Talks with Great Composers Arthur M. Abell, 1999-02 Talks with Great Composers Arthur M. Abell, 1955 What Inspires Creativity Between the years 1890 and 1917 Arthur M Abell engaged in lengthy candid conversations with the greatest composers of his day Johannes Brahms Giacomo Puccini Richard Strauss Engelbert Humperdinck Max Bruch and Edvard Grieg about the intellectual psychic and spiritual tensions of their great creative endeavors The result of their probing and insightful discussions is quite simply a masterpiece a document that reveals the agony triumphs and the religiosity inherent in the creative mind The six composers readily agreed to explore with their friend their innermost thoughts regarding the psychology of the creative process Brahms insisted however that his disclosures not be published until fifty years after his death because he said I will not find my true place in musical history until at least half a century after I am gone The Prosperity Game Richard A. Fishman, Charles P. Werner, 2018-10-01 An entrepreneur coach and business consultant reveal how to achieve success without compromising your spirituality The Prosperity Game sets forth a four step process for achieving success find and develop your seed thought determine and accept your calling ground your calling in the world and make the commitment The authors have used spiritual principles to achieve worldly success and are passionate about sharing their knowledge to help others create lives filled with material and spiritual abundance Each chapter also includes advice from other wealthy individuals who have used spiritual principles to guide their companies In these challenging economic times The Prosperity Game provides spiritual people with a roadmap to material success The Routledge Companion to Theism Charles Taliaferro, Victoria S. Harrison, Stewart Goetz, 2012-10-02 There are deep and pervasive disagreements today in universities and colleges and popular culture in general over the credibility and value of belief in God This has given rise to an urgent need for a balanced comprehensive accessible resource book that can inform the public and scholarly debate over theism While scholars with as diverse interests as Daniel Dennett Terry Eagleton Richard Dawkins Jürgen Habermas and Rowan Williams have recently contributed books to this debate theism as a concept remains poorly understood and requires a more thorough and systematic analysis than it has so far received in any single volume The Routledge Companion to Theism addresses this need by investigating theism's history as well as its relationship to inquiry in the sciences social sciences and humanities and to its wider cultural contexts The contents are not confined within the philosophy of religion or even within the more expansive borders of philosophy Rather The Routledge Companion to Theism investigates its subject through the lens of a wide variety of disciplines and explores the ramifications of theism considered as a way of life as well as an intellectual conviction The five parts of the volume indicate its inclusive scope I What is Theism II Theism and Inquiry III Theism and the Socio Political Realm IV Theism and Culture V Theism as a Way of Life The result is a well ordered and thorough collection that should provide a wide spectrum of readers with a better understanding of a subject that's much discussed but frequently misunderstood As the editors note in their Introduction while stimulating and informing the contemporary debate a key aim of the volume is to open new avenues of inquiry into theism and thereby to encourage further research into this vital topic Comprised of 54 essays by leading scholars in philosophy history theology religious studies political science education and sociology The Routledge Companion to Theism promises to be the most useful comprehensive resource on an emerging subject of interest for students and scholars The Real Toscanini Cesare Civetta,2012-09-01 Amadeus Lauded by Verdi Debussy and other music legends the celebrated conductor Arturo Toscanini raised the standards of orchestral and operatic performance over an astonishing 69 years on the podium But as he did so he acquired a reputation as something of a tyrant who unleashed an explosive temper at musicians if rehearsals did not meet his expectations In The Real Toscanini Cesare Civetta presents an intriguing collection of vivid one of a kind interviews with artists who performed with Toscanini A portrait of the inner workings of the maestro emerges through these extensive conversations conducted by the author over a period of 20 years together with other firsthand recollections These accounts clarify Toscanini's philosophy musical style and techniques They depict a man tormented by inner demons of anger and depression which were easily triggered by his frustration at being unable to produce the musical ideal in his mind's ear Toscanini is also revealed as a vehement anti Fascist and an unequivocal opponent of totalitarianism and racism he defied Mussolini and publically opposed Hitler The book includes a comprehensive account of his 1936 inauguration of what is now known as the Israel Philharmonic in solidarity with Jewish refugee musicians Toscanini comes through in this book as a tortured but deeply humane individual who strove to constantly improve a sincere and humble musician who was nevertheless the preeminent maestro of the 20th century Mirror of the Soul Tania M. DeVizia,2015-07-08 Mirror of the Soul is a reference to the precious metal silver and its superior reflective abilities Silver jewelry reflects one's personality and silver instruments which render the purest tones have the ability to reflect one's soul Classical flutist Tania M DeVizia uses her silver flute as a tool to connect with the divine and thus mirror her soul In this book she merges theology and science time and eternity and hands on healing with sound healing She analyzes and reflects upon the five roles of Jesus when he walked this earth and describes the manner in which music and art mirror His roles of Good Shepherd Healer and Miracle Worker Carpenter and Stone Mason Fisher of Men and Son of God Her text reflects her quest for truth She believes we have an innate desire to reflect the highest ideals of the Creator in all our works of art The words on these pages mirror the soul of a flutist who enjoys listening observing analyzing hearing and sharing her insights with others Embodiment of Musical Creativity Zvonimir Nagy,2016-11-03 Embodiment of Musical Creativity offers an innovative look at the interdisciplinary nature of creativity in musical composition Using examples from empirical and theoretical research in creativity studies music theory and cognition psychology and philosophy performance and education studies and the author's own creative practice the book examines how the reciprocity of cognition and performativity contributes to our understanding of musical creativity in composition From the composer's perspective the book investigates the psychological attributes of creative cognition whose associations become the foundation for an understanding of embodied creativity in musical composition The book defines the embodiment of musical creativity as a cognitive and performative causality a relationship between the cause and effect of our experience when composing music Considering the theoretical practical contextual and pedagogical implications of embodied creative experience the book redefines aspects of musical composition to reflect the changing ways that musical creativity is understood and evaluated Embodiment of Musical Creativity provides a comparative study of musical composition in turn articulating a new perspective on musical creativity Maestros and Their Music John Mauceri, 2018-11-06 John Mauceri who has stood on podiums before storied symphonies operas and ballets around the world brings a lifetime of experience to bear in this informative brilliantly entertaining exploration of his profession As Mauceri traces the lineage of his craft from Felix Mendelssohn the first to use a baton to the present day he shows us how conducting is itself a composition of legacy and tradition of techniques handed down and more than a trace of ineffable magic Weaving clear musical explanations together with memorable accounts of working alongside masters like Bernstein and Stokowski Mauceri reveals how conductors approach a piece with a combination of personal interpretation imagination and insight into the composer's intent what it takes to communicate solely through gesture with sometimes hundreds of performers at once and the occasionally glamorous often challenging life of the itinerant maestro Illuminating and instructive inflected with candor humor and grace Maestros and Their Music is the perfect guide to the allure and theater passion and drudgery rivalries and relationships of the conducting life Creativity for 21st Century Skills Jane Piirto, 2011-10-23 VERY practical on target for schools today good balance of theory with anecdotal connections At first I was worried about the time involved I discovered when given 5 minutes the time is a continuation to their work in progress Realizing that creativity does not have to consume large chunks of time is more meaningful than tokens I like the tone of the writing It feels like there is a conversation going on I like the stories of famous people and how their creativity influenced and changed their lives CREATIVITY FOR 21ST CENTURY SKILLS describes what many creative people really do when they create It focuses on the practical applications of a theoretical approach to creativity training the author has developed Many suggestions for enhancing creativity focus on ideas that are over 60 years old This new approach may be helpful for those seeking to develop 21st Century Skills of creativity Five core attitudes Naivet Risk taking Self Discipline Tolerance for Ambiguity and Group Trust Seven I's Inspiration Intuition Improvisation Imagination Imagery Incubation and Insight and several General Practices the use of ritual meditation solitude exercise silence and a creative attitude to the process of life with corresponding activities are described discussed and illustrated A discussion of how to be creative within an educational institution is also included JANE PIIRTO is Trustees Distinguished Professor at Ashland University Her doctorate is in educational leadership She has worked with students pre K to doctoral level as a teacher administrator and professor She has published 11 books both literary and scholarly and many scholarly articles in peer reviewed journals and anthologies as well as several poetry
