Territory Of Information Pragmatics And Beyond New Series:

A Grammar of Bunan Manuel Widmer, 2017-09-11 This book provides a comprehensive grammatical description of Bunan a Tibeto Burman languages that is spoken by approximately 4 000 people in the North Indian Himalayas The grammar offers a systematic analysis of a wide range of grammatical phenomena ranging from phonetics and phonology to complex syntactic constructions Moreover it contains a wealth of historical annotations annotated texts and a Bunan English glossary

Certainty-uncertainty - and the Attitudinal Space in Between Sibilla Cantarini, Werner Abraham, Elisabeth Leiss, 2014-11-15 The selected papers of this volume cover five main topics namely Certainty The conceptual differential Un Certainty as attitudinality Dialogical exchange and speech acts Onomasiology and Applications in exegesis and religious discourse By examining the general theme of the communication of certainty and uncertainty from different scientific fields theoretical approaches and perspectives this compendium of state of the art research papers provides both an interdisciplinary comparison of the latest investigations methods and findings and new advances and theoretical insights with a common focus on human communication

Territory of Information Akio Kamio, 1997-07-03 Most higher animals are said to be territorial as a huge amount of work in ethology has made it clear Human beings are no exceptions They tend to occupy a certain space around them where they claim their own presence and exclude others quite naturally If territory is so prevalent among higher animals including humans then isn t it possible to observe its manifestations in aspects of human language Territory of Information starts from this fundamental question and attempts to demonstrate the key function of the concept of territory in the informational structure and syntax of natural language It offers an analysis of English Japanese and Chinese in terms of territory and shows its fundamental importance in the interface of information and syntax in these languages Moreover it argues that the concept of territory plays a major role in the evidentiality of a number of languages and in the linguistic structure of politeness It also makes much reference to discourse and conversational analysis Thus this is a book which might interest readers concerned with pragmatics in general the relationship between informational structure and syntax evidentiality politeness discourse analysis and conversational analysis Egophoricity Simeon

Floyd, Elisabeth Norcliffe, Lila San Roque, 2018-04-15 Egophoricity refers to the grammaticalised encoding of personal knowledge or involvement of a conscious self in a represented event or situation Most typically a marker that is egophoric is found with first person subjects in declarative sentences and with second person subjects in interrogative sentences This person sensitivity reflects the fact that speakers generally know most about their own affairs while in questions this epistemic authority typically shifts to the addressee First described for Tibeto Burman languages egophoric like patterns have now been documented in a number of other regions around the world including languages of Western China the Andean region of South America the Caucasus Papua New Guinea and elsewhere This book is a first attempt to place detailed descriptions of this understudied grammatical category side by side and to add to the cross linguistic picture of how ideas of self and other are encoded and projected in language The diverse but conceptually related egophoric phenomena described in its chapters provide fascinating case studies for how structural patterns in morphosyntax are forged under intersubjective interactional pressures as we link elements of our speech to our speech situation Human Spoken Interaction as a Complex Adaptive System Paul Seedhouse, Aki Siegel, 2024-05-31 Human Spoken Interaction as a Complex Adaptive System explains how human spoken communication functions combining two separate complex adaptive systems the universal interaction engine and language s which now number around 7 000 Siegel and Seedhouse offer a comprehensive overview of how the components and processes of the interaction engine work together to enable us to understand each other whatever the language Through combining Complexity Science and Conversation Analysis this book explains how to simultaneously analyse spoken interaction on micro and macro scales Detailed analyses of L2 learners reveal them to be simultaneously expert in using the interaction engine and inexpert in using the specific language The study shows that the basic characteristics of the interaction engine are the same as for other life related complex systems and that it is possible to access the perspectives of participants inside this complex adaptive system as it is evolving Usage-based Approaches to Japanese Grammar Kaori Kabata, Tsuyoshi Ono, 2014-06-15 This volume brings together papers that take usage based approaches to study the nature of human language with a focus on the grammar of Japanese The 12 chapters provide a rich array of data and methodologies with topics ranging from phonology modality and grammatical morphemes to sentential construction and discourse level phenomena such as turn taking speech register and language change As a whole they demonstrate that usage based linguistics illuminates various phenomena in the language that could not have been well accounted for by resorting solely to a formal theory such as the Universal Grammar based approach Reflecting theoretical methodological and technological advancements made in and outside the field of cognitive functional linguistics in recent years the papers contained in this volume both individually and collectively have significant implications towards linguistics in general and Japanese linguistics in particular as we as Japanese language teaching Evidentials in Ryukyuan: the Shuri Variety of Luchuan Tomoko Arakaki, 2013-07-15 Evidentiality the linguistic category which marks the source of the speaker s information has often been overlooked in studies of Luchuan Ryukyuan the only sister language of Japanese In this book Arakaki provides the first comprehensive analysis of Luchuan evidentials She proposes that Luchuan has a grammatical evidential system which contains one Direct evidential and three indirect evidentials Inference Assumed and Reportative The discussion includes cross linguistic issues such as how evidentiality is related to epistemic modality with the intention that this work should constitute a contribution to the typological and theoretical study of evidentiality This work will open new horizons for the study of evidentiality The Pragmatics of Modals in Shakespeare Minako Nakayasu, 2009 Modals and related phenomena are without doubt one of the most complicated issues in the grammar of language This study provides a reappraisal of the modals in Shakespeare s language from the pragmatic viewpoint both micropragmatic and macropragmatic The material selected for analysis are modals SHALL SHOULD WILL WOULD and their contracted forms Micropragmatic aspects such as speech acts seem relatively easily accessible to historical researchers however this study moves further into the macropragmatic dimensions of language use than the earlier ones and covers politeness dialogue and discourse analysis

Insubordination Nicholas Evans, Honoré Watanabe, 2016-11-18 The phenomenon of insubordination can be defined diachronically as the recruitment of main clause structures from subordinate structures or synchronically as the independent use of constructions exhibiting characteristics of subordinate clauses Long marginalised as uncomfortable exceptions insubordinated clause phenomena turn out to be surprisingly widespread and provide a vital empirical testing ground for various central theoretical issues in current linguistics the interplay of langue and parole the emergence of structure the question of where productive syntactic rules give way to constructions the role of prosody in language change and the question of how far grammars are produced by isolated speakers as opposed to being collaboratively constructed in dialogue This volume the first book length treatment on the topic assembles studies of languages on all continents by scholars who bring a range of approaches to bear on the topic from historical linguistics to corpus studies to typology to conversational analysis

Language Change Anna Mauranen, Svetlana Vetchinnikova, 2020-12-03 English as a lingua franca ELF has become ubiquitous in today's globalised mobile and fast changing world It is clear that it will have an unprecedented impact not only on how we communicate but also on our understanding of language use and change What exactly ELF brings to our life and to language theory is a question which requires an interdisciplinary take This book gathers together leading scholars from world Englishes typology language history cognitive linguistics translation studies multilingualism sociolinguistics and ELF research itself to seek state of the art answers Chapters present original insights on language change based on theoretical approaches and empirical studies and provide clear examples of social interactional and cognitive changes that ELF instigates The picture which unfolds on the pages of this book is complex dynamic and makes a convincing case for the importance of English as a lingua franca on language change at a global scale
