The Irish In Us Irishness Performativity And Popular Culture:

The Irish in Us Diane Negra, 2006-02-22 DIVA collection that looks at how Irishness has become a discursive commodity within popular culture div Irish Stereotypes in Vaudeville, 1865-1905 Jennifer Mooney, 2015-09-16 Vaudeville is often viewed as the source of some of the crude stereotypes that positioned the Irish immigrant in America as the antithesis of native born American citizens Using primary archival material Mooney argues that the vaudeville stage was an important venue in which an Irish American identity was constructed negotiated and refined The Ashgate Encyclopedia of Literary and Cinematic Monsters Jeffrey Andrew Weinstock, 2016-04-01 From vampires and demons to ghosts and zombies interest in monsters in literature film and popular culture has never been stronger This concise Encyclopedia provides scholars and students with a comprehensive and authoritative A Z of monsters throughout the ages It is the first major reference book on monsters for the scholarly market Over 200 entries written by experts in the field are accompanied by an overview introduction by the editor Generic entries such as ghost and vampire are cross listed with important specific manifestations of that monster In addition to monsters appearing in English language literature and film the Encyclopedia also includes significant monsters in Spanish French Italian German Russian Indian Chinese Japanese African and Middle Eastern traditions Alphabetically organized the entries each feature suggestions for further reading The Ashgate Encyclopedia of Literary and Cinematic Monsters is an invaluable resource for all students and scholars and an essential addition to library reference shelves The Routledge History of Irish America Cian T. McMahon, Kathleen P.

Costello-Sullivan, 2024-07-23 This volume gathers over 40 world class scholars to explore the dynamics that have shaped the Irish experience in America from the seventeenth to the twenty first centuries From the early 1600s to the present over 10 million Irish people emigrated to various points around the globe Of them more than six million settled in what we now call the United States of America Some were emigrants some were exiles and some were refugees but they all brought with them habits ideas and beliefs from Ireland which played a role in shaping their new home Organized chronologically the chapters in this volume offer a cogent blend of historical perspectives from the pens of some of the world's leading scholars Each section explores multiple themes including gender race identity class work religion and politics This book also offers essays that examine the literary and or artistic production of each era These studies investigate not only how Irish America saw itself or in turn was seen but also how the historical moment influenced cultural representation It demonstrates the ways in which Irish Americans have connected with other groups such as African Americans and Native Americans and sets Irish America in the context of the global Irish diaspora This book will be of value to undergraduate and graduate students as well as instructors and scholars interested in American History Immigration History Irish Studies and Ethnic Studies more broadly What a Girl Wants? Diane Negra, 2009-06-02 From domestic goddess to desperate housewife What a Girl Wants explores the importance and centrality of postfeminism in contemporary popular culture Focusing on a diverse range of media forms including film TV advertising and journalism Diane Negra holds up a mirror to the contemporary female subject who finds herself centralized in commodity culture to a largely unprecedented degree at a time when Hollywood romantic comedies chick lit and female centred primetime TV dramas all compete for her attention and spending power The models and anti role models analyzed in the book include the chick flick heroines of princess films makeover movies and time travel dramas celebrity brides and bravura mothers Runaway Bride sensation Jennifer Wilbanks the sex workers flight attendants and nannies who maintain such a high profile in postfeminist popular culture the authors of postfeminist panic literature on dating marriage and motherhood and the domestic gurus who propound luxury lifestyling as a showcase for the achieved female self

Welcome home Mr Swanson Ann-Kristin Wallengren,2014-10-01 Between 1840 and 1940 more than one million people emigrated from Sweden to America The fact that so many chose to leave to seek a better life across the Atlantic was a major trauma for the Swedish nation Filmmakers were not slow to pick up on an exodus that proved to be of lasting importance for the Swedes national identity In Welcome Home Mr Swanson film studies scholar Ann Kristin Wallengren analyzes the ways in which Swedish emigrants and Swedish American returnees are depicted in Swedish film between 1910 and 1950 continuing on to recent films and television shows Were Sweden s emigrants seen as national traitors or as brave trailblazers who might return home with modern ideas Many of the Swedish films were distributed to the United States and Wallengren discusses the notions of Sweden and Swedishness that circulated there as a result She also considers the image of Swedish immigrant women in American films a representation that bore little resemblance to the Swedes idealized view Wallengren shows how ideologies of nationality had a prominent place in the films narratives resulting in movies that project enduring perceptions of Swedish national identity and the American way of life

Irish cinema in the twenty-first century Ruth Barton,2019-03-25 An accessible comprehensive overview of contemporary Irish cinema this book is intended for use as a third level textbook and is designed to appeal to academics in the areas of film studies and Irish studies Responding to changes in the Irish production environment it includes chapters on new Irish genres such as creative documentary animation and horror It discusses shifting representations of the countryside and the city always with a strong concern for gender representations and looks at how Irish historical events from the Civil War to the Troubles and the treatment of the traumatic narrative of clerical sexual abuse have been portrayed in recent films It covers works by established auteurs such as Neil Jordan and Jim Sheridan as well as new arrivals including the Academy Award winning Lenny Abrahamson

In the Wake of the Tiger David Clark,Rubén Jarazo Álvarez,2010-09 The field of Irish Studies has undergone a period of great fruitfulness over the last decade Concurrent with the economic revolution and subsequent financial crash an immense interest in the island of Ireland and her cultural practices has been apparent from parts of the globe and academic debate on Irish culture and society has been intense and prosperous This volume contains a number of essays which approach a variety of issues raised within the framework of post Celtic Tiger Ireland with contributions from scholars working in Europe The book is divided into four sections on Trauma Studies on the relationship between Ireland with Europe and the rest of the world on Audiovisual Studies and on Ireland and the Celtic Tiger The essays reflect a variety of issues which are of great relevance to an understanding of the world of Irish Studies at the end of the first decade of the twenty first century The Shock of America David Ellwood,2012-07-19 An ambitious original book describing a century of Europe coping with America its inventions personalities films armies business and politics These decades reveal how much emotional energy Europeans invested in finding their own ways to reconcile tradition and modernity under the pressure of the ever evolving American challenge Music, the Moving Image and Ireland, 1897-2017 John O'Flynn,2021-12-30 Music the Moving Image and Ireland 1897 2017 constitutes the first comprehensive study of music for screen productions from or relating to the island It identifies and interprets tendencies over the first 120 years of a field comprising the relatively distinct yet often overlapping areas of Irish themed and Irish produced film Dividing into three parts the book first explores accompaniments and scores for 20th century Irish themed narrative features that resulted in significant contributions by many Hollywood British continental European and to a lesser extent Irish composers along with the input of many orchestras and other musicians Its second part is framed by a consideration of various cultural political and economic developments in both the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland from the 1920s including the Troubles of 1968 1998 Focusing on scoring and other aspects of soundtrack production for domestic newsreel documentary film and TV programming it interprets the substantial output of many Irish composers within this milieu particularly from the 1960s to the 1990s Also referring to broader cultural and historical themes the book s third and final part charts approaches to and developments in music and sound design over various waves of Irish cinema from its relatively late emergence in the 1970s to an exponential growth and increasingly transnational orientation in the early decades of the 21st century The Places of Van Morrison's Songwriting Geoff Munns,2022-12-21 What can we learn about Van Morrison s life and work as a songwriter through his songs This book looks closely at the lyrics and music from a selection of his songs Some are very well known Brown Eyed Girl Cleaning Windows and The Healing Game Others are less familiar Through these songs the book offers insights into some of the most important ideas that the songwriter has explored across his five decade plus career starting from the Them period and extending through his solo albums These readings show how thinking about Morrison s use of place provides a specific lens that contributes to a greater understanding of his art The songs are organized into chapters that reflect many of the important places in Morrison s work as he ventured professionally and imaginatively away from the places of his upbringing towards a wider musical world These places are in city streetscapes and country landscapes in home places of streets and ditches in the enclosed spaces of rooms in the expansive reaches of the natural world in indeterminate and specific foreign lands A picture emerges of the journey that Van Morrison details through his songs one that sees him first wandering as a boy through his East Belfast haunts and then venturing out to a wider world away from this local place The Cambridge

Social History of Modern Ireland Eugenio F. Biagini, Mary E. Daly, 2017-04-27 Covering three centuries of unprecedented demographic and economic changes this textbook is an authoritative and comprehensive view of the shaping of Irish society at home and abroad from the famine of 1740 to the present day The first major work on the history of modern Ireland to adopt a social history perspective it focuses on the experiences and agency of Irish men women and children Catholics and Protestants and in the North South and the diaspora An international team of leading scholars survey key changes in population the economy occupations property ownership class and migration and also consider the interaction of the individual and the state through welfare education crime and policing Drawing on a wide range of disciplinary approaches and consistently setting Irish developments in a wider European and global context this is an invaluable resource for courses on modern Irish history and Irish studies

Flaming Embers Nela Bureu Ramos, 2010 Desire in the broadest sense as a form of generous self assertion should ideally increase with the passage of time as we gradually acquire deeper insight into ourselves and others Prescriptive cultural stereotypes however put obstacles on our path to progress as individuation Yet growing older should not entail renunciation of the singularity of personal fulfilment This volume is a collection of literary testimonies to the power of art to challenge and resist the social constraints on desire in the context of aging In the essays men and women claim their right to age in desire and imaginative vigour

Transatlantic Renaissances Kathryn Stelmach Artuso, 2012-12-07 The impulses that fired the Southern Literary Renaissance echoed the impetus behind the Irish Literary Revival at the turn of the twentieth century when Ireland sought to demonstrate its cultural equality with any European nation and disentangle itself from English imposed stereotypes Seeking to prove that the South was indeed the cultural equal of greater America despite the harsh realities of political defeat economic scarcity and racial strife Southern writers embarked on a career to re imagine the American South and to re invent literary criticism Transatlantic Renaissances Literature of Ireland and the American South traces the influence of the Irish Revival upon the Southern Renaissance exploring how the latter looked to the former for guidance artistic innovation and models for self invention and regional renovation While Deleuze and Guattari's model for minor literature refers to minority or regional authors who work within a major language for purposes of subversion Artuso modifies their term along generic and thematic lines to refer to errant female juveniles within subsidiary genres whose nonconformist development threatens to disrupt the dominant patriarchal culture of a region or nation Using the themes of initiation and maturation to anchor the book Artuso analyzes how the volatile development of young women in revivalist texts often reflects or questions larger growth pangs and patterns including the evolution of the literary revival itself and the development of a regional minority group that must work within a dominant culture language and nation while seeking methods of subversion With minor literature as the container for undervalued genres such as popular fiction and short stories often considered an author's juvenilia this work investigates not only how these texts challenge the authoritative claims of the novel but also scrutinizes the renaissance trope of female rebirth as the revivalists often figured cultural national or regional regeneration through the metamorphoses or maturation of female protagonists such as Cathleen n Houlihan Scarlett O Hara and Virgie Rainey Drawing upon New Historical New Critical and postcolonial approaches Artuso examines works by Lady Gregory Margaret Mitchell Eudora Welty Elizabeth Bowen Jean Toomer and James Joyce

Multiculturalism's Double-Bind John Nagle, 2016-04-15 Using a rich array of ethnographic and archival data closely considering the Irish and the manner in which Irishness was rendered inclusive Multiculturalism s Double Bind demonstrates that multiculturalism can encourage cross community political engagement in the global city This book challenges the perceived wisdom that multiculturalism counteracts the opportunity for groups to move beyond their particularized constituency to build links and networks with other minority groups Theoretically informed and empirically grounded this volume will appeal to scholars across a range of disciplines including migration and ethnicity social and cultural anthropology Irish studies and sociology

City of Neighborhoods Anthony Bak Buccitelli, 2016-04-20 Reveals that stereotypical ethnic neighborhoods have developed into multicultural communities that use ethnic symbolism as a means for inclusion not exclusion

Eccentric Nation Stephen Albert Rohs, 2009 The book takes as its point of departure the notion that a nation s music and performance culture was in the nineteenth century conceived of as the voice of its people From ballads to parades to plays to orations these cultural forms carried the burden of staging an identity for the national community and for the onlooking eyes of outsiders

Hymns to the Silence Peter Mills, 2010-04-08 A groundbreaking study of every aspect of Van Morrison s artistic career his influences lyrical themes vocal performances his relationship with America and more

Design Roots Stuart Walker, Martyn Evans, Tom Cassidy, Amy Twigger Holroyd, Jeyon Jung, 2018-02-08 Design Roots provides a comprehensive review of culturally significant designs products and practices which are rooted to particular communities through making tradition and a sense of place Many rich traditional practices associated with community tacit knowledge and culture are being rapidly lost due to globalisation and urbanisation Yet they have much to offer for the future in terms of sustainability identity wellbeing and new opportunities in design This book considers the creative roots the place based ecologies and deep understandings of cultural significance not only in terms of history and tradition but also in terms of locale social interactions innovation and change for the sustainment of culturally significant material productions Importantly these are not locked in time by sentimentality and nostalgia but are evolving innovative and adaptive to new technologies and changing circumstances Contributing authors explore the historical roots of culturally significant designs products and practices emerging directions amateur endeavours enterprise models business opportunities and the changing role and contribution of design in the creation of material cultures of significance meaning and value An international perspective is provided through case studies and research from North and South America Africa Europe Asia and Australasia with examples including Aran jumper production in Northern Ireland weaving in Thailand Iranian housing design Brazilian street design and digital crafting in the United Kingdom of the Magdalen Laundries Miriam Haughton, Mary McAuliffe, Emilie Pine, 2021-11-23 This collection raises incisive questions about the links between the postcolonial carceral system which thrived in Ireland after 1922 and larger questions of gender sexuality identity class race and religion This kind of intersectional history is vital not only in looking back but in looking forward to identify the ways in which structural callousness still marks Irish society Essays include historical analysis of the ways in which women and children were incarcerated in residential institutions Ireland's Direct Provision system the policing of female bodily autonomy through legislation on prostitution and abortion in addition to the legacies of the Magdalen laundries This collection also considers how artistic practice and commemoration have acted as vital interventions in social attitudes and public knowledge helping to create knowledge and re shape social attitudes towards this history

Legacies
