Madame Chiang Kai-shek and Miss Emma Mills

Thomas A. DeLong, 2007-03-14 Mayling Soong came to America at the age of 10 Her father Charlie Soong a practicing Christian who had spent time in America was convinced that China's youth would need progressive Western educations before returning to their homeland to take their places as leaders in the fields of government education and engineering The youngest of three daughters Mayling followed her older siblings to the United States in search of a Western education eventually entering Wellesley in 1913 at age 16 Here she made numerous friends including classmate Emma DeLong Mills This lifelong friendship lasted through Mayling's 1927 marriage to General Chiang Kai shek and his subsequent rise to power After the undeclared Sino Japanese war broke out Emma began a series of letters detailing the political climate in the isolationist United States providing Mayling with invaluable insight into American attitudes regarding China and her Asian neighbors Beginning with the early days of their friendship in America the volume describes the identity struggle both women faced following their 1917 graduation from Wellesley Following Emma's visit to China and somewhat unwilling return to New York the friendship continued through their correspondence Emma's role in the newly organized American Bureau of Medical Aid to China is discussed as are Madame Chiang Kai shek's international fund raising efforts on behalf of Chinese war relief While military and political history is not the focus of the work it is portrayed as it impacts the friendship which is the subject of this book

Beach, M.A., F.R.G.S, 1905 The Making of Song Dynasty History Charles Hartman, 2020-10-08 In this ambitious work of political and intellectual history Charles Hartman surveys the major sources that survive as vestiges of the official dynastic historiography of the Chinese Song dynasty 960 1279 Analyzing the narratives that emerge from these sources as products of Song political discourse Hartman offers a thorough introduction to the texts and the political circumstances surrounding their compilation Distilling from these sources a grand allegory of Song history he argues that the narratives embedded within reflect tension between a Confucian model of political institutionalism and the Song court's preference for a non sectarian technocratic model Fundamentally rethinking the corpus of texts that have formed the basis of our understanding of the Song and of imperial China more broadly this far reaching account of historiographical process and knowledge production illuminates the relationship between official history writing and political struggle in China

The Secret War for China Panagiotis Dimitrakis, 2017-09-22 In 1927 Chiang Kai shek the head of China's military academy and leader of the Kuomintang KMT began the northern expeditions to bring China's northern territories back under the control of the state It was during this period that the KMT purged communist activities fractured the army and sparked the Chinese Civil War which would rage for over twenty years The communists led by General Mao Tse Tsung were for much of the period forced underground and concentrated in the Chinese countryside As the author argues this resulted in China's war featuring unusually high levels of espionage and sabotage and increased the military importance of information gathering Based on newly declassified material Panagiotis Dimitrakis charts the double crossings secret meetings and bloody assassinations which would come to define China's future Uniquely The Secret War for China gives equal weighting to the role of foreign actors the role of British intelligence in unmasking Communist International Comintern agents in China for example and the allies attempts to turn nationalist China against the Japanese The Secret War for China also documents the clandestine confrontation between Mao and Chiang and the secret negotiations between Chiang and the Axis Powers whose forces he employed against the CCP once the Second World War was over In his turn Mao employed nationalist forces who had defected during the last three years of the civil war about 105 out of 869 KMT generals defected to the CCP This book is an urgent and necessary guide to the intricacies of the Chinese Civil War a war which decisively shaped the modern Asian world
