The Iranians How They Live And Work How They Live And Work:

Anthropological Approaches to Reading Migrant Writing Deborah Reed-Danahay, Helena Wulff, 2023-10-24 This book brings fresh perspectives to the anthropology of migration. It focuses on what migrants write and how anthropologists may incorporate insights gained from engagement with this writing into research methods and writing practices. The volume includes a range of contributions from leading scholars in the field, all organized around a striking set of questions about the conditions in which migrant narratives are written and translated, the audiences for which they are intended, the genres and media through which they are disseminated, and what such stories include or leave out. The contributors to this volume demonstrate an innovative shift in anthropological methods by showing how fiction and nonfiction, graphic memoir and autoethnography, song lyrics as well as social media posts and images unsettle the power dynamics in the study of migration narrative. This book will serve as important supplemental reading for courses on migration, literary anthropology, ethnographic methods, and sociocultural anthropology in general. Its interdisciplinary perspective will appeal to a broad range of scholars and students with interests in migration narrative and anthropological writing genres. Iran and The West Cyrus Ghani, 2013-09-05 First Published in 1987, this volume offers a bibliography of biographies, autobiographies, and books on contemporary politics by prominent 20th-century figures on the topic of Iran. Political Elite of Iran Marvin Zonis, 2015-03-08 In interviews with 170 politically active Iranians, the author reveals that politics in Iran are based on interpersonal relationships marked by insecurity, cynicism, and mistrust. He then assesses the significance of these characteristics for Iran's future development.
