Bliss,1986-08-18 This study examines all eleven novels of Patrick White the great Australian writer and Nobel Prize winner It begins from the observation that major characters in his novels undergo a necessary redemptive or facilitating failure This failure paradoxically enables their success within the context of what White has called the overreaching grandeur which circumscribes human existence Evolution of this theme is traced through forty years of White s fiction from his first novel Happy Valley 1939 to his most recent work The Twyborn Affair 1979 Comprehensive in its scope this book is informed by a thorough knowledge of White s poetry plays short stories and autobiography as well as his novels It is also unique in stressing that White s world view derives from a distinctly Australian experience It thus links him to a country in which he is deeply rooted and to a heritage he continued to affirm Lectures on ancient history, from the earliest times to the taking of Alexandria by Octavianus, tr. from the Germ. ed. of M. Niebuhr, by L. Schmitz, with additions and corrections from his own MS. notes Barthold Georg Niebuhr,1852 *Lectures on Ancient History, from the Earliest

Law and Narrative in the Bible Calum M. Carmichael, 2008-09-01 Calum M Carmichael here challenges commonly accepted views respecting the derivation of the biblical laws recorded in Deuteronomy and the Decalogue presenting compelling evidence that literary traditions rather than social imperatives dictated the form taken by the laws Carmichael confronts and discusses such problematic and important issues as the sequence in which apparently unrelated laws appear Why he then asks are some laws general in scope while others are extremely specific Acknowledging the literary sophistication of the biblical compilers Carmichael accounts for their attribution of the Deuteronomic laws to Moses and of the Decalogue to Yahweh He asserts that in order to preserve the prophetic impact of their material the compilers closely studied existing biblical narrative and selected laws which maintained the appropriate historical context Using this perspective Carmichael is able to detect strong logical continuity in both the structure and the content of the Decalogue and the Deuteronomic laws An original and distinguished contribution to the study of biblical law Law and Narrative in the Bible will interest legal historians and Biblical scholars alike Pines and Their Mixed Forest Ecosystems in the Mediterranean Basin Gidi Ne'eman, Yagil Osem, 2021-10-12 Almost 20 years after the first MEDPINE book Ecology biogeography and management of Pinus halepensis and P brutia forest ecosystems in the Mediterranean basin Ne eman and Trabaud 2000 was published this new book presents up to date and state of the art information covering a wide range of topics concerning Mediterranean pine trees growing in native and planted forests their ecosystems and management This will be an essential source of scientific information for learning exploring planning and managing mediterranean pine and mixed forests We focus on genetics adaptation distribution and evolution ecophysiology and drought resistance pine and mixed forest ecosystems forest dynamics biodiversity and biotic interactions fire ecology ecosystem services and policy afforestation and management all under the effect of global climate change While forests are studied mainly in temperate and tropical zones in the light of current climate change focusing on Mediterranean forests growing in semi humid to semi arid zones is more
