Popular Series Fiction for K-6 Readers Rebecca L.

Thomas, Catherine Barr, 2009 Indexes popular fiction series for K 6 readers with groupings based on thematic consistant setting or consistant characters Annotated entries are arranged alphabetically by series name and include author publisher date grade level genre and a list of individual titles in the series Volume is indexed by author title and subject genre and includes appendixes suggesting books for boys girls and reluctant ESL readers Goodly is Our Heritage Rashna B. Singh, 2004 Patterns of sublimation begin in childhood So does binary and hierarchical thinking The child must be trained to see in oppositions and on a scale of order So the story of nation and people race and culture begins as the bedtime story The author How else asks Rashna Singh do we explain the uncanny physical resemblance between Osama bin Laden and the evil Jaffar of Disney s motion picture Aladdin Singh provides a most persuasive argument for why these sentiments are both insidious and compelling and how they resonate to this day While she includes such classic examples as The Secret Garden Robinson Crusoe and the Babar series it is her inclusion of genuinely neglected fictions that lends her analyses a special richness In an engaging narrative style Singh demonstrates how constructions of character evolve into cultural imprints which encourage their young readers to choose the goodly side with little thought of badly repercussions The Publishers Weekly, 1999 School Library Journal, 2003 Adventuring with Books Amy A. McClure, Janice V. Kristo, National Council of Teachers of English. Committee to Revise the Elementary School Booklist, 2002 In this 13th edition of Adventuring with Books teachers and librarians will find descriptions of more than 850 texts published between 1999 and 2001 suitable for student use in background research unit study or pleasure reading and children will find books that delight amuse and entertain The texts described in the book are divided into 24 general topics including Science Nonfiction Struggle and Survival Fantasy Literature Sports Games and Hobbies and Mathematics in Our World To highlight literature that reflects the schools multiple ethnicities the booklist also introduces readers to recent literature that celebrates African American Asian and Pacific Island Hispanic American and indigenous cultures Each chapter begins with a brief list of selection criteria a streamlined list of all annotated titles in that chapter and an introduction in which chapter editors discuss their criteria and the status of available books in that subject area While the reviews were written by adults the voices and opinions of children are often included as well lending credence to adult choices of the quality children s books NKA Looking Like the Enemy Mary Matsuda Gruenewald, 2005 In 1941 Mary Matsuda Gruenewald was a teenage girl who like other Americans reacted with horror to the bombing of Pearl Harbor Yet soon she and her family were among 110 000 innocent people imprisoned by the U S government because of their Japanese ancestry In this eloquent memoir she describes both the day to day and the dramatic turning points of this profound injustice what it was like to face an indefinite sentence in crowded primitive camps the struggle for survival and dignity and the strength gained from learning what she was capable of and could do to sustain her family It is at once a coming of age story with interest for young readers an engaging narrative on a topic still not widely known and a timely warning for the present era of terrorism Complete with period photos the book also brings readers up to the present including the author's celebration of the National Japanese American Memorial dedication in 2000
