Genocide and Fascism Aristotle Kallis, 2008-09-25 This book investigates how fascism as an ideology and political praxis reconfigured the ideological political and moral landscape of interwar Europe generating an atmosphere of extreme license that facilitated the leap into eliminationist violence It demonstrates how fascist ideology linked the prospect of violent cleansing to utopias of national racial regeneration thus encouraging and legitimizing targeted hatred against particular others It also shows how the diffusion and internationalization of fascism in the 1930s produced a sense of a revolutionary new beginning and created a transnational fascist new order in which Nazi Germany came to occupy a potent position of authority The book analyzes how the eliminationist initiative and precedent of Nazi Germany became a second license that empowered fascist regimes across Europe to embark on their own eliminationist projects with diminished accountability Finally it examines how this license enhanced by the actions of fascists and the collapse of order caused by World War Two released individuals and communities from the burden of legal and moral accountability turning them into accomplices in the most wide brutal and devastating genocidal campaign that the continent had ever experienced Lives of Brian Brian Sherman,2018-07-02 1943 shopkeeper s son Brian Sherman is born into a tight knit Jewish community in a small South African mining outpost The Holocaust is raging in Europe and the Apartheid regime is at its height In 1976 with only 5 000 to his name he moves to Australia with his young family to start a new life Nothing can prepare Brian for his meteoric rise or for the life changing tests he will face At his kitchen table he starts a fund management business with his friend Laurence Freedman In 1986 they float a novel investment fund on the American Stock Exchange and raise over a billion Australian dollars More billions follow and opportunity flows Brian goes on to direct the finances of the Sydney 2000 Olympics and together with Laurence acquires an interest in Network TEN taking it from receivership to record profits He chairs the Australian Museum Trust and brings in a hoist of priceless specimens He and gallerist wife Gene become leading philanthropists in the arts medical science and Jewish affairs while Brian mentors his son Emile now an Oscar winning film producer Prompted by daughter Ondine he has an epiphany on animal suffering and with her devotes himself tirelessly to ending factory farming Triumphant highs are interwoven with profound lows His beloved twin grandsons are born with a rare and devastating genetic disorder Brian and his son in law Dror go all out in search of a cure Facing his own health challenges and a lifelong accumulation of unexplored grief Brian will be tested to the limits of his being Voices from Vilna Helaine Shoag Greenberg,2006-05-18 To my great joy I found poignant letters in my family home describing my father s and his family s life and current events from 1930 to 1940 in Vilnius Lithuania On a roots trip there in 2000 the letters were shown to the Director of the Vilna Gaon Museum who thought them valuable Voices is a creative non fiction memoir told from the perspective of a first generation child The letters are arranged chronologically interspersed with letters to my father telling him what I found Sadly new photographs show evidence of ongoing anti-Semitism I wrote this story as a memorial to the letter writers Chapter One contains love letters to my mother from my father It also describes his desperate attempts to leave the country Chapter Two shows how hard my father tried to get some of his family out especially his sister married to a rabbi Rabbis were targets of oppression Chapter Three illustrates how difficult life became in Vilna even before the Holocaust It was a cry for help They knew what was coming yet kept hope alive I m glad my father could not go back with me because the experience would have been too painful for him The Lost Library Dan Rabinowitz,2019 The story of the first Jewish public library in Europe Breast Cancer Anne M.
