Songs That Went Astray:

Songs that Went Astray Alois Charles Taschler, 1975 Songs of the West Henry Fleetwood Sheppard, Sabine Baring-Gould, Frederick William Bussell, 1905 Songs of the West Sabine Baring-Gould, Henry Fleetwood Sheppard, Frederick William Bussell, Cecil James Sharp, 1913 On The Trail Of Negro Folk-Songs Dorothy Scarborough, 2022-06-02

How often have I overheard alluring snatches of song only to be baffled by denial when I asked for more Kindly black faces smile indulgently as at the vagaries of an imaginative child when I persist in pleading for the rest Nawm honey I wa and n and t singing nothing nothing a tall How often have I been tricked into enthusiasm over the promise of folk songs only to hear age worn phonograph records but perhaps so changed and worked upon by usage that they could possibly claim to be folk songs after all or Broadway echoes or conventional songs by white authors Yet cajolements might be in vain even though all the time I knew by the uncanny instinct of folk lorists that there were folk songs there And even when you get a song started when you are listening with your heart in your ear and the greed of the folk lorist in your eye you may lose out If you seem too much interested the song retreats draws in like a turtle and s head and no amount of coaxing will make it venture back And there is something positively fatal about a pencil Songs seem to be afraid of lead poisoning Or perhaps the pencil is secretly attached by a cord a vocal cord to the singer and s tongue It must be so for otherwise why has it so often happened that when I distrustful of my tricky memory to hold a precious song have sneaked a pencil out to take notes the tongue has suddenly jerked back and refused to wag again Yet that is not always the case for sometimes the knowledge that his song is being written down inspires a bard with more respect for it and he gives it freely Folk Songs of the Catskills Norman Cazden, Herbert Haufrecht, Norman Studer, 1983-06-30

Part of the ancient Appalachians and just a few miles up the road from a massive metropolitan area the Catskills have been home to the variety of people who have made the history of the New World The songs collected here reflect this history They are songs of rafting and lumbering war and railroads prison and hard times and nonsense and drinking And they are songs of love tragic love thwarted love foolish love and sometimes even true love Collecting the songs began in 1941 when educator Norman Studer and composer Herbert Haufrecht led a group of young people on folklore trips through the mountains The distinguished musician Norman Cazden continued the collection adding his research and scholarship The book is the cumulative work of these three colleagues Useful as an annotated archive of regional lore Folk Songs of the Catskills traces roots to early Scottish Irish Welsh English and American sources Both texts and musical structure are compared to other traditional songs Extended search for tune relatives is directed towards tracing the known use of each tune strain whether in variants with similar texts or quite different texts Some of the Catskill versions of tunes have not been found elsewhere and others are rarely encountered Whether related to others or unique to the Catskills the commentary on the songs in this collection contributes to a more general theory of the nature of traditional tunes and their transformation The late composer musicologist and university professor Norman Cazden worked meticulously over a period of many years to trace traditional melodies and texts Both Cazden and fellow composer Herbert Haufrecht were music directors of Camp Woodland a unique summer school in the Catskill Mountains which acquainted students with the folklore of this musically rich region The late Norman Studer one of the founders and for many years the director of Camp Woodland was also an ardent folklorist who spent much of his life in the hills and hollows of the Catskills looking for folksingers and yarnspinners Together these devoted scholars have created a work that is as enjoyable as it is rare Bible Object Lessons and Songs for Little Ones Lillie E. Affolter, Franklin Edson Belden, 1892 Job to Solomon's Song Adam Clarke, 1850 Bible object lessons and songs for little ones, by L.E. Affolter and F.E. Belden Lillie E. Figurative Commentary On the Song Of Solomon David Gregson McNeely, 2017-02-22 In American churches the Song Of Solomon is traditionally thought of as an allegory of the love between Jesus and the church In Hebrew tradition it is an allegory about the love of God for the Hebrew people or Jehovah's Wife While both interpretations can be considered accurate there is a third and mostly overlooked interpretation and that is that it is a poetic representation of the earthly life ministry crucifixion death burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ His continued ministry to the church through the Holy Spirit from Heaven This commentary is an attempt to outline this third interpretation in clear concise language for the edification of the church and the body of Jesus Christ Journal of the Folk-Song Society Folk-Song Society (Great Britain), 1926 Contains music This Song Will Save Your Life Leila Sales, 2025-09-23 Making friends has never been Elise Dembowski's strong suit All throughout her life she's been the butt of every joke and the outsider in every conversation When a final attempt at popularity fails Elise nearly gives up Then she stumbles upon a warehouse party where she meets Vicky a girl in a band who accepts her Char a cute yet mysterious disc jockey Pippa a carefree spirit from England and most importantly a love for DJing Told in a refreshingly genuine and laugh out loud funny voice Leila Sales THIS SONG WILL SAVE YOUR LIFE is an exuberant novel about identity friendship and the power of music to bring people together The Book of Popular Songs , 1860
