Islam in Relation to the Christ Impulse Andrei

Younis, 2015-06-01 Islam came into being around AD 600 as a monotheistic Abrahamic religion revealed through the Prophet Muhammad. Awareness of Islam in the West has grown dramatically in the twenty-first century but there remains much misunderstanding of the interrelationship between Islam and Christianity both their commonalities and differences. Andrei Younis elucidates esoteric reasons behind the emergence of Islam from the perspective of Steiner's Spiritual Science. He draws on more than thirty years of studying Steiner's works as well as on first-hand knowledge gained from living in various Islamic countries and cultures. His purpose is to reconcile the origins, beliefs, and meanings of Islam and Christianity. Looking closely at the history and various manifestations of Islam, Younis discusses the spiritual impulses behind Islamic beliefs and practices, grounding his commentary in both the Koran and the Bible. Comprehending this anthroposophic perspective on the emergence of Islam is key to understanding why Islam manifests as it does today. Whereas this book will be enlightening and even surprising to most open-minded Western readers, it is not meant to be a foundation for beliefs or non-belief but as a springboard for thought and new avenues of understanding and compassion in a dangerous time.

The Impulse of

Freedom in Islam John van Schaik, Christine Gruwez, 2013-12-01 The word Islam means surrender to God. In our secular Western culture it is difficult to imagine what that means. Among other things it indicates dependence and predestination. But is this really the case? Isn't this a superficial presumption? Allah calls on human beings to surrender in freedom to their God. Sura 96: Allah is merciful and forgiving. At the same time, however, Allah is the all-seeing one and the one who humbles. In Islam, free will and predestination have an uneasy relationship with each other, but isn't this true for every religion? In this collection of essays, three authors discuss various aspects of the tension between freedom and predestination in Islam from the perspective of Rudolf Steiner's works. This background enables them to throw sometimes surprising light on the freedom impulse of Islam. It is the authors' hope that this book may contribute to a more balanced view of Islam today. This timely book offers interested non-Muslims a rare opportunity to examine a frequently misunderstood aspect of one of the world's fastest growing religions.

The Classical Age of Islam Marshall G.S. Hodgson, 2024-05-31 First in the comprehensive three volume history of Islamic culture and religion from the award winning scholar and world historian This is a nonpareil work not only because of its command of its subject but also because it demonstrates how ideally history should be written The New Yorker The Venture of Islam has been honored as a magisterial work of the mind since its publication in early 1975 In this three volume study illustrated with charts and maps Marshall G S Hodgson traces and interprets the historical development of Islamic civilization from before the birth of Muhammad to the middle of the twentieth century This work grew out of the famous course on Islamic civilization that Hodgson created and taught for many years at the University of Chicago Volume 1 The Classical Age of Islam analyzes the world before Islam Muhammad s challenge and the early Muslim state between 625 and 692 Hodgson then discusses the classical civilization of the High

Caliphate This volume also contains a general introduction to the complete work and a foreword by Reuben Smith who as Hodgson's colleague and friend finished the Venture of Islam after the author's death and saw it through to publication The Venture of Islam Conscience and History in a World Civilization The Classical Age of Islam 1 The Expansion of Islam in the Middle Periods 2 The Gunpowder Empires and Modern Times 3 The Management of Islamic Activism Quintan Wiktorowicz, 2001-01-01 Shows how the laws governing civil society are used to regulate Islamic activism in Jordan Curse of the Quincunx Vincenzo Spaggi, 2018-02-10 During the Middle Ages and after two hundred and fifty years of inbreeding this geographically isolated community of genetically diseased killers is all but destroyed by an earthquake Its few survivors scatter to the four winds and resettle afar Now a mad man tries to resurrect their lineage hoping to recreate an army of mercenaries from what remains of their genetically noxious descendants Waiting for them are the agents of World Interconnect WI 7 who attempt to stifle this deadly march of evil WI 7's quest is international its failure would be catastrophic

Homegrown Radicals Youcef Soufi, 2025-02-04 The powerful story of how the War on Terror created the conditions for the emergence of a novel theory of jihad On March 7th 2007 three Muslim university students left their small city on the Canadian Prairies seemingly without a trace In the ensuing months their disappearance raised fears among Canadian and US security agencies that the men had become radicalized posing a grave threat to national security From presidential briefings and targeted drone assassinations to a politically charged trial in a Brooklyn courtroom the men's story sheds new light not only on the figure of the radical but also on the moderate Muslim represented by a community forever changed by the men's departure Homegrown Radicals offers a case study of the complex entanglements of the radical and moderate Muslim in post 9 11 North America Youcef Soufi brings these figures together in uneasy tension providing insight into how state violence has inextricably tied them together Focusing on the radicalization of the three Muslim students the book traces the general sense of affective injury among North American Muslims over the loss of Muslim life in Western military campaigns overseas In this context a new theory of jihad rooted in a Muslim utopian imagination emerged marking a significant rupture with premodern Islamic thought The three radicals were among thousands of Anglophone Muslims who found this new theory compelling as both a diagnosis and a solution to the violence unleashed in the War on Terror The book examines how and why this theory resonated as well as its consequences for the men's families friends and Muslim community Homegrown Radicals highlights how post 9 11 Islamophobia has operated through the conceptual blurring of the line between moderate and radical Muslims and asks what alternative forms of solidarity may transcend the violent boundaries of the nation state

Islam in China Raphael Israeli, 2002-01-01 Are they really Muslims Islam in China reveals the struggle for identity of the small yet vital Muslim community of China a little studied minority on the fringes of the Islamic world now thrust into the spotlight by the opening of China to the world and the rise of independent Muslim republics on China's western borders Both timely and important the multifaceted essays _ collection of over twenty years of Raphael Israeli's scholarship on Chinese

Muslims offer detailed insight into the relationship between China's non-Muslim majority and an increasingly self-confident guest culture. The work uncovers a history of uneasy ethnic philosophical and ideological coexistence, the gradual sinification of the Chinese Muslim creed, and the increasing accommodation of Islam by a modern westernizing China. In addition, it highlights a religious group riddled with sectarianism, factional rifts that reveal the doctrinal, social, and political diversity at the core of Chinese Islam.

Iran and the World Bahram Navazeni, 2010-05-11

Both Iran and the World had witnessed changes which have had profound effects in their past as well as current events. Despite its long history, rich oil and gas resources, and the strategic position in the Persian Gulf, Iran has enjoyed stability in its blend of religion and politics of social affairs in the face of profound change. Contemporary international relations, known for its dominating principles of equal sovereignty and self-determination, are also undergoing change, the most obvious ones being the Soviet collapse, the new world order, and globalization, all of which have affected Iran. This book aims to emphasize recent developments in Iran and the world, study their interaction, thus attracting the attention of think tanks in international relations, political science, and other experts in various scientific fields. Subjects covered are the developments in the mystical vision of the Islamic Revolution, in the discourse of Martyr Mortaza Motahhari, legal and ethical issues of the human right to democracy, nation-state system, and Islam, Iran's religious constitutional institutions in the 20th century, Iran's admission policy of international students, Obama and the policy of changing relations with Iran, Arab-Israeli conflict, development strategies in Iran, and Algeria, Shanghai's Cooperation Organization.
