

JOB INTERVIEW

*Feeling nervous I entered
The office to meet
A bloke in a bespoke
Suit that was neat
Shoes that were shining
Perfect coiffure
He extended his hand
As I walked through the door*

*An encouraging start
But the pressure's intense
After three years of study
Expectations immense
A job's what I needed
And this one's well paid
If I could convince him
My life would be made*

*The interview started
He followed his script
About yourself, tell me?
That's when I tripped
I hadn't prepared
As well as I should
I started to waffle
The job's gone for good*

*Don't wing it my friend
It never ends well
They'll see you're a bluffer
Yourself you must sell
They must be convinced
You have what they need
More so than the others
If you're to succeed*
