The Journal Of Decorative And Propaganda Arts No 21 1995 Brazil Theme Issue:

The Architecture of Landscape, 1940-1960 Marc Treib, 2002-10 The Architecture of Landscape 1940 1960 provides a groundbreaking collection of worldwide perspectives on a vital and underappreciated era of landscape architecture It is also the first critical assessment of this period with information and insight previously unavailable to English language readers

Modern Architecture in Latin America Luis E. Carranza, Fernando Luiz Lara, 2015-01-05 Designed as a survey and focused on key examples and movements arranged chronologically from 1903 to 2003 this is the first comprehensive history of modern architecture in Latin America in any language Runner up University Co op Robert W Hamilton Book Award 2015 Modern Architecture in Latin America Art Technology and Utopia is an introductory text on the issues polemics and works that represent the complex processes of political economic and cultural modernization in the twentieth century The number and types of projects varied greatly from country to country but as a whole the region produced a significant body of architecture that has never before been presented in a single volume in any language Modern Architecture in Latin America is the first comprehensive history of this important production Designed as a survey and focused on key examples paradigms arranged chronologically from 1903 to 2003 this volume covers a myriad of countries historical social and political conditions and projects developments that range from small houses to urban plans to architectural movements The book is structured so that it can be read in a variety of ways as a historically developed narrative of modern architecture in Latin America as a country specific chronology or as a treatment of traditions centered on issues of art technology or utopia This structure allows readers to see the development of multiple and parallel branches historical strands of architecture and at times their interconnections across countries The authors provide a critical evaluation of the movements presented in relationship to their overall goals and architectural transformations Imagined Utopias in the Built Environment Anna

Novakov, 2017-01-06 Beginning with the early history of London s Vauxhall pleasure gardens this volume surveys visionary architecture and urban planning from the 18th century to the present The recurrence of themes of technology individual agency and communal living in the work of Le Corbusier Eileen Gray Charles and Ray Eames and Constant Nieuwenhuys testifies to the continued search for an ideal personal and public space Inspired by works of fiction such as Utopia Herland Mizora World of Women and Homo Ludens and the films Metropolis and Stalker artists and architects created fantastic plans for individual homes housing complexes and entire urban centers The resulting projects discussed here manifest the modern anxiety between the liberation of the individual and the needs of the collective The urban landscape from the 18th to the 21st centuries has been woven into the fabric of architecture as a way to improve day to day life as well as to create personal identity within an expanding public world The seven chapter topics are arranged chronologically and begin with the design of social space in Georgian era pleasure gardens and conclude with a study of contemporary Utopian groups that utilize early literary references as a focus for their societies As such the book builds upon the understanding of technology and architecture in its many forms as a shared benchmark for the expansion of individual rights and the growth of Utopian ideas in modern European and American society Building the New World Valerie Fraser, 2000 Brasilia Caracas Mexico City Rio de Janeiro cities synonymous with some of the most innovative and progressive architecture of the past century Beyond the City Felipe Correa, 2016-06-07 During the last decade the South American continent has seen a strong push for transnational integration initiated by the former Brazilian president Fernando Henrique Cardoso who with the endorsement of eleven other nations spearheaded the Initiative for the Integration of Regional Infrastructure in South America IIRSA a comprehensive energy transport and communications network The most aggressive transcontinental integration project ever planned for South America the initiative systematically deploys ten east west infrastructural corridors enhancing economic development but raising important questions about the polarizing effect of pitting regional needs against the colossal processes of resource extraction Providing much needed historical contextualization to IIRSA's agenda Beyond the City ties together a series of spatial models and offers a survey of regional strategies in five case studies of often overlooked sites built outside the traditional South American urban constructs Implementing the term resource extraction urbanism the architect and urbanist Felipe Correa takes us from Brazil's nineteenth century regional capital city of Belo Horizonte to the experimental circular temporary city of Vila Piloto in Tr s Lagoas In Chile he surveys the mining town of Mar a Elena In Venezuela he explores petrochemical encampments at Judibana and El Tablazo as well as new industrial frontiers at Ciudad Guayana The result is both a cautionary tale bringing to light a history of societies that were inscribed and administered and a perceptive examination of the agency of architecture and urban planning in shaping South American lives Roberto Burle Marx Jens Hoffmann, Claudia J. Nahson, 2016-01-01 An unprecedented look at the wide ranging artistic work of one of the 20th century's most significant landscape architects The modernist parks and gardens of Brazilian landscape architect and garden designer Roberto Burle Marx 1909 1994 earned him awards widespread acclaim and international fame Over a 60 year career he designed more than 2 000 gardens worldwide the most famous of which are those he created in collaboration with the architect Oscar Niemeyer for Bras lia Although he is best known for his landscape work Burle Marx was a prolific artist in a variety of media and his larger body of work which includes paintings drawings tile mosaics sculpture textile design jewelry theater costumes and more is critical to understanding his importance as a modernist An avid horticulturalist he was among the first to denounce deforestation in the Amazon region he also discovered over thirty species of Brazilian flora which bear his name This beautifully illustrated and groundbreaking publication covers the full range of Burle Marx's artistic output as well as his remarkable home an abandoned estate that he transformed into his office workshop gallery and living space The enduring influence of Burle Marx's work is also explored through interviews with seven contemporary artists Juan Araujo Paloma Bosqu Dominique Gonz lez Foerster Luisa Lambri Arto Lindsay Nick Mauss and Beatriz Milhazes These artists exemplify the extent to which his work continues to be a source of inspiration

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Latin American and Caribbean Cultures Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, Ana M. López, 2000 This new three volume encyclopedia features over 4 000 entries on more than 40 regions in Latin America and the Caribbean from 1920 to the present day

Visual Typologies from the Early Modern to the Contemporary Tara Zanardi, Lynda Klich, 2018-07-04 Visual Typologies from the Early Modern to the Contemporary investigates the pictorial representation of types from the sixteenth to the twenty first century Originating in longstanding visual traditions including street crier prints and costume albums these images share certain conventions as they seek to convey knowledge about different peoples The genre of the type became widespread in the early modern period developing into a global language of identity The chapters explore diverse pictorial representations of types customs and dress in numerous media including paintings prints postcards photographs and garments Together they reveal that the activation of typological strategies including seriality repetition appropriation and subversion has produced a universal and dynamic pictorial language Typological images highlight the tensions between the local and the international the specific and the communal and similarity and difference inherent in the construction of identity The first full length study to treat these images as a broader genre Visual Typologies gives voice to a marginalized form of representation Together the chapters debunk the classification of such images as unmediated and authentic representations offering fresh methodological frameworks to consider their meanings locally and globally and establishing common ground about the operations of objects that sought to shape embody or challenge individual and collective identities

Designing Worlds Kjetil Fallan, Grace Lees-Maffei, 2016-06 From consumer products to architecture to advertising to digital technology design is an undeniably global phenomenon Yet despite their professed transnational perspective historical studies of design have all too often succumbed to a bias toward Western industrialized nations This diverse but rigorously curated collection recalibrates our understanding of design history reassessing regional and national cultures while situating them within an international context Here contributors from five continents offer nuanced studies that range from South Africa to the Czech Republic all the while sensitive to the complexities of local variation and the role of nation states in identity construction

Designing Pan-America Robert Alexander González, 2023-09-30 Coinciding with the centennial of the Pan American Union now the Organization of American States Gonz lez explores how nineteenth and twentieth century U S architects and their clients built a visionary Pan America to promote commerce and cultural exchange between United States and Latin America Late in the nineteenth century U S commercial and political interests began eyeing the countries of Latin America as plantations farms and mines to be accessed by new shipping lines and railroads As their desire to dominate commerce and trade in the Western Hemisphere grew these U S interests promoted the concept of Pan Americanism to link the United States and Latin America and called on U S architects to help set the stage for Pan Americanism s development Through international expositions monuments and institution building U S architects translated the concept of a united Pan American sensibility into architectural or built form In the process they also constructed an artificial ideological identity a fictional Pan America peopled with imaginary Pan American citizens the hemispheric loyalists who would support these projects and who were the presumed benefactors of this presumed architecture of unification Designing Pan America presents the first examination of the architectural expressions of Pan Americanism Concentrating on U S architects and their clients Robert Alexander Gonz lez demonstrates how they proposed designs reflecting U S presumptions and projections about the relationship between the United States and Latin America This forgotten chapter of American architecture unfolds over the course of a number of international expositions ranging from the North Central and South American Exposition of 1885 1886 in New Orleans to Miami s unrealized Interama fair and San Antonio s HemisFair 68 and encompassing the Pan American Union headquarters building in Washington D C and the creation of the Columbus Memorial Lighthouse in the Dominican Republic

Spatial Orders, Social Forms Adrian Anagnost,2022-01-01 A fascinating look at modernist urban planning and spatial theories in Brazilian 20th century art and architecture Exploring the intersections among art architecture and urbanism in Brazil from the 1920s through the 1960s Adrian Anagnost shows how modernity was manifested in locally specific spatial forms linked to Brazil s colonial and imperial past Discussing the ways artists and architects understood urban planning as a tool to reorganize the world control human action and remedy social problems Anagnost offers a nuanced account of the seeming conflict between modernist aesthetics and a predominately poor and historically disenfranchised urban public with particular attention to regionalist forms of urban development Organized as a series of case studies of projects such as Fl v io de Carvalho s performative urbanism the construction of the Ministry of Education and Public Health building Lina Bo and Pietro Maria Bardi s efforts to modernize Brazilian museums and H lio Oiticica s interstitial works this study is full of groundbreaking insights into the ways that modernist theories of urbanism shaped the art and architecture of 20th century Brazil
