The Joy in Creation and Judgment Francis Henry Edwards, 1975-01-01      The End of the World and the Ends of God John Polkinghorne, Michael Welker, 2000-02-01 In this provocative collection of essays scientists theologians ethicists and biblical scholars look at eschatology through their various lenses      Israelite Religion and Biblical Theology Patrick D. Miller, 2000-11-01 This is a formidable collection of previously published essays by this distinguished Old Testament scholar Three significant areas of biblical studies have been a focus of the author's attention throughout his career the Bible in its ancient Near Eastern world the Psalms and Old Testament theology In Part I epigraphic discoveries are examined for the light they shed on biblical texts In Part II special attention is given to the theological significance of reading the Psalms as a collection In Part III a wide range of theological issues creation covenant prayer cosmology canon and especially the nature and character of God are taken up in various essays that suggest how biblical theology can contribute to the larger theological enterprise      Creation and Law Gustaf Wingren, 2003-08-12      T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation, 2024-03-07 The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation      The Force of Creation, Salvation and Judgement Roger W. Carter, 2011-02-03 Carl Sagan a prominent American astrophysicist and philosopher said Extraordinary claims require extraordinary proof The Bible does just that The Scriptures are self revealing self interpreting and self dramatic Questions about the origin and foundation of the universe and the earth continue to confound the paleontologist the astrophysicist and even the theologian While many mysteries of the universe are being progressively unlocked in our age of technological advances and discoveries questions begging definitive resolutions still remain unanswered Such questions posed are Why and how did the dinosaur become extinct What became of Eden the garden of God Did Atlantis really exist and how was it destroyed What is the newest planet in our solar system and where did it come from Surprisingly definitive resolutions to these questions and more are contained within the pages of the Bible in oftentimes dramatic detail translated into all languages Only through divine inspiration can the extraordinary information penned by the prophets of old confirm the many wonders of the universe and the world that have come to light in our modern age of scientific exploration and discovery God frustrates the tokens of the liars and makes diviners mad that turns wise men backward and makes their knowledge foolish Isaiah 44 25      God's Sabbath with Creation James W. Skillen, 2019-04-09 The biblical story is about more than sin and salvation It is about the creator's purposes and the fulfillment of those purposes in the climactic revelation of God's glory in Sabbath with creation Christ Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega the one through whom all things are created and all things are fulfilled We are creatures made in God's image called to develop and govern the earth in service to God The exercise of human responsibility in this age plays a major part in the revelation of God s glory Every vocation matters for creation s seventh day fulfillment family friendships worship civic responsibility and our work in every sphere of life The Son of God became one with us He died for sinners while they still rebelled and he was raised to life as the last Adam the life giving Spirit of the age to come Christ is reconciling all things to God including all that belongs to the responsibility of God s sixth day royal priesthood That is why God s promise in Christ is that those who die in the Lord will rest from their labors and their deeds will follow them The Six Days of Creation Daniel Negron,2005-07 The Mystery of Creation and of Man Lewis Carter Baker,1884 The Corruption and Redemption of Creation Harry Hahne,2006-01-01 This book explores the role of nature in Jewish apocalypses and makes a comparison between early Jewish theology and that of Christian theology as recorded in Romans 8 19 22 Creation and the Environment Calvin Redekop,2000-10-23 Recent years have seen a shift in the belief that a religious world view specifically a Christian one precludes a commitment to environmentalism Whether as stewards of God s creation or champions of environmental justice church members have increasingly found that a strong pro ecology stand on environmental issues is an integral component of their faith But not all Christian denominations are latecomers to the issue of environmentalism In Creation and the Environment Calvin W Redekop and his co authors explain the unique environmental position of the Anabaptists in particular the Mennonites After a brief survey of the major forces contributing to the world s present ecological crisis Creation and the Environment explores the uniquely Anabaptist view of our relationship to what they see as the created order In rural Amish and Mennonite communities they explain the environment especially the land is considered part of the Kingdom God plans to establish on earth In this view the creation is part of the divine order with the redemption of humankind inextricably linked to the redemption and restoration of the material world The well being a purpose of creation and human history are thus seen as completely interdependent Contributors Donovan Ackley III Claremont Graduate School Kenton Brubaker Eastern Mennonite University Thomas Finger Claremont Graduate School Karen Klassen Harder Bethel College Kansas James Harder Bethel College Kansas Lawrence Hart Cheyenne Cultural Center Clinton Oklahoma Theodore Hiebert McCormick Theological Seminary Karl Keener Pennsylvania State University Walter Klaassen Conrad Grebel College David Kline Holmes County Ohio Calvin W Redekop Conrad Grebel College Mel Schmidt Dorothy Jean Weaver Eastern Mennonite University Michael Yoder Northwestern College Iowa Psalms : Volume 2 (Teach the Text Commentary Series) C. prevailing among the Lord's people as to the interpretation of those passages of Scripture which foretell the future in reserve for the Church and the world. The ordinary interpretation is that the promises contained in the Psalms and Old Testament prophecies refer to the Church which as the spiritual Israel has taken the place in God's purposes of the literal Israel to whom these promises were given. So the fulfilment of the promises is taken to be spiritual rather than literal being brought about by the gradual spread of Christianity and the blessings of peace and prosperity following the universal triumph of the gospel. This world wide dominion of truth and happiness is presumed to be the period of a thousand years during which Satan is bound and the saints reign with Christ. It is supposed that at the close of this time after another brief outbreak of Satan's craft and human wickedness the world is destroyed and that there is then a general resurrection of the dead both bad and good to be judged before the great white throne. This is interpreted as the event called the coming of the Lord the appearing of the Lord the day of the Lord the end of the age mis translated world and the coming of the Son of man names supposed all to refer to the same period the closing up of the history and indeed of the existence of the habitable globe. There is however another interpretation given to the Scriptures describing these events which may be briefly stated as follows. The Old Testament prophecies except where manifestly figurative are to receive a literal fulfilment. The promises given to Israel are to be made good to Israel not to the Church. The Old Testament prophecies being thus taken from the Church the New Testament is found to contain no prediction of the universal spread of Christianity but on the contrary sad forecasts of corruption leading to judgment in the body professing the name of Christ. In the midst of this gloom however the prospect of the Lord's coming for His saints shines as a bright hope for the hearts of the faithful. This coming the date of which is purposely left undetermined instead of being at the end of the world is preliminary to the judgments awaiting the world and to the reign of Christ with His saints. When it occurs the living saints will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air and at the same time will take place in part at least the first resurrection when the dead in Christ will be raised. Then follow the woes which usher in the day of the Lord when Israel is restored. Old Testament prophecy fulfilled. Satan bound and the dominion of Christ established on the earth. At its close Satan is loosed the nations rebel the world is consumed and the rest of the dead are raised and judged. I propose to inquire which of these interpretations is correct. The question is not one of mere curiosity still less an intrusion into regions we are forbidden to tread. The distinction which our Lord draws between the servant and the friend is that the servant knoweth not what his Lord doeth while He told His disciples as friends all things that He had heard of His Father. John 15:15. In the same discourse He promises to send the Spirit of truth the Comforter to show them things to come. John 16:13. Indeed the very thought that the constant references to the future scattered through the sacred writings are not meant to be understood carries its own refutation. And as if foreseeing the spirit of unbelief and indifference which characterises the present time the Holy Ghost has in the introduction to the Apocalypse the most distinctively prophetic portion of the New Testament pronounced a special blessing on those that hear the words of this prophecy and keep those things which are written therein Rev 1 3 While moreover it is admitted that the interpretation of prophecy may be attempted in a frivolously inquisitive spirit are not those who turn a deaf ear to its promises and warnings themselves guilty of the same irreverence which they censure in others For the object of prophecy is to unfold God s purposes with respect to the glory of His Son whom man has refused but whom God has exalted and to whom every knee shall bow and every tongue confess In the contemplation of this theme He invites His chosen ones to share And who are these chosen ones Are they mere lookers on No thanks be to God we who believe in Jesus are His fellow heirs all things are ours God invites us to look at the inheritance He has Himself prepared for us in joint possession with the Son of His love And surely as in the enjoyment of that inheritance the first born in whom we have our acceptance will be the one object of our worship and delight so in its contemplation now our brightest thought should be that we are gazing on the portion prepared for Him who alone is worthy to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honour and glory and blessing To study prophecy with any more trivial object is to lose sight of this glorious end It is like studying the movements of the solar system from the orbits of the more distant planets without taking account of the central globe round which the whole revolves But on the other hand to neglect it as unprofitable because it does not contribute to our personal salvation is a piece of selfishness derogatory to the claims of Christ and unworthy of the condescending goodness of God in thus taking us into His own counsels It is a deliberate preference of the position of a servant to that of a friend a declaration that so long as our own interests are secured we are indifferent as to what God has told us concerning the glories of Him who loved us and gave himself for us Nor can we overlook the great practical importance of the inquiry For surely there is a vast moral chasm between the two interpretations of coming events just indicated If God s Word teaches that Christianity instead of overspreading the world will only prove like Judaism the incurable enmity of man to God the jubilant and self congratulatory tone prevalent in Christendom is nothing better than Laodicean self complacency saying I am rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing while really it should be mourning that it is wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked Rev 3 17 It is holding out a false and delusive hope saying peace and safety when sudden destruction is approaching And if the world is hurrying on to judgment Christians who see it will duly estimate the seductive cry of modern progress and beware of entangling themselves in affairs over which such a doom is howling While therefore the deep solemnity of the subject forbids all idle curiosity its importance equally condemns all selfish indifference These things are written for our instruction and it cannot be a matter of little moment whether the instruction which God has given is received or slighted understood or misapprehended Reverence for God s Holy Word regard for the honour and glory of Christ as well as the immense practical questions involved in the different schemes of interpretation all unite in rebuking both the curious spirit in which the subject is too often approached and the careless spirit in which it is too often avoided For the sake of clearness the best mode of looking at the subject will be to inquire First What is the immediate prospect placed before the believer in other words What is the hope of the Church according to the Word of God This will naturally lead us to look Secondly At the promises of blessing and righteousness upon earth contained in the Old Testament Scriptures and the mode in which these promises are to receive their fulfilment Having thus distinguished between the hope of the Church and the prospect of blessing before the world we shall be in a better position to ascertain and understand Thirdly The teaching of the Holy Ghost concerning the position held by the Church in God s dispensational dealings and the moral relationship in which it stands towards the world a matter involving the deepest and most practical lessons us to the walk suited to believers in the present age      Collected Writings by John Nelson

Speak Thus Craig Hovey,2008-06-16 In its various forms speech is absolutely integral to the Christian mission The gospel is a message news that must be passed on if it is to be known by others Nevertheless the reality of God cannot be exhausted by Christian knowledge and Christian knowledge cannot be exhausted by our words All the while the philosophy of modernity has left Christianity an impoverished inheritance within which to think these things In Speak Thus Craig Hovey explores the possibilities and limits of Christian speaking At times ethical epistemological and metaphysical these essays go to the heart of what it means to be the church today In practice the Christian life often has a linguistic shape that surprisingly implicates and reveals the commitments of people like those who care for the sick or those who respond as peacemakers in the face of violence Because learning to speak one way as opposed to another is a skill that must be learned Christian speakers are also guides who bear witness to the importance of churches for passing on a felicity with Christian ways of speaking Through constructive engagements with interlocutors like Ludwig Wittgenstein George Lindbeck Jeffrey Stout Stanley Hauerwas John Howard Yoder Thomas Aquinas and the theology of Radical Orthodoxy Hovey offers a challenging vision of the church able to speak with a confidence that only comes from a deep attentiveness to its own limitations while also able to speak prophetically in a world weary of words

The Future of Creation Order Gerrit Glas, Jeroen de Ridder, 2018-01-12 This work provides an overview of attempts to assess the current condition of the concept of creation order within reformational philosophy compared to other perspectives Focusing on the natural and life sciences and theology this first volume of two examines the arguments for and against the beauty coherence and order shown in the natural world being related to the will or nature of a Creator It examines the decay of a Deist universe and the idea of the pre givenness of norms laws and structures as challenged by evolutionary theory and social philosophy It describes the different responses to the collapse of order that given by Christian philosophy scholars who still argue for the idea of a pre given world order and that of other scholars who see this idea of stable creation order and or natural law as redundant and in need of a thorough rethinking It studies the particular role that reformational philosophy has played in the discussion It shows how ever since its inception almost a century ago the concepts of order and law principle structure have been at the heart of this philosophy and that one way to characterise this tradition is as a philosophy of creation order Reformational philosophers have maintained the notion of law as holding for reality This book discusses the questions that have arisen about the nature of such law is it a religious or philosophical concept does law just mean orderliness How does it relate to laws of nature Have they always existed or do they emerge during the process of evolution
