A Reader in Themed and Immersive Spaces Scott A. Lukas,2016 Themed spaces have at their foundation an overarching narrative symbolic complex or story that drives the overall context of their spaces Theming in some very unique ways has expanded beyond previous stereotypes and oversimplifications of culture and place to now consider new and often controversial topics themes and storylines Publisher s website New York Magazine ,1972-02-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Purple Decades Tom Wolfe,1982-10-01 The essential collection of Tom Wolfe s writing on a turning point era in modern American culture The Purple Decades brings together the author s selections from his list of critically acclaimed publications including the complete text of Mau Mauing and the Flak Catchers his account of the wild games the poverty program encouraged minority groups to play It was in the 1960s and 1970s those purple decades that Tom Wolfe rose to fame as one of the late twentieth century pioneers of American literature He became the foremost chronicler of the gaudiest period in American history much of which is spread out before us in these selections from nine of his books Wolfe s innovations in style his feats as a reporter and his insights into modern American life dominated a period of widespread experimentation in the writing of nonfiction Wolfe s contributions to the language of the purple decades range from the phrases the right stuff to radical chic the latter of which he coined in 1970 when Leonard Bernstein gave a party for the Black Panthers in his apartment on Park Avenue and on to the Me Decade as the 1970s were dubbed as soon as Wolfe s essay The Me Decade and the Third Great Awakening appeared in 1976 The complete texts of The Last American Hero and The Me Decade and the Third Great Awakening and long sections of Radical Chic and The Right Stuff are included here in The Purple Decades Generous selections from both From Bauhaus to Our House and The Painted Word also appear here as well as many stories from The Kandy Koloored Tangerine Flake Streamline Baby The Pump House Gang and Mauve Gloves Madmen Clutter Vine When Tom Wolfe's first book The Kandy Koloored Tangerine Flake Streamline Baby was published in 1965 Newsweek predicted This will be a sharp pleasure to reread years from now when it will bring back like a falcon in the sky of memory a whole world that is currently jetting and jazzing its way somewhere or other In these pages the falcon flies with big talons and an even bigger grin across the first two decades of Tom Wolfe's literary career LIFE, 1965-07-02 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Cool Cars, High Art: The Rise of Kustom Culture, 2002 Literary Journalism in the United States of America and Slovenia Sonja Merljak Zdovc, 2008 Slovenia is acquiring some volume of literary journalism written by Slovene journalists and writers Author Sonja Merljak Zdovc suggests that more Slovene writers should prefer literary journalism because nonfiction is based on truth facts and data and appeals more to readers interested in real world stories The honest precise profound and sophisticated voice of literary journalism is becoming increasingly good for newspaper circulation as it reaches not just the mind but also the heart of the reader Thus the world of Slovene journalism should also take a rapid turn towards the stylized literary journalism seen in the United States There journalists and writers realize that through literary journalism they could perhaps end a general decline of traditional print media by restoring to readers stories that uncover the universal struggle of the human condition BOOK JACKET The Fine Art of Literary Fist-Fighting Lee Gutkind, 2024-01-01 An account of the emergence of creative nonfiction written by the godfather of the genre When Gutkind stops to look back on his own evolving perspective and reflects upon his writing career the choices he made he puts himself and us right back in the moment and the results are vivid ambiguous emotionally resonant fascinating Lucas Mann Washington Post In the 1970s Lee Gutkind a leather clad hippie motorcyclist and former public relations writer fought his way into the academy Then he took on his colleagues His goal to make creative nonfiction an accepted academic discipline one as vital as poetry drama and fiction In this book Gutkind tells the true story of how creative nonfiction became a leading genre for both readers and writers Creative nonfiction true stories enriched by relevant ideas insights and intimacies offered liberation to writers allowing them to push their work in freewheeling directions The genre also opened doors to outsiders doctors lawyers construction workers who felt they had stories to tell about their lives and experiences Gutkind documents the evolution of the genre discussing the lives and work of such practitioners as Joan Didion Tom Wolfe Norman Mailer James Baldwin Zora Neale Hurston Rachel Carson Upton Sinclair Janet Malcolm and Vivian

No Respect Andrew Ross, 2016-09-16 The intellectual and the popular Irving Howe and John Waters Susan Sontag and Ethel Rosenberg Dwight MacDonald and Bill Cosby Amiri Baraka and Mick Jagger Andrea Dworkin and Grace Jones Andy Warhol and Lenny Bruce All feature in Andrew Ross's lively history and critique of modern American culture Andrew Ross examines how and why the cultural authority of modern intellectuals is bound up with the changing face of popular taste in America He argues that the making of taste is hardly an aesthetic activity but rather an exercise in cultural power policing and carefully redefining social relations between classes

What Is Good Writing? Geoffrey Huck, 2015-06-15 Though we all think we know what good writing is when we see it it's difficult to define it precisely and without a satisfactory definition it becomes problematical to assess as well as to teach In What Is Good Writing Geoffrey J Huck advances the contemporary debate on writing achievement by drawing on empirical research in linguistics and the other cognitive sciences that shed light on the development of fluency in language The utility of defining good writing as fluent writing or writing that is on par with the typical fluency in speech attained by normal adults is demonstrated by the progress it permits in evaluating the success of current writing programs in school and university programs which for the most part have proved unable to deliver writing assessments that are both valid and reliable Huck advances an alternative approach that rests on more scientific footing He explains why reading is key to good writing and why standard composition programs often do not live up to their aspirations

Cub Reporters Paige Gray, 2019-08-01 Investigates how depictions of young people in late nineteenth and early twentieth century America use artifice to destabilize pre-existing narratives of truth news and fact Cub Reporters considers the intersections between children's literature and journalism in the United States during the period between the Civil War and World War I American children's literature of this time including works from such writers as L Frank Baum Horatio Alger Jr and Richard Harding Davis as well as unique journalistic examples including the children's page of the Chicago Defender subverts the idea of news In these works journalism is not a reporting of fact but a reporting of artifice or human made apparatus artistic technological psychological cultural or otherwise Using a methodology that combines approaches from literary analysis historicism cultural studies media studies and childhood studies Paige Gray shows how the cub reporters of children s literature report the truth of artifice and relish it They signal an embrace of artifice as a means to access individual agency and in doing so both child and adult readers are encouraged to deconstruct and create the world anew Cub Reporters adds an exciting new volume to the growing collection of scholarship about American periodical culture and children s culture alike Gray lays out her arguments neatly and convincingly and supports them throughout The book is accessible convincing and engaging and is poised to become a touchstone for future academic work Karen Roggenkamp author of Narrating the News New Journalism and Literary Genre in Late Nineteenth Century American Newspapers and Fiction

Other Voices Everette Dennis, 2017-07-05 Conflicting journalistic voices that were raised in the past have become such a jumble that merely identifying them is difficult Dennis and Rivers define categorize present and examine the voices that contributed to what became known as the new media environment in the 1970s This new journalism came about as a result of dissatisfaction with existing values and standards of the early 1960s style of journalism The authors are comprehensive in their concerns as reflected in the national scope presented They cover developments in the major cities on both coasts in the Middle West and South in every major region of the United States Most of the research required travel and interviews all of it required reading almost endlessly and watching the video productions of journalists who built the structure of alternative television Dennis and Rivers offer a representative view of forms and media as well as the people who fashioned the new orientation The authors claim that the wrangling over objective and interpretative reporting misses the main point which is that neither is in close touch with reality The best objective report may cover all surfaces of an event the best interpretative report may explain all its meanings but both are bloodless a world away from the experience Color flavor atmosphere the ultimate human meaning all these the new journalists contend are far beyond the reach of traditional models of journalism This is one of the central reasons for the emergence of different forms and practices in our time This volume will help younger scholars understand the sources of quasi journalistic practices extant today including blogging and electronic only publications his themes touch on the non material side of human existence in a way that readers in different cultural communities respond to His prose and poetry offer an oasis of calm authenticity and spirituality a mental terrain of profound and genuine meaning The present collection of new essays argues that this spiritual capital may help readers of Hesse in uncertain times beyond the doctrines of organized religions or ideologies assisting them in inhabiting creatively both the world of literature and the visceral world of the early 21st century Edited by Ingo Cornils and NealeCunningham Contributors Flavia Arzeni Zhan Chunhua Thomas Cyron Helga Esselborn Krumbiegel Carina Gr oner Karl Josef Kuschel Thomas Taro Lennerfors Volker Michels Christopher Newton Shrikant Arun Pathak John Pizer Adam Roberts Oscar von Seth Christiane Sch onfeld Laszlo V Szabo Girishsha Ameya Tilak Jennifer Walker Yoichi Yamamoto Michal Zawadzki
