Eiseley, 2002-05-01 This indispensable collection is filled with marvelous autobiographical glimpses of Loren Eiseley at different points in his life as a young inquisitive man during the Depression as an astute archaeologist as a blossoming writer and lastly as a world renowned observer and essayist Also included are poems short stories an array of Eiseley's absorbing observations on the natural world and his always startling reflections on the nature and future of humankind and the universe Loren Eiseley's Writing across the Nature and Culture Divide Qianqian Cheng, 2022-12-15 For the twentieth century naturalist and poet Loren Eiseley the relationship between human beings and the natural world has become unnatural divided by the era of modern technology Loren Eiseley's Writing across the Nature and Culture Divide analyses how the philosopher of science becomes a boundary crosser in time and space Qianqian Cheng points to Eiseley's method of uniting science and the humanities to reflect on human evolution and the past and future role of science with a visionary and poetic imagination Seizing the connectedness of living beings Eiseley and now Cheng makes us aware of the presence of nature even in daily urban life Qianqian Cheng unveils Eiseley's merits showing the poet as a necessary voice in the urgent mission to make individuals realize their responsibility to respond ethically to the living world

The Invisible Pyramid Loren C. Eiseley, 1998-01-01 In 1910 young Loren Eiseley watched the passage of Halley's Comet with his father The boy who became a famous naturalist was never again to see the spectacle except in his imagination That childhood event contributed to the profound sense of time and space that marks The Invisible Pyramid This collection of essays first published shortly after Americans landed on the moon explores inner and outer space the vastness of the cosmos and the limits of what can be known Bringing poetic insight to scientific discipline Eiseley makes connections between civilizations past and present multiple universes humankind and nature True Notebooks Mark Salzman, 2007-12-18 In 1997 Mark Salzman bestselling author Iron and Silk and Lying Awake paid a reluctant visit to a writing class at L A's Central Juvenile Hall a lockup for violent teenage offenders many of them charged with murder What he found so moved and astonished him that he began to teach there regularly In voices of indelible emotional presence the boys write about what led them to crime and about the lives that stretch ahead of them behind bars We see them coming to terms with their crime ridden pasts and searching for a reason to believe in their future selves Insightful comic honest and tragic True Notebooks is an object lesson in the redemptive power of writing Emerson and Environmental Ethics Susan Dunston, 2018-09-15 At the core of Emerson's philosophy is his view as a naturalist that we are made of the same atoms as the world is In counterpoint to this identity he noted the fluid evolution and diversity of combinations and configurations of those atoms Thus he argued our relation and connection to the world are not occasional or recreational but everywhere and always and also reciprocal ongoing and creative He declared he would be a naturalist which for him meant being a knowledgeable lover of nature Emerson's famous insistence on an original relation to the universe centered on morally creative engagement with the environment It took the form of a nature literacy that has become central to contemporary environmental ethics The essential argument of this book is that Emerson's integrated philosophy of nature ethics and creativity is a powerful prototype for a diverse range of contemporary environmental ethics After describing Emerson's own environmental literacy and ethical aesthetic and creative practices of relating to the natural world Dunston delineates a web of environmental ethics that connects Emerson to contemporary eco feminism living systems theory Native American science Asian philosophy and environmental activism
