The Long Night Of The White Chickens:

The Long Night of White Chickens Francisco Goldman, 2007-12-01 This acclaimed novel by the Pulitzer Prize finalist is at once a story about a boy growing up in two cultures a love story and a mystery The Boston Globe Winner of the Sue Kaufman Prize for First Fiction The Long Night of White Chickens announced Francisco Goldman's arrival as a major literary talent It is both a suspenseful mystery and a tale of two worlds that plumbs the darkest depths of the relationship between the United States and Guatemala Goldman tells the story of Roger Graetz raised in a Boston suburb by an aristocratic Guatemalan mother and Jewish father and Flor de Mayo the beautiful young Guatemalan orphan who lives with the family as a maid Similar in age Roger and Flor become close and remain so even after she leaves to attend college at Wellesley After graduation however Flor returns home to Guatemala City where she heads a local orphanage that arranges international adoptions When she is murdered Roger is stunned and can't believe the rumors he hears about her life Years later he travels to Guatemala to uncover the circumstances around Flor's mysterious death in this wonderful book that is as complex as history funny as love painful as death The Washington Post Book World A richly layered genre busting novel that shuttles between suburban Boston and Guatemala City and devours everything in its path Jay McInerney author of Bright Lights Big City Buenas Noches, American Culture María DeGuzmán, 2012-07-09 Often treated like night itself both visible and invisible feared and romanticized Latinas make up the largest minority group in the US In her newest work María DeGuzmán explores representations of night in art and literature from the Caribbean Colombia Central and South America and the US calling into question night's effect on the formation of identity for Latinas in and outside of the US She takes as her subject novels short stories poetry essays non-fiction photo-fictions photography and film and examines these texts through the lenses of nationhood sexuality human rights exoticism among others Understanding Francisco Goldman Ariana E. Vigil, 2018-11-27 The first book length study of a writer whose work has been shaped by his unique heritage Award winning writer and journalist Francisco Goldman is the author of novels and works of nonfiction and is a regular contributor to the New Yorker magazine His awards include the Sue Kaufman Prize for First Fiction and the T R Fyvel Book Award as well as a Guggenheim Fellowship Born to a Guatemalan mother and Jewish American father Goldman's heritage has shaped his unique perspective and has had a significant influence on his literary themes In Understanding Francisco Goldman the first book length study of Goldman's life and work Ariana E Vigil begins with a biographical chapter drawn largely from Goldman's essays and interviews Her analytical chapters one for each of Goldman's four novels and two works of nonfiction offer biographical historical political and literary context for each work while exploring major themes Vigil examines the influence literary and political history have had in the development of Goldman's characters and themes as well as his use of multiple literary genres and the role of humor in his work She underscores how major themes in Goldman's work migration political violence love and loss are explored across nations and time periods and how they remain significant today In Understanding

Francisco Goldman Vigil draws connections between the writer's life and work and demonstrates the appreciation he deserves for his influence diversity and breadth Through his thoughtful intellectual transnational writing Goldman expands the definition of what it means to be American

Absorption Narratives Stephanie M. Pridgeon, 2024-12-16 In Absorption Narratives Stephanie M. Pridgeon explores cultural depictions of Jewishness Blackness and Indigeneity within a comparative inter American framework The dynamics of Jewishness interacting with other racial categories differ significantly in Latin America and the Caribbean compared with those in the United States and Canada largely due to long standing and often disputed concepts of mestizaje broadly defined as racial mixture As a result a comprehensive understanding of Jewishness and the construction of racial identities requires an exploration of how Jewishness intersects with both Blackness and Indigeneity in the Americas Absorption Narratives charts the ways in which literary works capture differences and similarities among Black Jewish and Indigenous experiences Through an extensive and diverse examination of fiction Pridgeon navigates the complex connections of these identity categories offering a comparative perspective on race and ethnicity across the Americas that destabilizes US centric critical practices Revealing the limitations of US focused models in understanding racial alterity in relation to Jewishness Absorption Narratives emphasizes the importance of viewing the narrative of race relations in the Americas from a hemispheric standpoint

Return to the Scene of the Crime Kamil Naicker, 2023-12-01 A crime novel at once disturbing and perversely comforting factually has been known to curtail social anxieties through the open and shut case of its narrative form But what happens to that form in a world where guilt and innocence are not easily assigned Return to the Scene of the Crime takes place on the trope of an investigator returning to the post colony on a quest for knowledge In tandem with solving the case they must also grapple with the complexities of their origins Kamil Naicker shows how five authors defy generic expectations to illustrate the complexities of personal identity transitional justice and civil violence in the post colonial world Congregating novels set in South Africa China Guatemala Sri Lanka and Somalia this book intervenes in literary studies by bringing the trend of the returnee figure and exploring the possibilities of world making through the explosion of a familiar form Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa
