NELSON,1991 Island in the Storm Jamie W. Moore,Dorothy Perrin Moore,2006-08-16 Island in the Storm by local historians Jamie and Dorothy Moore documents in vivid detail the devastation loss and eventual rebuilding of this beloved island community On the night of September 21 1989 Hurricane Hugo slammed into the South Carolina coast at Sullivan s Island with winds exceeding 160 miles per hour The colossal force of the hurricane was punctuated by storm surges ranging from five to ten feet above sea level At approximately one minute after midnight Hugo s eye passed over the island and the charming community seaside community disappeared beneath the tumultuous sea for nearly an hour After Hugo left Sullivan s Island in its furious wake the first news broadcasts from the Charleston area reported that the island and neighboring Isle of Palms were completely destroyed The Ben Sawyer Bridge the only connection to the island at the time was knocked off its pedestal and rendered useless and so the hundreds of families who had evacuated the area could not return to their homes to see what if anything remained The recovery process started slowly and for many it would be a long arduous journey More than 15 years later Sullivan s Island s homes and businesses have been restored but the memory of Hugo s fury will not soon be forgotten A Series of Letters, Descriptive of Prince Edward Island in the Gulph of St. Laurence Walter Johnstone,1822 Sailing Directions for the Island of Newfoundland, the Coast of Labrador, and the Gulf of St. Lawrence ,1855 A Dutch Castaway on Ascension Island in 1725 Alex Ritsema,2006 On 5 May 1725 a Dutch ship s officer Leendert Hasenbosch was set ashore on the desert island of Ascension in the South Atlantic Ocean as a punishment for sodomy He tried to survive on turtles and birds but found very little water on the barren island He wrote a diary He probably died after about half a year In January 1726 British mariners found his tent diary and other things and brought the diary to England In 1728 a first English version of the diary of the Dutch castaway was published Other versions followed Who was the castaway The truth was disclosed by the Dutch historian Michiel Koolbergen 1953 2002 in a posthumously published book in Dutch With the support of Michiel Koolbergen s family and publisher this new book discloses the truth in English This book is illustrated with line drawings both historic ones and by the Dutch artist Anneke de Vries

Urbanisation in the Island Pacific John Connell,John Lea,2002-09-26 Managing rapid urban growth presents a significant challenge in the small independent countries of the Pacific Islands Although they originated in colonial times the towns and cities are now distinctively post colonial with economies environments and social structures that reflect unique island characteristics This transformation has stimulated new concerns such as the causes and effects of pollution the need for employment for landless migrants the need for adequate and affordable housing and the financing of expanding urban services This book explores the diversity of the urban experience in the ten independent island states focusing on strategies to secure long term sustainable development *Salaminia (Cyprus). Proclamations, Regulations, Advertisements, and Orders, Printed and Published in the Island of Java: From 9th October 1815 to 19th August 1816, 1813 The Island Harriet Deacon, 1996 Robben Island is a low lying outcrop of rock and sand guarding the entrance to South Africa's Table Bay Although it is just a few kilometres long and a barely swimmable distance from Cape Town it may well be the most significant historical site in South Africa today The Aesthetics of Island Space Johannes Riquet, 2019-12-18 Oxford Textual Perspectives is a series of informative and provocative studies focused upon literary texts conceived of in the broadest sense of that term and the technologies cultures and communities that produce inform and receive them It provides fresh interpretations of fundamental works and of the vital and challenging issues emerging in English literary studies By engaging with the materiality of the literary text its production and reception history and frequently testing and exploring the boundaries of the notion of text itself the volumes in the series question familiar frameworks and provide innovative interpretations of both canonical and less well known works The Aesthetics of Island Space discusses islands as central figures in the modern experience of space It examines the spatial poetics of islands in literary texts from Shakespeare's The Tempest to Ghosh's The Hungry Tide in the journals of explorers and scientists such as James Cook and Charles Darwin and in Hollywood cinema It traces the ways in which literary and cinematic islands have functioned as malleable spatial figures that offer vivid perceptual experiences as well as a geopoetic oscillation between the material energies of words and images and the energies of the physical world The chapters focus on America's island gateways Roanoke and Ellis Island visions of tropical islands Tahiti and imagined South Sea islands the islands of the US Canadian border region in the Pacific Northwest and the imaginative appeal of mutable islands It argues that modern voyages of discovery posed considerable perceptual and cognitive challenges to the experience of space and that these challenges were negotiated in complex and contradictory ways via poetic engagement with islands Discussions of island narratives in postcolonial theory have broadened understanding of how islands have been imagined as geometrical abstractions bounded spaces easily subjected to the colonial gaze There is however a second story of islands in the Western imagination which runs parallel to this colonial story In this alternative account the modern experience of islands in the age of discovery went hand in hand with a disintegration of received models of understanding global space Drawing on and rethinking post phenomenological geocritical and geopoetic theories The Aesthetics of Island Space argues that the modern experience of islands as mobile and shifting territories implied a dispersal fragmentation and diversification of spatial experience and it explores how this disruption is registered and negotiated by both non fictional and fictional responses

An Account of the Island of Ceylon Robert Percival,1805      Niue a History of the Island ,1981      Atlantic Reporter ,1907      Governing the Island of Montreal Andrew Sancton,2023-04-28 Located at the junction of the St Lawrence and Ottawa rivers Montreal Island is the main contact point between French and English Canadians Prior to Quebec s Quiet Revolution of the 1960s local governments in Montreal both reflected and perpetuated the mutual isolation of French and English Residential concentration in autonomous suburbs together with self contained networks of schools and social services enabled English speaking Montrealers to control the city s economy and to conduct their community s affairs with little regard for the French speaking majority The modernization of the Quebec state in the 1960s dramatically challenged this arrangement The author demonstrates how the English speaking politicians in cooperation with certain French speaking allies have succeeded in preventing the wholesale adoption of ambitious schemes for metropolitan reorganization He describes the workings of a society divided by language and ethnicity where the pervasiveness of the politics of language impedes all plans for comprehensive metropolitan reform This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1985
