that tracks American culture's shift from modernism into postmodernism The Dead Father Donald Barthelme, 2014-05-06
A wildly imaginative absurdist adventure that redefines the boundaries of fiction In The Dead Father Donald Barthelme crafts a gargantuan half dead half alive part mechanical being who despite his condition still clings to his hopes and vanities This wise yet powerful figure is being dragged by a cable toward a mysterious goal setting the stage for an extraordinary journey Through the imaginative and inventive use of language that influenced a generation of writers Barthelme offers readers a glimpse into his unique fictional universe As Donald Antrim notes in his introduction The Dead Father grants its author an almost complete artistic freedom a permission to reshape misrepresent or even ignore the world as we find it Blending humor anxiety and a sense of liberation this novel invites readers to laugh along with its author and feel alive in the face of the unknown A must read for fans of literary fiction postmodernism and experimental novels that challenge traditional narratives Learning to See: The Meanings, Modes and Methods of Visual Literacy Michael

Heitkemper-Yates, Katarzyna Kaczmarczyk, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 If indeed Vision is the art of seeing what is invisible to others as Jonathan Swift has so famously phrased it then visual literacy is the art of translating the seen through image word and gesture so that the invisible can be made visible to others In other words visual literacy specifies a process of articulation that employs both sight and insight in the service of interpreting the language of the image reading the narrative of the graphic and deciphering the codes and modes of the visual This volume represents an attempt to convey some of the many ideas surrounding visual literacy and advance the interdisciplinary field of visual literacy studies toward new areas of research and inquiry Humanities, 1996 American Catholic Arts and Fictions Paul Giles, 1992-06-26 Examines how secular transformations of religious ideas have helped to shape the style and substance of works by American writers filmmakers and artists from Catholic backgrounds Keeping Literary Company Jerome Klinkowitz, 1999-06-10 Starting in the 1960s a group of radically new fiction writers began having success at reinventing the novel and short story for postmodern times Chief among them were Kurt Vonnegut Jerzy Kosinski Donald Barthelme Ronald Sukenick Raymond Federman Clarence Major and Gilbert Sorrentino Although their work proved puzzling to reviewers and did not fit the conventions familiar to academic critics these writers found an ally in a young reader named Jerome Klinkowitz Hired to teach Hawthorne and other nineteenth century figures Klinkowitz found his deepest sympathies and most lifelike affinities to be with Vonnegut and company instead Beginning in 1969 he published the first scholarly essays on Vonnegut Kosinski Barthelme and the others in turn By 1975 he was ready to write Literary Disruptions a literary history of what he called this post contemporary period Since then he has written more than thirty books on contemporary fiction and its allied developments in cultural history art music politics and philosophy Keeping Literary Company details Klinkowitz's work with these writers not just researching their fiction and other publications but introducing them to one another and taking part in the business world activities that spread news of their innovations He shows how what they wrote was so much a part of those turbulent times that a new literary generation found itself defined in such works as Slaughterhouse Five Being There and Snow White Here is a fascinating first person account of what these important figures wrote how they wrote it and what it means in the development of American fiction 100 Years of the Best American Short Stories Lorrie Moore, Heidi Pitlor, 2015-10-06 Witness the ever changing history and identity of America in this collection of 40 stories collected from the first 100 years of this bestselling series For the centennial celebration of this annual series The Best American Short Stories master of the form Lorrie Moore selects forty stories from the more than two thousand that were published in previous editions Series editor Heidi Pitlor recounts behind the scenes anecdotes and examines decade by decade the trends captured over a hundred years Together the stories and commentary offer an extraordinary guided tour through a century of literature with what Moore calls all its wildnesses of character and voice These forty stories represent their eras but also stand the test of time Here is Ernest Hemingway's first published story and a classic by William Faulkner who admitted in his biographical note that he began to write as an aid to love making Nancy Hale's story describes far reaching echoes of the Holocaust Tillie Olsen's story expresses the desperation of a single mother James Baldwin depicts the bonds of brotherhood and music Here is Raymond Carver's minimalism a term he disliked and Grace Paley's secular Yiddishkeit Here are the varied styles of Donald Barthelme Charles Baxter and Jamaica Kincaid From Junot Diaz to Mary Gaitskill from ZZ Packer to Sherman Alexie these writers and stories explore the different things it means to be American
