Talk If I Am A Musical Thinker:

TALK Benjamin Boretz, 1985 Writing through Music Jann Pasler, 2007-12-12 Drawing on a passion for music a remarkably diverse interdisciplinary toolbox and a gift for accessible language that speaks equally to scholars and the general public Jann Pasler invites us to read as she writes through music unveiling the forces that affect our sonic encounters In an extraordinary collection of historical and critical essays some appearing for the first time in English Pasler deconstructs the social moral and political preoccupations lurking behind aesthetic taste Arguing that learning from musical experience is vital to our understanding of past present and future Pasler's work trenchantly reasserts the role of music as a crucial contributor to important public debates about who we can be as individuals communities and nations The author's wide ranging and perceptive approaches to musical biography and history challenge us to rethink our assumptions about important cultural and philosophical issues including national identity and postmodern musical hybridity material culture the economics of power and the relationship between classical and popular music Her work uncovers the self fashioning of modernists such as Vincent d'Indy Augusta Holm's Jean Cocteau and John Cage and addresses categories such as race gender and class in the early 20th century in ways that resonate with experiences today She also explores how music uses time and constructs narrative Pasler's innovative and influential methodological approaches such as her notion of question spaces open up the complex cultural and political networks in which music participates This provides us with the reasons and tools to engage with music in fresh and exciting ways In these thoughtful essays music whether beautiful or cacophonous reassuring or seemingly incomprehensible comes alive as a bearer of ideas and practices that offers deep insights into how we negotiate the world Jann Pasler's Writing through Music brilliantly demonstrates how music can be a critical lens to focus the contemporary critical cultural historical and social issues of our time Towards Good Lighting for the Stage

Marcus Doshi, 2022-12-27 Towards Good Lighting for the Stage Aesthetic Theory for Theatrical Lighting Design explores the theoretical underpinnings of effective lighting design from conceptualization to live performance Through an investigation of the author's own aesthetic point of view grounded in a broad investigation of art and design that blends pop culture and fine art theory and practice this book documents the author's thinking on the design process to fill the unexplored gap between an aesthetic philosophy and its expression in composition Redefinitions of the artist artwork and spectator link beauty and artistic efficacy to arrive at a set of principles for assessment that demand that contemporary lighting design surpass utilitarian visibility to become a vital part of the total artwork that is a theatrical production Inspired by the movements of the broader art and design worlds of the mid 19th century through present day citing influences as diverse as Jennifer Tipton Lois Tyson Dieter Rams and Dave Hickey this book charts a course from the artistic team's dramaturgical work to a solo studio concept to the tech table Engaging and wide ranging Towards Good Lighting for the Stage synthesizes years of cross disciplinary research and case studies of the author's own work into provocative reading for practitioners of lighting design advanced students and academics as well as those interested in connecting theatrical practice aesthetic theory and visual art
