Target Ploesti Leroy W. Newby, 1983 Die Crivitzer Synagoge, 2005 1 August 1943 - Today's Target Is Ploesti: A Departure From Doctrine Lieutenant Colonel Robert J. Modrovsky, 2014-08-15 The focus of this paper will be on the 1 August 1943 bombing raid on the Ploesti oil field and refineries by an American task force composed of bombardment groups of the Eighth and Ninth Air Forces The Ploesti raid stood apart from the rest of the war in the air The idea for it and the unusual tactics employed came from the top it generated from General Arnold's headquarters and was approved by President Roosevelt Winston Churchill called Ploesti the taproot of German might It was not a part of any particular campaign but was considered vital in itself It was painstakingly planned and executed relatively quickly by the best prepared and most experienced force available at the time It was also fought with unparalleled bravery the sole action of the war for which five Congressional Medals of Honor were awarded The purpose in examining Ploesti is to first gain a complete understanding of the events leading to the planning for the raid the raid itself and finally the impact on the Germans in its aftermath With this established the intent is to assess the raid while keeping one fascinating question in mind after building a doctrine for twenty years based on high altitude daylight precision bombing why in its first major bombing effort did the United States depart from doctrine and conduct a low level bombing mission on Ploesti the only low level bombing mission conducted in the war

This expanded and revised edition of the bibliography originally compiled for the United States Air Force Historical Research Agency is the most comprehensive listing of unofficial published histories of the United States Air Force and its antecedents. It covers the air force from its genesis as the US Army Signal Corps Aviation Section to the present. These titles are a rich source of information for anyone interested in the history of combat and peacetime operations of the Air Force. Researchers and libraries will find the organization of titles easy to use. Entries include private sponsored or unofficial histories often written by the unit historian, personal narratives, purely photographic or pictorial histories, route of battle maps, published or printed rosters, officially produced titles. This is an indispensable resource for military aviation historians, libraries with strong collections in military and air force history, and unit history collectors. It is also of special interest to genealogists as many unit histories contain rosters and photos of personnel. The Navigator ,1977 Air University Review ,1984-07
