The Heart Of A Man:

The Heart of Man; God's Target Alfredo Harold Geil, 2009-08 The Heart of Man God's Target Part One is Harold's autobiography. It is a captivating account beginning with the author's parents leaving Germany at the end of World War I and settling in Buenos Aires, Argentina, where Harold was born and raised. He became fluent in three languages and at age twenty was drafted into the Argentinean Army. Soon thereafter he was chosen among thousands as the interpreter for the 1952 Argentinean Equestrian Olympic Team that toured Europe for seven months. After discharge from the Army, Harold enjoyed working for two international German corporations where he held several management positions, but political upheaval prompted Harold to fulfill his dream to leave for the USA. Part Two outlines hindrances that prevent Christians from truly enjoying God by failing to appropriate the power, promises, and faith of Jesus Christ. Harold Alfredo Geil is a sincere man of God who spent years in the corporate world as an electrical engineer. While still in Argentina, he married his high school sweetheart and was blessed with two boys. Later in the USA, they were blessed with a daughter. But shortly before retirement, his wife of 28 years died. Through the pain of this experience and other hardships, his desire to comfort the brokenhearted increased. In 1984, Harold married Jeanie, who shared his vision for ministry. Together they have five children, twelve grandchildren, and two great grandchildren. Harold and his wife Jeanie have been a tangible gift of love to many. In 1995, they founded Fullness of Christ Ministries Inc., bringing God's healing to the brokenhearted. So it should be of no surprise that a man who walks so closely with God exudes genuine fatherly love, and the preciousness they both manifest extends into their marriage and to their children and families.

The Heart of Man Erich Fromm, 2023-02-28 The acclaimed social psychologist and New York Times bestselling author of The Art of Loving discusses the nature of evil and humanity's capacity for it. Originally published in 1964, The Heart of Man was influenced by turbulent times. Average Americans were suffering from different forms of evil, including a rise in juvenile delinquency. On a grander scale, the threat of nuclear war loomed over the nation, and President John F. Kennedy had been assassinated. What could drive humanity to do things such as these? In The Heart of Man, renowned humanist philosopher and psychoanalyst Erich Fromm investigates man's capacity to destroy his narcissism and his incestuous fixation. He expands upon ideas he presented in Escape from Freedom, Man for Himself, and The Art of Loving, and examines the essence of evil as well as the choice between good and evil. He also explores man's ability to destroy and further considers freedom, aggression, destructiveness, and violence. The Heart of Man questions human nature itself from the forms of violence that plague it to individual and social narcissism to how the positive value of love of life can potentially outweigh the destructive syndrome of decay caused by the love of death and other harmful tendencies of thought. Midwest Book Review

The Heart of Man's Destiny Herman Westerink, 2012 The Heart of Man's Destiny is a new reading of Lacan's seventh seminar. Working from a new perspective, it explores the relationship between Freudian psychoanalysis and the Reformation.
