for the larger church. It argues from a variety of perspectives rooted in the Catholic imagination that the rig constantly needs to be re-tuned to balance between visions of the church as teacher and learner. Why should this matter to Catholic educators? To Herron, our understanding of the church as learner is at the heart of our understanding of ourselves as disciples. One of the logical consequences of this era of baptismal consciousness is a rising awareness on the part of the laity that their task is not simply to pray and obey but to grow and journey in faith. Herron's focus ranges from issues closely pertaining to Catholic schools to the larger questions of the Catholic imagination. The underlying thread, however, is the challenge of maintaining the richness of the Catholic imagination of tuning the rig in changing times and the ordinary life of the church.

It ranges widely across key areas of practice from the nitty-gritty of lesson planning and classroom management through conceptual areas such as motivation and observation to crucial if more abstract aspects such as teachers' beliefs and values. It also delves into the moral and political dimensions of teaching. Discussion of these areas, though well grounded in relevant academic literatures, is also supported by extensive quotes from real teachers working on their practice. The treatment is sufficiently challenging to interest the experienced teacher while covering matters of basic practice that would be of concern to the beginner. Anyone doing a TESOL practicum will want to use this book, whether as an in-service teacher or as a teacher longing to further their professional development. A Practicum in TESOL can be used individually or in groups. The Academic Chairperson's Handbook, 1990-01-01 Between 1990 and 2004, universities and colleges will compete fiercely for 335,000 new faculty members.
