Wright, Richard D. Wright, 1994-07-01 Building on the principles and practices presented in The Divining Mind Richard Wright's first book on dowsing coauthored by T Edward Ross II authors Richard and Pat Wright define dowsing as the process of uncovering information through the medium of the self The Wrights believe as do many dowsers that the ability to dowse is innate but they also feel that its proper development is contingent upon the parallel unfoldment of the spiritual qualities in our nature Through this process the dowser becomes increasingly cognizant of the interconnectedness of all aspects of life and begins to play his or her part as an agent of healing and positive change Includes detailed information on Responsibility in dowsing Practical dowsing Earth energies Planetary stewardship Healing and prayer The supersensory worlds An indispensable guide for the advanced dowser as well as a beginner's sourcebook Feng Shui: Teaching About Science and Pseudoscience
Michael R. Matthews, 2019-07-18 This book provides a richly documented account of the historical cultural philosophical and practical dimensions of feng shui It argues that where feng shui is entrenched educational systems have a responsibility to examine its claims and that this examination provides opportunities for students to better learn about the key features of the nature of science the demarcation of science and non science the characteristics of pseudoscience and the engagement of science with culture and worldviews The arguments presented for feng shui being a pseudoscience can be marshalled when considering a whole range of comparable beliefs and the educational benefit of their appraisal Feng shui is a deeply entrenched three millennia old system of Asian beliefs and practices about nature architecture health and divination that has garnered a growing presence outside of Asia It is part of a comprehensive and ancient worldview built around belief in chi qi the putative universal energy or life force that animates all existence the cosmos the solar system the earth and human bodies Harmonious living requires building in accord with local chi streams good health requires replenishment and manipulation of internal chi flow and a beneficent afterlife is enhanced when buried in conformity with chi directions Traditional Chinese Medicine is based on the proper manipulation of internal chi by acupuncture tai chi and qigong exercise and herbal dietary supplements Matthews has produced another tour de force that will repay close study by students
