Tao Yuanming And Manuscript Culture:

Tao Yuanming & Manuscript Culture Xiaofei Tian, 2005 As medieval Chinese manuscripts were copied and recopied through the centuries both mistakes and deliberate editorial changes were introduced Xiaofei Tian shows how readers not only experience authors but produce them by shaping texts to their interpretation focusing on the evolution over the centuries of the reclusive poet Tao Yuanming into a figure of epic stature Reading Tao Yuanming Wendy Swartz, 2008 Preliminary Material Introduction Reclusion Personality Literary Reception Part I Literary Reception Part II Conclusion Selected Bibliography Index Harvard East Asian Monographs The Inscription of Things Thomas Kelly, 2023-11-14 Why would an inkstone have a poem inscribed on it Early modern Chinese writers did not limit themselves to working with brushes and ink and their texts were not confined to woodblock printed books or the boundaries of the paper page Poets carved lines of verse onto cups ladles animal horns seashells walking sticks boxes fans daggers teapots and musical instruments Calligraphers left messages on the implements ordinarily used for writing on paper These inscriptions terse compositions in verse or epigrammatic prose relate in complex ways to the objects on which they are written Thomas Kelly develops a new account of the relationship between Chinese literature and material culture by examining inscribed objects from the late Ming and early to mid Qing dynasties He considers how the literary qualities of inscriptions interact with the visual and physical properties of the things that bear them Kelly argues that inscribing an object became a means for authors to grapple with the materiality and technologies of writing Facing profound social upheavals from volatility in the marketplace to the violence of dynastic transition writers turned to inscriptions to reflect on their investments in and dependence on the permanence of the written word Shedding new light on cultures of writing in early modern China The Inscription of Things broadens understandings of the links between the literary and the material Daoist Philosophy and Literati Writings in Late Imperial China Zuyan Zhou, 2013-05-30 This volume first explores the transformation of Chinese Daoism in late imperial period through the writings of prominent intellectuals of the times In such a cultural context it then launches an indepth investigation into the Daoist dimensions of the Chinese narrative masterpiece The Story of the Stone the inscriptions of Quanzhen Daoism in the infrastructure of its religious framework the ideological ramifications of the Daoist concepts of chaos purity and the natural as well as the Daoist images of the gourd fish and bird Zhou presents the central position of Daoist philosophy both in the ideological structure of the Stone and the literati culture that engenders it the period Sino-Japanese Reflections Joshua A. Fogel, Matthew Fraleigh, 2022-05-09 Sino Japanese Reflections offers ten richly detailed case studies that examine various forms of cultural and literary interaction between Japanese and Chinese intellectuals from the late Ming to the early twentieth century The authors consider efforts by early modern scholars on each side of the Yellow Sea to understand the language and culture of the other to draw upon received texts and forms and to contribute to shared literary practices Whereas literary and cultural flow within the Sinosphere is sometimes imagined to be an entirely unidirectional process of textual dissemination from China to the periphery the contributions to this volume reveal a more complex picture highlighting how literary and cultural engagement was always an opportunity for creative adaptation and negotiation Examining materials such as Chinese translations of Japanese vernacular poetry Japanese engagements with Chinese supernatural stories adaptations of Japanese historical tales into vernacular Chinese Sinitic poetry composed in Japan and Japanese Sinology the volume brings together recent work by literary scholars and intellectual historians of multiple generations all of whom have a strong comparative interest in Sino Japanese studies Early Medieval China Wendy Swartz, Robert Ford Campany, Yang Lu, Jesse Choo, 2014-03-11 This innovative sourcebook builds a dynamic understanding of China's early medieval period 220-589 through an original selection and arrangement of literary historical religious and critical texts A tumultuous and formative era these centuries saw the longest stretch of political fragmentation in China's imperial history resulting in new ethnic configurations the rise of powerful clans and a pervasive divide between north and south Deploying thematic categories the editors sketch the period in a novel way for students and by featuring many texts translated into English for the first time recast the era for specialists Thematic topics include regional definitions and tensions governing mechanisms and social reality ideas of self and other relations with the unseen world everyday life and cultural concepts Within each section the editors and translators introduce the selected texts and provide critical commentary on their historical significance along with suggestions for further reading and research
