The Stories of the Lotus Sutra Gene Reeves,2010-11 The Lotus Sutra is one of the world s great religious scriptures and most influential texts It has been a seminal work in the development of Buddhism throughout East Asia and by extension in the development of Mahayana Buddhism throughout the world Taking place in a vast and fantastical cosmic setting the Lotus Sutra places emphasis on skillfully doing whatever is needed to serve and compassionately care for others on breaking down sharp distinctions between the ideals of the fully enlightened buddha and the bodhisattva who vows to postpone personal salvation until all beings may share it together and especially on each and every being's innate capacity to become a buddha

Shaping the Lotus Sutra Eugene Yuejin Wang, 2005 The Lotus Sutra has been the most widely read and most revered Buddhist scripture in East Asia since its translation in the third century The miracles and parables in the king of sutras inspired a variety of images in China in particular the sweeping compositions known as transformation tableaux that developed between the seventh and ninth centuries Surviving examples in murals painted on cave walls or carved in relief on Buddhist monuments depict celestial journeys bodily metamorphoses cycles of rebirth and the achievement of nirvana Yet the cosmos revealed in these tableaux is strikingly different from that found in the text of the sutra Shaping the Lotus Sutra explores this visual world Challenging long held assumptions about Buddhist art Eugene Wang treats it as a window to an animated and spirited world Rather than focus on individual murals as isolated compositions Wang views the entire body of pictures adorning a cave shrine or a pagoda as a visual mapping of an imaginary topography that encompasses different temporal and spatial domains He demonstrates that the text of the Lotus Sutra does not fully explain the pictures and that a picture or a series of them constitutes its own text In exploring how religious pictures sublimate cultural aspirations he shows that they can serve both political and religious agendas and that different social forces can co exist within the same visual program These pictures inspired meditative journeys through sophisticated formal devices such as mirroring mapping and spatial programming analytical categories newly identified by Wang The book examines murals in cave shrines at Binglingsi and Dunhuang in northwestern China and relief sculptures in the grottoes of Yungang in Shanxi on stelae from Sichuan and on the Dragon and Tiger pagoda in Shandong among other sites By tracing formal impulses in medieval Chinese picture making such as topographic mapping and pictorial illusionism the author pieces together a wide range of visual evidence and textual sources to reconstruct the medieval Chinese cognitive style and mental world The book is ultimately a history of the Chinese imagination Read an interview with the author <http://dgeneratefilms.com/cinemataalk/cinemataalk-interview-with-professor-eugene-wang-on-chinese-art-and-film>

Language in the Buddhist Tantra of Japan Richard K. Payne, 2018-08-09 Language in the Buddhist Tantra of Japan dismantles the preconception that Buddhism is a religion of mystical silence arguing that language is in fact central to the Buddhist tradition By examining the use of extraordinary language evocations calling on the power of the Buddha in Japanese Buddhist Tantra Richard K Payne shows that such language was not simply cultural baggage carried by Buddhist practitioners from South to East Asia Rather such language was a key element in the propagation of new forms of belief and practice In contrast to Western approaches to the philosophy of language which are grounded in viewing language as a form of communication this book argues that it is the Indian and East Asian philosophies of language that shed light on the use of language in meditative and ritual practices in Japan It also illuminates why language was conceived as an effective means of progress on the path from delusion to awakening Visions of Awakening Space and Time Taigen Dan Leighton, 2007-05-11 Publisher description Visions of Awakening Space and Time Taigen Dan Leighton, 2008-12-31 As a religion concerned with universal liberation Zen grew out of a Buddhist worldview very different from the currently prevalent scientific materialism Indeed says Taigen Dan Leighton Zen cannot be fully understood outside of a worldview that sees reality itself as a vital dynamic agent of awareness and healing In this book Leighton explicates that worldview through the writings of the Zen master Eihei D gen 1200 1253 considered the founder of the Japanese S t Zen tradition which currently enjoys increasing popularity in the West The Lotus Sutra arguably the most important Buddhist scripture in East Asia contains a famous story about bodhisattvas enlightening beings who emerge from under the earth to preserve and expound the Lotus teaching in the distant future The story reveals that the Buddha only appears to pass away but actually has been practicing and will continue to do so over an inconceivably long life span Leighton traces commentaries on the Lotus Sutra from a range of key East Asian Buddhist thinkers including Daosheng Zhiyi Zhanran Saigyo My e Nichiren Hakuin and Ry kan But his main focus is Eihei D gen the 13th century Japanese S t Zen founder who imported Zen from China and whose profuse provocative and poetic writings are important to the modern expansion of Buddhism to the West D gen s use of this sutra expresses the critical role of Mahayana vision and imagination as the context of Zen teaching and his interpretations of this story furthermore reveal his dynamic worldview of the earth space and time themselves as vital agents of spiritual awakening Leighton argues that D gen uses the images and metaphors in this story to express his own religious worldview in which earth space and time are lively agents in the bodhisattva project Broader awareness of D gen s worldview and its implications says Leighton can illuminate the possibilities for contemporary approaches to primary Mahayana concepts and practices Diamond Sutra Narratives Chiew Hui Ho, 2019-07-08 Contextualizing the sutra within a milieu of intense religious and cultural experimentation this volume unravels the sudden rise of Diamond Sutra devotion in the Tang dynasty against the backdrop of a range of social political and literary activities Through the translation and exploration of a substantial body of narratives extolling the efficacy of the sutra it explores the complex social history of lay Buddhism by focusing on how the laity might have conceived of the sutra and devoted themselves to it Corroborated by various sources it reveals the cult s effect on medieval Chinese religiosity in the activities of an empowered laity who modified and produced parasutraic texts prompting the monastic establishment to accommodate to the changes they brought about
