The Kairos Covenant Standing With South African Christians:

The Kairos Covenant Willis H. Logan, 1988 The Kairos Covenant Willis H. Logan, 1988 Black Theology USA and South Africa Dwight N. Hopkins, 2005-12-01 Black theology continually poses a challenge to Christian witness and faith Through a critical analysis of leading religious thinkers Dwight N Hopkins explores the fundamental differences and similarities between black theology in the United States and black theology in South Africa and asks What is the common denominator between the two Part I examines the historical political cultural and theological background of contemporary black theology in both countries Hopkins delves into the distinctive situation of each country focusing on civil rights black power and related political cultural and theological themes in the United States and on civil disobedience black consciousness the unity of politics and culture and political cultural theological themes in South Africa Through interviews with leading black religious scholars Part II explores these theologies in depth Contrasting the cultural theological trend with the political theological trend in the USA Hopkins explores the ideas of theologians Albert B Cleage James H Cone J Deotis Roberts William R Jones Gayraud S Wilmore Charles H Long Cecil W Cone and Vincent Harding In Part III Hopkins examines the same two trends cultural theological and political theological in South Africa Here the focus is on the impact of black consciousness and Soweto and the works of Manas Buthelezi Allan Boesak Simon S Maimela Frank Chikane Bonganjalo C Goba Itumeleng J Mosala Takatso A Mofokeng and Desmond M Tutu Part IV brings black theology USA and black theology South Africa into dialogue Hopkins locates the common denominator between the two theologies that they both claim the Christian gospel as the gospel of liberation for black people struggling against racism and for a holistic humanity physically and spiritually politically and culturally He concludes by looking toward future areas of development and collaboration arguing that an effective black theology of liberation must integrate politics and culture insuring that the two are equal and complementary two tributaries within the same current The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume V Mark P. Hutchinson, 2018-10-18 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in Britain and Ireland as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and Royal Supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond Britain and Ireland and also analyses newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier British and Irish dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent of ecclesiastical organizations The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions Volume V follows the spatial cultural and intellectual changes in dissenting identity and practice in the twentieth century as these once European traditions globalized While in Europe dissent was often against the religious state dissent in a globalizing world could redefine itself against colonialism or other secular and religious monopolies The contributors trace the encounters of dissenting Protestant traditions with modernity and globalization changing imperial politics challenges to biblical denominational and pastoral authority local cultures and languages and some of the century s major themes such as race and gender new technologies and organizational change In so doing they identify a vast array of local and globalizing illustrations which will enliven conversations about the role of religion and in particular Christianity Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers,2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal s history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there Mapping Systematic Theology in Africa Ernst M Conradie,Charl E Fredericks,2004-08-01 The emergence of an indigenous African theology especially since the 1960s is well documented A wealth of literature has been published in the context of African theology especially over the last two or three decades This indexed bibliography contains a number of publications in and for the African context specifically relevant to the fields of systematic theology and ethics Liberation Theologies Ronald G. Musto,2020-11-25 First Published in 1991 The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology mostly in book form available in English It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches Benedetto,Guder,Mckim,1999-11-03 A historical dictionary of Reformed churches It includes a detailed chronology followed by specific entries on the geographical regions where Reformed faith has been rooted Other entries are devoted to outstanding figures who have nurtured and shaped t Decolonial Christianities Raimundo Barreto,Roberto Sirvent,2019-11-11 What does it mean to theorize Christianity in light of the decolonial turn This volume invites distinguished Latinx and Latin American scholars to a conversation that engages the rich theoretical contributions of the decolonial turn while relocating Indigenous Afro Latin

American Latinx and other often marginalized practices and hermeneutical perspectives to the center stage of religious discourse in the Americas Keeping in mind that all religions Christianity included are cultured and avoiding the abstract references to Christianity common to the modern Eurocentric hegemonic project the contributors favor embodied religious practices that emerge in concrete contexts and communities Featuring essays from scholars such as Sylvia Marcos Enrique Dussel and Luis Rivera Pag n this volume represents a major step to bring Christian theology into the conversation with decolonial theory

Reformed Public Theology Matthew Kaemingk, 2021-08-17 The Reformed tradition in the twenty first century is increasingly diverse dynamic and deeply engaged in a wide variety of global and public issues from the arts and business to immigration and race to poetry and politics This book brings together the insights of a diverse group of leading Reformed thinkers including Nicholas Wolterstorff Makoto Fujimura Bruce Ashford John Witvliet Ruben Rosario Rodriguez and James K A Smith to offer a contemporary vision of the depth and diversity of the Reformed faith and its global public impact

African Theology Emmanuel Martey, 2009-11-01 Two major strands of theology have developed in Africa inculturation and liberation each in response to different needs Emmanuel Martey s African Theology provides a clear scholarly examination of these two basic approaches solidly based on Martey s understanding of contemporary theology and his firsthand knowledge of Africa Martey first examines the historical background of each of these theological developments especially relating to cultural and political movements enveloping the continent in the 1970s In sub Saharan Africa struggles for independence from colonizers have resulted in inculturation theology The defining aspect of this theology is that it pushes its roots firmly in African culture and traditions In South Africa on the other hand Black Africans struggling against the oppressive systems of apartheid have turned to liberation theology Martey shows how the real hope for African theology lies in the dialectical encounter between these two approaches and in their potential for convergence The two foci of liberation and inculturation Martey says are not contradictory but complement each other African Theology concludes by challenging African theologians to weld together the praxis of inculturation with that of liberation in order to achieve an integrative vision for the continent

Freedom's Distant Shores R. Drew Smith, 2006 This volume examines relations between U S Protestants and Africa since the end of colonial rule It draws attention to shifting ecclesiastical and socio political priorities especially the decreased momentum of social justice advocacy and the growing missionary influence of churches emphasizing spiritual revival and personal prosperity The book provides a thought provoking assessment of U S Protestant involvements with Africa and it proposes forms of engagement that build upon ecclesiastical dynamism within American and African contexts

Interruption and Imagination Kjetil Fretheim, 2016-12-22 As we are faced with recurring crises financial migration climate etc there is a need to reconsider public theology as both a practice and a field of study By discussing public statements made by Christians faced with different kinds of crisis this book contributes to the development and understanding of public theology The public statements addressed are three kairos documents The Kairos Document from

South Africa in the mid 1980s The Road to Damascus document from authors in developing countries issued in 1989 and the Palestinian Kairos Document from 2009 The discussion is structured around three problems of public theology social analysis politics and ethics and language and voice Fretheim suggests a constructionist understanding of public theology a public theology that interrupts current debates and expands the imagination of the public sphere As public theology is concerned with public life and social issues Interruption and Imagination will be of interest to scholars and students of theology political science sociology and religious studies as well as practitioners policymakers and professionals in the public sector civil society churches and Christian organizations

Must God Remain Greek? Robert Earl Hood, Must God Remain Greek brings together in a fascinating and readable way the cultural and religious thought and activities of African peoples Caribbeans and Afro Americans to bear upon Christian theology As a scholar Dr Hood is at home in the three regions as well as in the Western Christian tradition He raises fundamental questions for theology which have tremendous consequences in the present day of Christian expansion and ecumenical movement It is refreshing to see an old problem recast in cultural areas where Christianity is throbbing and thriving John S Mbiti

Las iglesias cristianas ante el apartheid en sudafrica Carmen Márquez Beunza, 2014-12-30 Esta obra se centra en el análisis del documento Kairos un texto de carácter ecuménico y contextual elaborado en 1985 cuando Sudáfrica vive uno de los momentos más trágicos de su historia reciente bajo el régimen del apartheid La confrontación de la Iglesia con una situación de nacionalismo político no es algo nuevo en la vida de la Iglesia Pero en pocos lugares la religión ha jugado un papel tan determinante en el último siglo como lo ha hecho en Sudáfrica donde se entrelazan de forma muy característica el nacionalismo con la religión llegando a hablar de la matriz religiosa y cristiana del apartheid En ese sentido Sudáfrica se convierte en ejemplo paradigmático de las relaciones entre teología e ideología política El documento Kairos reacciona fuertemente ante el peligro de una teología convertida en ideología y advierte de los riesgos de toda nacionalización de la religión Definir el papel y el lugar del evangelio en esa crisis discernir en definitiva la voluntad de Dios en ese preciso momento y lugar es la difícil tarea a la que se enfrentan los redactores del documento y en último término los cristianos de Sudáfrica En afloran cuestiones de gran calado la reconciliación la justicia y el problema del recurso a la violencia la tiranía y el problema de la desobediencia civil o la discutida implantación sudafricana del calvinismo y su posibilidad de redención Pese a tratarse de un documento de carácter coyuntural el texto nos sitúa ante cuestiones nucleares y permanentes de la teología al tiempo que plantea una crucial pregunta cómo debe ser confesada la fe en nuestro mundo

Thinking about God Dorothee Soelle, 2016-08-05 Developing out of a series of public lectures given to a large audience of non theologians this is one of the most attractive introductions to theology which has appeared so far Perhaps as Dorothee Soelle points out in fact introduction is not the right word for this is above all an invitation to share her enthusiasm for theology her delight in the beauty and the power of religious and theological language and the themes it expresses The book covers all the major areas of modern theology After discussing the nature of systematic theology and comparing orthodox liberal and radical approaches it looks at the use of the Bible in theology Then follow chapters on creation sin feminist liberation theology the understanding of grace Black theology Jesus cross and resurrection the kingdom of God and the church the theology of peace the end of theism and the question of God Each chapter is followed by a bibliography and Dorothee Soelle who is familiar with theology on both sides of the Atlantic has herself revised these for the English language edition Crucible of Fire Jim Wallis, Joyce Hollyday, 2005-08-08 Apartheid 30 000 detainees between 1986 and 1989 10 000 of them under the age of 16 children tortured and shot in the streets razor wire rifles whips and fire bombs freezing jail cells and worm infested cornmeal rations despair terror rage The day to day agony of South Africa Is this tortured land a parable of the rest of the world where issues and choices are thrown into stark relief Through the words of South Africa s leading Christian figures in the anti apartheid resistance Crucible of Fire brings home to every Christian the urgent need to know and to act Allan Boesak We have stood up from under the broom tree and we have been given courage by this God who never leaves his people alone The government of South Africa has signed its own death warrant no government can challenge the living God and survive Frank Chikane It is our faith that gives us hope We know that in our helplessness we become more dependent on God In our powerlessness we become powerful It is our weakness that is our strength Desmond Tutu I think we have a vicious and ruthless government and they would mow people down like flies We must be quite prepared to take the consequences of standing up on behalf of God s people Charles Villa Vicencio What you are witnessing in South Africa is not some sort of strange society or aberration It is in fact a microcosm of what is happening globally That is why Christians around the world need to join together Crucible of Fire cries out for Christians to act together today The time has come for faith the prayers and the energy of the worldwide church to be brought to bear to bring to an end the diabolical system called apartheid The War on Terrorism and the Terror of God Lee Griffith, 2004 Uniquely relevant in a world shaken by recent acts of terror this title calls people of faith to the way of peace the Christian response to evil and violence Heinrich von Kleist Jeffrey L High, Sophia Clark, 2013-12-01 In an authorial class with dramatists and authors of literary prose such as Goethe Schiller Thomas Mann Brecht and Kafka Heinrich von Kleist 1777 1811 remains prominent in international evaluations of artistic genius when measured by enduring popular and artistic reception legal philosophical and scientific criticism and resonance of political rage Scholars have long been fascinated by Kleist s biography and works in no small part due to his influence on authors philosophers political thinkers and filmmakers who regard Kleist as among the most accessible of classic artists one whose relevance requires neither theoretical introduction nor literary historical justification The present volume addresses two centuries of engagement with Kleist and his works from an angle that has proven most important to their popular canonical status his artistic and political legacies What mattered to Kleist has mattered to centuries of readers and thus all the more to artists and thinkers with similarly urgent messages to convey
