The Inward Turn Of Narrative Like New Paperback:

The Inward Turn of Narrative Erich Kahler, 2017-03-21 Erich Kahler sees cultural history as a subtle process in which reality plays upon consciousness and consciousness itself is forever transforming reality He traces the ebb and flow of this relationship by studying changes in narrative form from its beginnings in the Gilgamesh Cycle to the end of the eighteenth century The general direction is toward a growing inwardness he finds what takes place is an expansion of consciousness as man constantly draws outer space the contents of a more and more complex world into what Rilke called Weltinnenraum inner space Originally published in 1973 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Poetics of Revelation Diana

Culbertson, 1989-06 Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li, 2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation s quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture Key Concepts in Modernist Literature Julian Hanna, Martin Coyle, 2008-11-24

Introducing the dynamic study of a literary period stretching from 1900 to the Second World War the book reflects the exciting mix of European avant garde writers of the Harlem Renaissance and regional voices within Britain Three distinct sections explore the major concepts themes and issues that characterise the literature Responses to Modernity Joseph Frank, 2012 This book consists of essays and reviews that address social political and cultural issues which arose in connection with literature broadly conceived in the wake of the First World War and extending throughout the twentieth century The first portion of the volume concerns France with both essays on individual writers such as Paul Val ry Jacques Maritain Albert Camus Andr Malraux Jean Paul Sartre and Yves Bonnefoy and a piece on French intellectuals between the wars The second part concerns Germany and Romania with essays on Ernst Juenger Gottfried Benn Erich Kahler E M Cioran and others The volume concludes with essays on problems of literary criticism in dialogue with such critics as Gary Saul Morson Ian Watt T S Eliot and R P Blackmur These essays also discuss the history of the novel and the question of realism

Afterlife and Narrative in Contemporary Fiction Alice Bennett,2012-07-06 Afterlife and Narrative explores why life after death is such a potent cultural concept today and why it is such an attractive prospect for modern fiction The book mines a rich vein of imagined afterlives from the temporal experiments of Martin Amis s Time s Arrow to narration from heaven in Alice Sebold s The Lovely Bones

Bollingen William McGuire,2020-09-01 This lively intimate sometimes disrespectful but always knowledgeable history of the Bollingen Foundation confirms its pervasive influence on American intellectual life Conceived by Paul and Mary Mellon as a means of publishing in English the collected works of C G Jung the Foundation broadened to encompass scholarship and publication in a remarkable number of fields Here are wonderful portraits of the central figures including the Mellons Jung himself Heinrich Zimmer Joseph Campbell D T Suzuki Natacha Rambova Vladimir Nabokov Gershom Scholem Herbert Read and Kurt and Helen Wolff The Library Journal Book Review ,1977

The New Century Book of Facts Carroll Davidson Wright,1910 The Strategic Smorgasbord of Postmodernity Deborah Bowen,2011-05-25 Contemporary Christian critique often talks about postmodernism apocalyptically in terms of cultural crisis and decline instead the contributors to this volume believe that there is a new place for Christian entr es on the academic Smorgasbord of postmodernity and they see the postmodern turn as an opportunity for fresh perspectives on the spiritual dimensions of reading literature These twenty scholars are an eclectic group differing in theological and theoretical commitments but all identifying as Christian In this collection they enter into dialogue with a wide range of contemporary literary theorists and theoretical perspectives and offer new readings of primary texts informed by both these theoretical constructs and their Christian faith The manuscript strikes out in important new directions in its sympathetic reading of postmodern theory from a Christian perspective and even more significantly in its careful and measured dialogic approach to the relationship of Christian thought and contemporary literary theory Daniel Coleman Canada Research Chair in Critical Ethnicity and Race Studies Department of English and Cultural Studies McMaster University Too often Christian literary critics and theologians have preemptively dismissed postmodern theory even as secular critics have been equally dismissive about the contributions that the Christian faith tradition makes to the study of literature This volume successfully brings these two worlds together in innovative at times challenging and always rich ways I do not know of a similar volume in existence a work that gathers in one convenient publication a wide ranging set of discussions of contemporary literary theory by Christian scholars The editor has gathered an impressive and important set of papers here and I believe the volume will raise much interest and provoke a good deal of constructive debate Susan VanZanten Gallagher Professor of English Director Center for Scholarship and Faculty Development Seattle Pacific University The New Covenant Sam B. Girgus,1984 Girgus defines the American idea as the set of values beliefs and traditions of democracy equality and republicanism and argues that writers of the New Covenant tradition challenged society to live up to its own imperatives for individual and cultural renewal Abraham Cahan Anzi Yezierska Henry Roth Johanna Kaplan Philip Roth Norman Mailer Saul Bellow and E L Doctorow formed a new poetics to articulate a modern version of the myth and ideology of America Originally published in 1984 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Structure and Theme--Don Quixote to James Joyce Margaret Church,1983 Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt,2023-03-21 In Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt argues that late medieval dream poetry was able to use the tools of allegorical fiction to explore a set of complex philosophical questions regarding the nature of human knowledge The focus is on three of the most widely read and influential poems of the later Middle Ages Jean de Meun's Roman de la Rose the Pelerinages trilogy of Guillaume de Deguileville and William Langland's vision of Piers Plowman in its various versions All three poets grapple with a collection of shared closely related epistemological problems that emerged in Western Europe during the thirteenth century in the wake of the reception of the complete body of Aristotle's works on logic and the natural sciences This study therefore not only examines the intertextual and literary historical relations linking the work of the three poets but takes their shared interest in cognition and epistemology as a starting point to assess their wider cultural and intellectual significance in the context of broader developments in late medieval philosophy of mind knowledge and language Vernacular literature more broadly played an extremely important role in lending an enlarged cultural resonance to philosophical ideas developed by scholastic thinkers but it is also shown that allegorical narrative could prompt philosophical speculation on its own terms deliberately interrogating the dominance and authority of scholastic discourses and institutions by using first person fictional narrative as a tool for intellectual speculation

Through the Window, Out the Door Janis P. Stout,2020-11-10 This informative and provocative study focuses on the centrality of departure in the texts of five major American women novelists An important moment in many novels and poems by American women writers occurs when a central character looks out a window or walks out the door of a house These acts of departure serve to convey such values as the rejection of constraining social patterns the search for individual fulfillment and the entry into the political Janis Stout examines such moments and related patterns of venture and travel in the fiction of five major American novelists of the 20th century Mary Austin Willa Cather Anne Tyler Toni Morrison and Joan Didion Stout views these five writers within a spectrum of narrative engagements with issues of home and departure a spectrum anchored at one end by Sarah Orne Jewett and at the other by Marilynne Robinson whose Housekeeping posits a vision of female transience Through the Window Out the Door ranges over an expansive territory Moving between texts as well as between texts and contexts Stout shows how women writers have envisioned the walls of physical and social structures including genres as permeable boundaries drawing on both a rhetoric of liberation and a rhetoric of domesticity to construct narrative arguments for women's right to move freely between the two Stout concludes with a personal essay on the dilemmas of domesticity and the ambivalence of departure

The Science of Character S. Pearl Brilmyer, 2022-01-11 The Science of Character makes a bold new claim for the power of the literary by showing how Victorian novelists used fiction to theorize how character forms In 1843 the Victorian philosopher John Stuart Mill called for the establishment of a new science the science of the formation of character Although Mill's proposal failed as scientific practice S Pearl Brilmyer maintains that it found its true home in realist fiction of the period which employed the literary figure of character to investigate the nature of embodied experience Bringing to life Mill's unrealized dream of a science of character novelists such as George Eliot Thomas Hardy and Olive Schreiner turned to narrative to explore how traits and behaviors in organisms emerge and develop and how aesthetic features shapes colors and gestures come to take on cultural meaning through certain categories such as race and sex Engaged with materialist science and philosophy these authors transformed character from the liberal notion of the inner truth of an individual into a materially determined figuration produced through shifts in the boundaries between the body's inside and outside In their hands Brilmyer argues literature became a science not in the sense that its claims were falsifiable or even systematically articulated but in its commitment to uncovering through a fictional staging of realistic events the laws governing physical and affective life The Science of Character redraws late Victorian literary history to show how women and feminist novelists pushed realism to its aesthetic and philosophical limits in the crucial span between 1870 and 1920 The Maternal Gaze in the Gothic Sara Williams, 2025-01-27 This monograph is an original project which plots the trajectory of the maternal gaze as a convention in the Gothic It offers new directions for Gothic studies by exposing and challenging a critical and cultural myopia towards the capabilities of maternal desire and in doing so engages with a range of texts from the Romantic to contemporary literary and visual cultures to locate a tyrannical maternal gaze in the genre Compelling a seismic shift in the perception of the genre as the embodiment of patriarchy and the sexually violent male gaze this is a new and unexplored area of both the Gothic and criticism of the genre which has historically privileged the Oedipal paternal tyrant female victim dynamic established in the Romantic Gothics of Walpole and Radcliffe The monograph fills significant gaps in the Gothic academic publishing market It is the first overview of the maternal gaze in the Gothic it offers in depth studies of previously neglected authors and their works and it fundamentally changes how we see the Gothic mother figure and child both as a single entity and discrete tropes The Maternal Gaze in the Gothic examines how articulations of maternal visual tyrannies in the Gothic including kidnapping incarcerating gaslighting hurting and killing the child under the guises of protection are ignored by both the Gothic critical heritage and also feminist gaze theory This book is a must read for those interested in the Gothic and Feminism alike
