The Warfare between Science & Religion Jeff Hardin,Ronald L Numbers,Ronald A. Binzley,2018-10-15 A very welcome volume of essays questioning the presumption of irreconcilable conflict between science and religion British Journal for the History of Science The conflict thesis the idea that an inevitable irreconcilable conflict exists between science and religion has long been part of the popular imagination The Warfare between Science and Religion assembles a group of distinguished historians who explore the origin of the thesis its reception the responses it drew from various faith traditions and its continued prominence in public discourse Several essays examine the personal circumstances and theological idiosyncrasies of important intellectuals including John William Draper and Andrew Dickson White who through their polemical writings championed the conflict thesis relentlessly Others consider what the thesis meant to different religious communities including evangelicals liberal Protestants Roman Catholics Eastern Orthodox Christians Jews and Muslims Finally essays both historical and sociological explore the place of the conflict thesis in popular culture and intellectual discourse today Based on original research and written in an accessible style the essays in The Warfare between Science and Religion take an interdisciplinary approach to question the historical relationship between science and religion and bring much needed perspective to an often bitter controversy Contributors include Thomas H Aechtner Ronald A Binzley John Hedley Brooke Elaine Howard Ecklund Noah Efron John H Evans Maurice A Finocchiaro Frederick Gregory Bradley J Gundlach Monte Harrell Hampton Jeff Hardin Peter Harrison Bernard Lightman David N Livingstone David Mislin Efthymios Nicolaidis Mark A Noll Ronald L Numbers Lawrence M Principe Jon H Roberts Christopher P Scheitle M Alper Yal inkaya

Urban Sociology Mark Abrahamson,2014 Concise overview of the political and economic development of the world s cities with a cultural perspective and case studies throughout including support materials      Society John J. Macionis, 2008-10-01 Macionis's book is designed to help students see the relevance of the sociological theories and ideas that inform their own lives. Four main themes are found throughout the text: seeing sociology in everyday life, social diversity, global comparisons, and critical thinking.      Escaping the Global Village Niamh Hourigan, 2004-01-01 In the face of expanding global media, Europe's linguistic minorities have begun to resist the homogenizing forces of television. Escaping the Global Village documents and analyzes various campaigns by indigenous minority language advocates throughout Europe for alternative language television services.      Researching Sex and Sexualities Charlotte Morris, Paul Boyce, Andrea Cornwall, Hannah Frith, Laura Harvey, Yingying Huang, 2018-02-15 Sexuality is a complex and multifaceted domain encompassing bodily, contextual, and subjective experiences that resist ready categorisation. To claim the sexual as a viable research object therefore raises a number of important methodological questions: what is it possible to know about experiences, practices, and perceptions of sex and sexualities? What approaches might help or hinder our efforts to probe such experiences? This collection explores the creative, personal, and contextual parameters involved in researching sexuality, cutting across disciplinary boundaries and drawing on case studies from a variety of countries and contexts. Combining a wide range of expertise, its contributors address such key areas as pornography, sex work, intersectionality, and LGBT perspectives. The contributors also share their own experiences of researching sexuality within contrasting disciplines, as well as interrogating how the sexual identities of researchers themselves can relate to and inform their work. The result is a unique and diverse collection that combines practical insights on field work with novel theoretical reflections.      Sport and Society in the Global Age Timothy Marjoribanks, Karen Farquharson, 2017-09-16 Are sports influenced by their social context? Can sport influence the social world? And how is sport changing in our increasingly globalized society? This thought-provoking text explores these questions and introduces key debates in the sociology of sport. Uncovering the power dynamics within sport and bringing this everyday topic under a sociological lens, the book explores hot topics and contemporary controversies such as e-gaming, fan violence, and sex testing. Examines the central role of technology and the media in how sport is consumed, represented, and played. Discusses a wide range of thinkers from Gramsci to Castells. Reflects on developments in sport at local, global, and national levels. With clearly explained theory and vibrant case examples, this text shows how we engage with sport in social, political, cultural, and economic terms. It is an indispensable text for students across the social sciences studying sports.
