Summer Of The Big Bachi:

Summer of the Big Bachi Naomi Hirahara, 2004-03-30 In the foothills of Pasadena Mas Arai is just another Japanese American gardener his lawnmower blades clean and sharp his truck carefully tuned But while Mas keeps lawns neatly trimmed his own life has gone to seed His wife is dead And his livelihood is falling into the hands of the men he once hired by the day For Mas a life of sin is catching up to him And now bachi the spirit of retribution is knocking on his door It begins when a stranger comes around asking questions about a nurseryman who once lived in Hiroshima a man known as Joji Haneda By the end of the summer Joji will be dead and Mas s own life will be in danger For while Mas was building a life on the edge of the American dream he has kept powerful secrets about three friends long ago about two lives entwined and about what really happened when the bomb fell on Hiroshima in August 1945 A spellbinding mystery played out from war torn Japan to the rich tidewaters of L A s multicultural landscape this stunning debut novel weaves a powerful tale of family loyalty and the price of both survival and forgiveness

Postcolonial Grief Jinah Kim, 2019-01-17 In Postcolonial Grief Jinah Kim explores the relationship of mourning to transpacific subjectivities aesthetics and decolonial politics since World War II Kim argues that Asian diasporic subjectivity exists in relation to afterlives because the deaths of those killed by U S imperialism and militarism in the Pacific remain unresolved and unaddressed Kim shows how primarily U S based Korean and Japanese diasporic writers artists and filmmakers negotiate the necropolitics of Asia and how their creative refusal to heal from imperial violence may generate transformative antiracist and decolonial politics She contests prevalent interpretations of melancholia by engaging with Frantz Fanon s and Hisaye Yamamoto s decolonial writings uncovering the noir genre s relationship to the U S war in Korea discussing the emergence of silenced colonial histories during the 1992 Los Angeles riots and analyzing the 1996 hostage takeover of the Japanese ambassador s home in Peru Kim highlights how the aesthetic and creative work of the Japanese and Korean diasporas offers new insights into twenty first century concerns surrounding the state s erasure of military violence and colonialism and the difficult work of remembering histories of war across the transpacific Gasa-Gasa Girl Naomi Hirahara, 2005-03-29 From the time she was a child Mas Arai's daughter Mari was completely gasa gasa never sitting still always on the go getting into everything And Mas busy tending lawns gambling and struggling to put his Hiroshima past behind him never had much time for the family he was trying to support For years now his resentful daughter has lived a continent away in New York City and had a life he knew little about But an anxious phone call from Mari asking for his help plunges the usually obstinate Mas into a series of startling situations from maneuvering in an unfamiliar city to making nice with his tall blond son in law Lloyd to taking care of a sickly child to finding a dead body in the rubble of a former koi pond The victim was Kazzy Ouchi a half Japanese millionaire who also happened to be Mari and Lloyd's boss Stumbling onto the scene Mas sees more amiss than the detectives do but his instinct is to keep his mouth shut Only when the case threatens his daughter and her family does Mas take action patiently stubbornly tugging at the end of a tangled dangerous mystery And as he does he begins to lay bare a tragic secret on the dark side of an American dream Both a riveting mystery and a powerful story of passionate relationships across a cultural divide Gasa Gasa Girl is a tale told with heart and wisdom an unforgettable portrait of fathers daughters and other strangers Emerging from the Rubble: Asian/American Writings on Disasters Yasuko Kase, Eliko Kosaka, 2025-08-12 With a focus on the transpacific and transnational relationship between North America and Asia Emerging from the Rubble: Asian/American Writings on Disasters explores Asian Americans complex and nuanced involvement in disastrous events Included in this purview of disaster are not only the damages and threats of current ongoing climate change but also the long lasting ruining effects inflicted by imperialism neo colonialism wars and these historical components entanglement with global capitalism that have generated both spontaneous and slow and or prolonged violent effects Moreover disasters can be acknowledged as manifestations of the Anthropocene an epoch shaped by human activity or what scholars like Jason W Moore and Donna J Haraway term the Capitalocene a paradigm where nature and capitalist society are deeply intertwined co creating an intricate web of life Asian American involvement in such a web has never been simple but convoluted some of them have experienced tremendous losses whereas others have perpetuated obfuscation of the truth and or induced violence often contingently with or without acknowledging the facts When considering Asian migrants including refugees from Southeast Asia who had little option but to seek asylum in the U S and Asian Americans who have pursued their happiness under the U S's capitalist premise of constant progress protection of human rights and freedom of choice it is important to note that Asian migrants and Asian Americans have become simultaneously active players and exploited individuals within the context of U S racial capitalism Acknowledging the impossibility of clearly differentiating natural and human made disasters scholars who contribute to this volume note the reciprocal influences between nature and civilization They examine how the entanglements of natural and human made disasters lead to the acceleration and expansion of damage This volume explores how Asian Americans connections with their ancestral origins along with their particular racial positions social classes and socio historical backgrounds in North American societies force them to experience and witness disastrous events differently from the mainstream discourse on eco crises Encyclopedia of Asian-American Literature Seiwoong Oh,2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Asian American literature providing profiles of Asian American writers and their works Snakeskin Shamisen Naomi Hirahara,2006-04-25 From Summer of the Big Bachi to Gasa Gasa Girl Naomi Hirahara s acclaimed novels have featured one of mystery fiction s most unique heroes Mas Arai a curmudgeonly L A gardener Hiroshima survivor and inveterate gambler Few things get Mas more excited than gambling so when he hears about a 500 000 win from a novelty slot machine he s torn between admiration and derision But the stakes are quickly raised when the winner a friend of Mas s pal G I Hasuike is found stabbed to death just days later The last thing Mas wants to do is stick his nose in someone else s business but at G I s prodding he reluctantly agrees to follow the trail of a battered snakeskin shamisen a traditional Okinawan musical instrument left at the scene of the crime and suddenly finds himself caught up in a dark mystery that reaches from the islands of Okinawa to the streets of L A a world of heartbreaking memories deception and murder Dreams of Justice Dick Adler,2005-12-14 Dick Adler reviews mysteries and thrillers every other week in his Crime Watch column for the Chicago Tribune He is the co author with the late Edmund G Pat Brown of Public Justice Private Mercy A Governor s Education On Death Row Anthony Lewis in the New York Times Book Review called it a compelling and important book and Jonathan Kirsch in the Los Angeles Times said Some of the most fascinating passages are the dozen or so case histories of the men and women themselves the stuff of hard boiled detective fiction come to life Adler has also written Sleeping with Moscow an account of the Richard Miller FBI espionage case His mystery novel The Mozart Code was published in May 1999 as an electronic book and was a Frankfurt eBook Award nominee in 2000 Teaching Asian North American Texts Jennifer Ho,Jenny Heijun Wills,2022-07-28 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching Asian American and Asian Canadian literature film and media including topics such as diaspora transnationalism trauma history law and resisting racism along with literary techniques and genres Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in literature gender studies ethnic studies and Asian American studies Asian Americans Xiaojian Zhao,Edward J.W. Park Ph.D.,2013-11-26 This is the most comprehensive and up to date reference work on Asian Americans comprising three volumes that address a broad range of topics on various Asian and Pacific Islander American groups from 1848 to the present day This three volume work represents a leading reference resource for Asian American studies that gives students researchers librarians teachers and other interested readers the ability to easily locate accurate up to date information about Asian ethnic groups historical and contemporary events important policies and notable individuals Written by leading scholars in their fields of expertise and authorities in diverse professions the entries devote attention to diverse Asian and Pacific Islander American groups as well as the roles of women distinct socioeconomic classes Asian American political and social movements and race relations involving Asian Americans
