this an indispensable book for anyone wanting to understand the evolution of foreign news gathering Amid the steep drop in the number of correspondents stationed abroad and the recent decline of the newspaper industry many fear that foreign reporting will soon no longer exist But as Hamilton shows in this magisterial work traditional correspondence survives alongside a new type of reporting Journalism s Roving Eye offers a keen understanding of the vicissitudes in foreign news an understanding imperative to better seeing what lies ahead
