Margaret C. Patterson

The Literary Journal In America To 1900 A Guide To Information Sources:

The Literary Journal in America to 1900 Edward E. Chielens, 1975 The Literary Journal in America to 1900-1950, 1975 The Literary Journal in American to 1900 Edward E. Chielens, 1975 Literary Research Guide Margaret C. Patterson, 1976 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15 The English Literary Journal to 1900 Robert B. White, 1976 Literary Research and the American Realism and Naturalism Period Linda L. Stein, Peter J. Lehu, 2008-12-12 The American Realism and Naturalism literary period lasted from roughly 1861 to 1914. It was characterized by its response to the political, economic, and technological changes that transformed the nation during the Civil War and postbellum years. Some of the most well-known authors in American history wrote during this time, including Mark Twain, Henry James, Edith Wharton, Charles W. Chesnutt, and Upton Sinclair. Literary Research and the American Realism and Naturalism Period: Strategies and Sources will help those interested in researching this era. Authors Linda L. Stein and Peter J. Lehu emphasize research methodology and outline the best practices for the research process, paying attention to the unique challenges inherent in conducting studies of national literature. Each chapter covers a different type of resource: general and literary reference books, library catalogs, print and online bibliographies, scholarly journals, publishing history, sources, contemporary journals and newspapers, microform and digital collections, manuscript and archival material, and websites. The book offers a coherent account of how contemporary research skills and resources can complement one another in helping scholars effectively deal with typical challenges they encounter in their work. The Literary Journal in America, 1900-1950 Edward E. Chielens, 1977 American literature, English literature, and world literatures in English v. 16. Textual Scholarship David C. Greetham, 2015-10-28 First published in 1994, this fully revised and updated edition of the bestselling Textual Scholarship covers all aspects of textual theory and scholarly editing for students and scholars. As the definitive introduction to the skills of textual scholarship, the new edition addresses the revolutionary shift from print to digital textuality and subsequent dramatic changes in the emphasis and direction of textual enquiry. Literary Research and the Victorian and Edwardian Ages, 1830-1910 Melissa S. Van Vuuren, 2010-11-19 The diverse literatures of Victorian and Edwardian Britain have provided a wealth of research materials for novice and expert researchers alike. Although the body of scholarship for the Edwardian Age is smaller than that of the Victorian, researchers should have no shortage of resources for learning more about the literatures of either time period. While many of the novels, plays, poetry, and prose from the Victorian and Edwardian Ages are still readily available in print, a vast amount of literature has long since fallen out of print. Recent efforts in digitization, the Victorian Women Writers Project, English Literary Periodicals 1681-1914, Early British Periodicals 1681-1921, 19th Century British Library Newspapers, 19th Century U.K. Periodicals, Times Digital Archives, Victorian Popular Culture, and even Google Books have helped to make many texts more widely accessible. Literary Research and the Victorian and Edwardian Ages 1830-1910 discusses traditional and new resources for researching this period of British literature and the ways in which those resources can be used in conjunction with one another By helping readers navigate the resources and issues particular to these literatures this book will serve as an essential guide to researching the literatures of the Victorian and Edwardian Ages
