COMMENTARY Dr. Robert R. Seyda, 2024-05-16 Here John advises us that loving one another is not an option or a suggestion it is a commandment John doesn't want any believer to become like Adam and Eve's firstborn Cain That happened because Cain was under the influence of Satan This is therefore a warning not to mess with the world So what if they hate us We are bound for everlasting life in the presence of God That's why death has no power over us And that's why if our thoughts do not tell us that we are guilty we will not be afraid to come to God We can pray to God and we can ask Him to help us He will give us what we ask Him for That is because we obey His commands and we do the things that please Him Furthermore we should all love each other because God makes us able to love other people Everyone who loves other people confirms our claim to be a child of God If anyone says clearly that Jesus is the Son of God God lives in that person And that person lives together with God We know the kind of love that God has for us That's why if we love God we will not be afraid of Him So how do we know that we love God's children We know it when we love God and we do what He tells us to do

Judging Q and saving Jesus - Q's contribution to the wisdom-apocalypticism debate in historical Jesus studies. Llewellyn Howes, 2015-12-31 Judging Q and saving Jesus is characterised by careful textual analysis showing a piercing critical eye in its impressive engagement with the secondary literature and sharp insightful critique This book takes the stance that the hypothetical document Q can be reconstructed with sufficient precision and that this enables biblical scholars to study with confidence its genre and its thematic and ideological profile The genre issue is central to the book's overall structure and the alternative proposals are discussed at length and with sophistication The author's inference is that Q's macrogenre is sapiential with occasional insertions of apocalyptic microstructures and motifs This finding embodies progress in Historical Jesus studies An opposing trend has been to label Jesus an apocalypticist so that the great either/or of contemporary Jesus scholarship has been either eschatological or not an alternative that dates back to Albert Schweitzer The author finds that generally and even when used apocalyptically the term Son of Man tends to support arguments best understood as sapiential in outlook This is consistent with the sapiential genre of the document as a whole This finding is supported by the close and careful exegesis of Q 6 37 38 on not judging He reconstructs the original wording of this saying on not judging and explores the idea of weighing in judgment psychostasia determining in the end that the saying is entirely sapiential God Will Judge Each One According to Works Kyoung-Shik Kim, 2011 This monograph provides a fresh perspective on judgment according to works by challenging both the majority scholarly view and the new perspective advocated by E P Sanders James D G Dunn and N T Wright Employing intertextuality and early Jewish mediation of scripture this study examines the idea of judgment according to works with reference to Psalm 62 13 in early Jewish literature and the New Testament The originality of this study is to highlight the significance of Psalm 62 13 in the context of judgment according to works and to argue that the texts dealing with judgment according to works in the New Testament are to be understood as interpretations of Psalm 62 13 and its broad context

Exclusion and Judgment in Fellowship Meals Jamir Lanuwabang,2017-03-31 In Exclusion and Judgment in Fellowship Meals Lanuwabang Jamir seeks to demonstrate that the tradition of fellowship meals in the ancient world form the background against which the Lord s Supper must be understood Similarly the basis of Paul s response to the situation in Corinth and his theology of the Lord s Supper is to be found in these traditions The role of the fellowship meal in Greco Roman and Jewish culture indicate that it was an important institution that played a pivotal role in the functioning of society Judgment was an integral part of the fellowship meal traditions and it made such meal practices all the more significant in ancient cultures For example Jamir reveals that social economic factors were only part of the problem in Corinth where differences in ideology were the underlying cause of divisions in the church Paul s response to the problem shows that he upheld the fellowship meal traditions linking sickness and death with the abuse of the Lord s Supper The concept of judgment in the Lord s Supper while based on the fellowship meal traditions has been redefined in the light of the Gospel tradition

The Significance of Exemplars for the Interpretation of the Letter of James Robert J. Foster,2014-09-23 What was the function of the four characters from Jewish history and tradition in the Letter of James Robert J Foster analyses James use of these characters and argues that despite each of them being tested to the extreme they all remained wholly committed to God

The Apocrypha Ivor H. Jones,2003 Looking again at the Apocrypha this book examines its history and relation to the Canon of Scriptures It relates ancient history to the current ecumenical multi racial and multi faith context from the Methodist Recorder to contribute a popular monthly introduction to the Apocrypha In the longer term the commentary represents his commitment to more accurate translation and exegesis of the Aprocryphal books as a contribution to biblical study in general An influence from the beginning of his studies was the work of the first Principal of

Wesley House one debt among many to the long tradition of biblical scholarship there The Descent of Christ Hall Harris, 2018-12-10 This volume examines early Jewish and Christian imagery to demonstrate that the most probable interpretation of Christ's descent in Ephesians 4:9-10 refers to the descent of the Spirit at Pentecost subsequent to the ascent mentioned in Ephesians 4:8 The central portion of the book deals with the ascent-descent imagery associating Ps 68:19 with Moses as found in Targum Psalms the rabbinic literature and other early sources The section dealing with rabbinic interpretations of Ps 68:19 is of particular importance demonstrating an approach for dating elements found in the later rabbinic tradition The theological innovation of the author of Ephesians in identifying the ascended Christ as the Spirit who descended at Pentecost is highlighted as the best explanation of this difficult passage The Epworth Herald, 1898
