The Irish Face in America Julia McNamara, Jim Smith, 2006-02-15 The Irish in America John Francis Maguire, William Joseph Hardee, 1868 Not Just Black and White Nancy Foner, George M. Fredrickson, 2004-04-22 Immigration is one of the driving forces behind social change in the United States continually reshaping the way Americans think about race and ethnicity How have various racial and ethnic groups including immigrants from around the globe indigenous racial minorities and African Americans related to each other both historically and today How have these groups been formed and transformed in the context of the continuous influx of new arrivals to this country In Not Just Black and White editors Nancy Foner and George M Fredrickson bring together a distinguished group of social scientists and historians to consider the relationship between immigration and the ways in which concepts of race and ethnicity have evolved in the United States from the end of the nineteenth century to the present Not Just Black and White opens with an examination of historical and theoretical perspectives on race and ethnicity The late John Higham in the last scholarly contribution of his distinguished career defines ethnicity broadly as a sense of community based on shared historical memories using this concept to shed new light on the main contours of American history The volume also considers the shifting role of state policy with regard to the construction of race and ethnicity Former U S census director Kenneth Prewitt provides a definitive account of how racial and ethnic classifications in the census developed over time and how they operate today Other contributors address the concept of panethnicity in relation to whites Latinos and Asian Americans and explore socioeconomic trends that have affected and continue to affect the development of ethno racial identities and relations Joel Perlmann and Mary Waters offer a revealing comparison of patterns of intermarriage among ethnic groups in the early twentieth century and those today The book concludes with a look at the nature of intergroup relations both past and present with special emphasis on how America's principal non immigrant minority African Americans fits into this mosaic With its attention to contemporary and historical scholarship Not Just Black and White provides a wealth of new insights about immigration race and ethnicity that are fundamental to our understanding of how American society has developed thus far and what it may look like in the future

Crashing into the Third Heaven Janis Baker, 2013-10-11 Two ten year old Irish American girls take the reader on a journey beginning in 1955 when they are challenged by Salvie Baldwin to learn about the historic 1954 US Supreme Court decision declaring segregated schools unconstitutional After a tragic fall on a track field sixteen year old Erin OHara is told that she must make a life or death decision to have surgery to save her left leg and her life Desperately ill and weary from the fight to hang on she thinks of what she and her best friend Lily McCarey have learned about the courage of the Negroes in fighting for fair independence and acceptance as they are in the middle of Americas civil rights movement They have both been clinging to that shifty rope bridge called faith It is now 1963 and the worst is yet to come Joy OHara Erins mother keeps her ambitious husband and three daughters within her sight delivering unconditional love In her wisdom she hires Mayleen

Watson a good woman to look after her children and her home But her true intent is to help her racially prejudiced husband move to a place of honest acceptance while keeping her children colorblind Mayleen who swore she would never work for a white family takes them into her heart and when necessary delivers tough love through sass and laughter While representing Colorado in the 1963 Americas Junior Miss Pageant Erins beliefs are sorely tested but reinforced by divine miracles As life spins ahead it is discovered that deeply held faith in God is the bedrock of everyones salvation Crashing into the Third Heaven is a testament to the power of faith courage and forgiveness First time novelist Janis Baker lays down a foundation of strong believable characters who exemplify the capabilities of women while under fire Re-imagining Ireland Andrew Higgins Wyndham,2006 Accompanying DVD is a videorecording of the television program produced by Virginia Foundation for the Humanities and Paul Wagner Productions in association with Radio Telef s ireann and originally broadcast in 2004

The Cultural Politics of U.S. Immigration Leah Perry,2016-09-27 How the immigration policies and popular culture of the 1980 s fused to shape modern views on democracy In the 1980s amid increasing immigration from Latin America the Caribbean and Asia the circle of who was considered American seemed to broaden reflecting the democratic gains made by racial minorities and women Although this expanded circle was increasingly visible in the daily lives of Americans through TV shows films and popular news media these gains were circumscribed by the discourse that certain immigrants for instance single and working mothers were feared censured or welcomed exclusively as laborers In The Cultural Politics of U S Immigration Leah Perry argues that 1980s immigration discourse in law and popular media was a crucial ingredient in the cohesion of the neoliberal idea of democracy Blending critical legal analysis with a feminist media studies methodology over a range of sources including legal documents congressional debates and popular media such as Golden Girls Who's the Boss Scarface and Mi Vida Loca Perry shows how even while multicultural immigrants were embraced they were at the same time disciplined through gendered discourses of respectability Examining the relationship between law and culture this book weaves questions of legal status and gender into existing discussions about race and ethnicity to revise our understanding of both neoliberalism and immigration The Irish Americans Brenda Haugen, Barry Moreno, 2008-10 Examines the contributions of the Irish Americans who have helped build Canada and the United States during the past two centuries

America, 1909 The Jesuit review of faith and culture Nov 13 2017 Decolonization Models for America's Last Colony Angel Collado-Schwarz, 2012-02-29 Addresses the colonial relationship between Puerto Rico and the United States and provides the long term options that Puerto Rico might have as a sovereign country using six countries as case studies Singapore Ireland New Zealand Estonia Slovenia and Israel Monthly Bulletin St. Louis Public Library, 1918 Teachers bulletin vol 4 issued as part of v 23 no 9 Monthly Bulletin. Thompson, 2022-02-08 A leading expert on the past present and future of public monuments in America An urgent and fractious national debate over public monuments has erupted in America Some people risk imprisonment to tear down long ignored hunks of marble others form armed patrols to defend them Why do we care so much about statues Which ones should stay up and which should come down Who should make these decisions and how Erin L Thompson the country's leading expert in the tangled aesthetic legal political and social issues involved in such battles brings much needed clarity in Smashing Statues She lays bare the turbulent history of American monuments and its abundant ironies from the enslaved man who helped make the statue of Freedom that tops the United States Capitol to the fervent Klansman fired from sculpting the world's largest Confederate monument who went on to carve Mount Rushmore And she explores the surprising motivations behind contemporary flashpoints including the toppling of a statue of Columbus at the Minnesota State Capitol the question of who should be represented on the Women's Rights Pioneers Monument in Central Park and the decision by a museum of African American culture to display a Confederate monument removed from a public park Written with great verve and informed by a keen sense of American history Smashing Statues gives readers the context they need to consider the fundamental questions for rebuilding not only our public landscape but our nation as a whole Whose voices must be heard and whose pain must remain private
