be titled Masters of Memoir In it Stefan Zweig one of the 20th century s most widely published writers describes the creative process and work of authors for whom no subject is as compelling as the material of their own lives Adepts in Self Portraiture examines the lives and work of three men who represent in Zweig s view three levels of development in autobiographical writing The first and most basic level is evinced by Giacomo Casanova the Venetian womanizer who records his sexual and social conquests adventures and escapes without attempting to analyze or even reflect on them The second level of self portraiture is exemplified by Stendhal the French pioneer of psychological fiction who kept voluminous notebooks on his own experience of life and on whom no nuance of feeling seems to have been lost Russian master Leo Tolstoy represents the third and highest level of autobiographical writing in which the psychological is imbued with the spiritual and ethical In Adepts in
