Tarrying With The Negative Kant Hegel And The Critique Of Ideology:

Tarrying with the Negative Slavoj Žižek, 1993-10-19 In the space of barely more than five years with the publication of four pathbreaking books Slavoj Žižek has earned the reputation of being one of the most arresting insightful and scandalous thinkers in recent memory Perhaps more than any other single author his writings have constituted the most compelling evidence available for recognizing Jacques Lacan as the preeminent philosopher of our time In Tarrying with the Negative Žižek challenges the contemporary critique of ideology and in doing so opens the way for a new understanding of social conflict particularly the recent outbursts of nationalism and ethnic struggle Are we Žižek asks confined to a postmodern universe in which truth is reduced to the contingent effect of various discursive practices and where our subjectivity is dispersed through a multitude of ideological positions No is his answer and the way out is a return to philosophy This revisit to German Idealism allows Žižek to recast the critique of ideology as a tool for disclosing the dynamic of our society a crucial aspect of which is the debate over nationalism particularly as it has developed in the Balkans Žižek's home He brings the debate over nationalism into the sphere of contemporary cultural politics breaking the impasse centered on nationalisms simultaneously fascistic and anticolonial aspirations Provocatively Žižek argues that what drives nationalistic and ethnic antagonism is a collectively driven refusal of our own enjoyment Using examples from popular culture and high theory to illuminate each other opera film noir capitalist universalism religious and ethnic fundamentalism this work testifies to the fact that far more radically than the postmodern sophists Kant and Hegel are our contemporaries

A Commentary to Hegel's Science of Logic David Gray Carlson, 2007-01-04 Hegel is regarded as the pinnacle of German idealism and his work has undergone an enormous revival since 1975 In this book David Gray Carlson presents a systematic interpretation of Hegel's The Science of Logic a work largely overlooked through a system of accessible diagrams identifying and explicating each of Hegel's logical derivations

The Symbolic, the Sublime, and Slavoj Žižek's Theory of Film M. Flisfeder, 2016-01-20 Returning to questions about ideology and subjectivity Flisfeder argues that Slavoj Žižek's theory of film aims to re politicize film studies and film theory bringing cinema into the fold of twenty first century politics

Exploring the Interplay of Edward Sapir's Anthropology and Lacanian Psychoanalysis Lenart Kodre, 2025-03-15 Was Edward Sapir's perspective on culture and personality groundbreaking or should we regard it as just one more theory that reached a scientific dead end Exploring the Interplay of Edward Sapir's Anthropology and Lacanian Psychoanalysis Culture and Subjectivity introduces a fresh perspective to traditional anthropological discourse by exploring Edward Sapir's insights into culture and personality relationship alongside Jacques Lacan's theories on the individual and collective This book reassesses the dynamics between subjective and social realms paving the way for potentially a new anthropological model of subjectivity and the definition of culture Exploring the historical context of anthropology psychoanalysis relationships this book synthesizes diverse conceptions of culture and personality through an interdisciplinary lens By leveraging Lacan's theoretical framework to interpret Sapir's bold ideas on the culture personality dyad it assesses integrating Lacanian subjectivity into the culture individual relationship bridging commonalities between the two fields and introducing insights into their interdisciplinary interplay This book summarizes key findings from Lacanian subjectivity theory and examines a new perspective on the process of cultural transmission and socialization by highlighting Sapir's pioneering view on the relationship between the individual and society It also addresses ontological epistemological and methodological questions in anthropology through Lacanian dynamics of desire

The Other's War Tarik Kochi, 2009-05-07 The Other's War is an intervention into a set of contemporary moral political and legal debates over the legitimacy of war and terrorism within the context of the so called global War on Terror Tarik Kochi considers how despite the variety of its approaches just war theory classical realist post Kantian poststructuralist contemporary ethical political and legal philosophy still struggles to produce a convincing account of war Focusing on the philosophical problem of the rightness of war The Other's War responds to this lack Through a discussion of a number of key Western intellectual traditions Kochi demonstrates how often conflicting and contradictory conceptions of war's rightness have developed in modernity He shows how a process of ordering violence around different notions of right has constantly redrawn the boundaries of what constitutes legitimate violence Such a process has consequences for anyone who claims to be fighting a just war Building upon this account and drawing upon the philosophical heritage of G W F Hegel and Ernst Bloch The Other's War proposes a new understanding of war not just as a social condition characterised by violent conflict and struggles for power but as the attempt of individuals and groups to realise their normative claims through violence Kochi argues that both of these aspects of war are an expression of the metaphysics of human subjectivity War begins with and is the radical exaggeration of a fundamental activity of human subjectivity in which the subject constitutes its normative and material identity realising and positing itself through acts that involve negation and violence By drawing consideration of the problem of war back to the level of a philosophical examination of the metaphysics of human subjectivity The Other's War develops a novel theory of war that helps us to better understand the nature of contemporary conflict as a process of recognition From this perspective judgment it is concluded needs to be constantly guided by the effort to recognise the ethics of the other s war Religion of the Field Negro Vincent W. Lloyd,2017-11-07 Black theology has lost its direction To reclaim its original power and to advance racial justice struggles today black theology must fully embrace blackness and theology But multiculturalism and religious pluralism have boxed in black theology forcing it to speak in terms dictated by a power structure founded on white supremacy In Religion of the Field Negro Vincent W Lloyd advances and develops black theology immodestly privileging the perspective of African Americans and employing a distinctively theological analysis As Lloyd argues secularism is entangled with the disciplining impulses of modernity with neoliberal economics and with Western imperialism but it also contaminates and castrates black theology Inspired by critics of secularism in other fields Religion of the Field Negro probes the subtle ways in which religion is excluded and managed in black culture Using Barack Obama Huey Newton and Steve Biko as case studies it shows how the criticism of secularism is the prerequisite of all criticism and it shows how criticism and grassroots organizing must go hand in hand But scholars of secularism too often ignore race and scholars of race too often ignore secularism Scholars of black theology too often ignore the theoretical insights of secular black studies scholars and race theorists too often ignore the critical insights of religious thinkers Religion of the Field Negro brings together vibrant scholarly conversations that have remained at a distance from each other until now Weaving theological sources critical theory and cultural analysis this book offers new answers to pressing questions about race and justice love and hope theorizing and organizing and the role of whites in black struggle The insights of James Cone are developed together with those of James Baldwin Sylvia Wynter and Achille Mbembe all in the service of developing a political theological vision that motivates us to challenge the racist paradigms of white supremacy A Theology of the Sublime Clayton

Crockett,2002-01-04 A Theology of the Sublime is the first major response to the influential and controversial Radical Orthodoxy movement Clayton Crockett develops a constructive radical theology from the philosophy of Immanuel Kant a philosophy attacked by Radical Orthodoxy to show Kant s relevance to postmodern philosophy and contemporary theology

On Extinction Ben Ware,2024-03-26 This path breaking book by one of the sharpest minds in contemporary philosophy will live on for a very long time Dany Nobus author of Critique of Psychoanalytic Reason Philosophy at the end of the world On Extinction takes us on a breathtaking philosophical journey through desperate territory As we face the end of all things Ben Ware argues we must face our apocalyptic future without flinching In fact extinction is the very lens through which we should examine our current reality Radical politics today should not be concerned with merely averting the worst but rather with beginning again at the end To think about the future in this way is itself a form of liberation that might incubate the necessary radical solutions we need Combining lessons from Kant Hegel Adorno and Lacan as well as drawing on popular culture and ecology Ware recasts the most urgent issue of our times and resolves that we can only consider our collective
