The Johnsons:

The Johnsons Lucille Jean Manning Wells, 2012-06-11 This book was written to have words put down that young people can relate to It kind of reflects on my life as a young mother and moving into a large family This book is dedicated to my two children Daina Manning and Michael Brownell as well as my niece Samantha Stiles I love all of you You kids are all that makes me happy Love your Mom and Aunt Lucy J Wells

A Tale of Survival Grace Flores-Hughes, 2011-09-20 A Tale of Survival is an explosive story that is much more than a simple memoir of an Hispanic woman it is an important quintessential American story of adversity and perseverance This is a brutally honest and provocative tale of not merely survival but success from one who came from a time and place where success and upward mobility for a Mexican American was not only unlikely but damn near impossible Unlike some other Hispanic memoirs Grace Flores Hughes describes her childhood and transition to adulthood and beyond against the tapestry of the modern Hispanic experience and the sometimes turbulent era of the rebellious baby boomer generation She writes of assimilation racial and ethnic injustice her role in coining of the term Hispanic and her championing the lives of the disenfranchised before and after the civil rights movement Further Ms Flores Hughes takes you on this treacherous journey while exploring her encounters and friendships with many of Americas leaders She demonstrates in this colorful and spicy story that Hold the Salsa has never been her style a story that chronicles the emergence of a childs identity to that of an accomplished Hispanic woman who rose against all odds

God Gives Joys to Balance Out the Sorrows of Our Lives Lillian Saksek, 2012-11-14

God Gives Joys to Balance out the Sorrows of our Lives was originally intended as a legacy for the author's family but as she found it was encouraging to a much larger audience she decided to publish You will laugh cry rejoice and find healing as you identify with her honesty and resiliency throughout devastating challenges of heartbreak and loss She is an example to us that even when we can't hold on any longer God will not let go of us Much of the content has been condensed from the Author's journaling Its flow in chronological order captures emotions and growth during different seasons of her life making it a story that people of all ages can identify with Following are comments that she received from friends who read her first manuscripts At first glance this book looks like a story of a woman and her 3 deceased husbands But on closer examination it is revealed that this is a book about a greater relationship with Jesus Christ first for salvation then family trials loss grief recovery renewal hope and on and on It is about trust in the Creator of the World and how one faithful woman lived and is living it out I couldn't sleep last night and it's your fault I couldn't put your book down WOW IMPRESSIVE WONDERFULLY DONE Lillian you are truly a renaissance woman with a Pioneer spirit It is so encouraging for me to see how faithful the Lord is to a heart that is surrendered to Him Lil you have such a gift of writing and such an awesome story to tell A grieving man at his young wife's funeral took me in his arms and cried saying I am having such a hard time but your book helped me so much especially the last part I gave it to Hospice and told them that all their volunteers need to read it Author Bio Mrs Saksek was born during the Great Depression grew up during WWII married at age 18 had 5 children 4 of them born before she became the proud owner of an automatic washer and dryer This meant washing cloth diapers and hanging them out on the line to dry with them freezing before she could get them hung up They did not have a car or a telephone and purchased their first home for 2 800 Blue Cross Blue Shield cost 3 30 a month and they often had to search the drawers for the last 30 cents She had to give the hospital a 25 payment before her son was born in 1956 After her 5 days stay 20 was returned Loneliness was her middle name as her husband worked 6 7 days a week Well we will let her story speak for itself Suffice it to say that at nearly 80 years old she just lost her 3rd husband but she still walks in the joy of the Lord every day Lillian has always found an outlet for her emotions in poetry some of which are included at appropriate places in her book keywords Joy Sorrow Hope Death Challenge Balance Faithful Commitment Love Heaven

Pacific Poultrycraft, 1913 Pacific Poultry Craft, 1913 Black. Queer. Southern. Women. E. Patrick Johnson, 2018-10-22 Drawn from the life narratives of more than seventy African American queer women who were born raised and continue to reside in the American South this book powerfully reveals the way these women experience and express racial sexual gender and class identities all linked by a place where such identities have generally placed them on the margins of society Using methods of oral history and performance ethnography E Patrick Johnson s work vividly enriches the historical record of racialized sexual minorities in the South and brings to light the realities of the region s thriving black lesbian communities At once transcendent and grounded in place and time these narratives raise important questions about queer identity formation community building and power relations as they are negotiated within the context of southern history Johnson uses individual stories to reveal the embedded political and cultural ideologies of the self but also of the listener and society as a whole These breathtakingly rich life histories show afresh how black female sexuality is and always has been an integral part of the patchwork quilt that is southern culture
