The Harvesting Susan G. Smith (M.B.A.),1986      The First Book Jesse Zuba,2025-07-15 An illuminating look at the poetic debut in twentieth century American literary culture We have many poets of the First Book the poet and critic Louis Simpson remarked in 1957 describing a sense that the debut poetry collection not only launched the contemporary poetic career but also had come to define it Surveying American poetry over the past hundred years The First Book explores the emergence of the poetic debut as a unique literary production with its own tradition conventions and dynamic role in the literary market Through new readings of poets ranging from Wallace Stevens and Marianne Moore to John Ashbery and Louise Glück Jesse Zuba illuminates the importance of the first book in twentieth century American literary culture which involved complex struggles for legitimacy on the part of poets critics and publishers alike Zuba investigates poets diverse responses to the question of how to launch a career in an increasingly professionalized literary scene that threatened the authenticity of the poetic calling He shows how modernist debuts evoke markedly idiosyncratic paths while postwar first books evoke trajectories that balance professional imperatives with traditional literary ideals Debut titles ranging from Simpson's The Arrivistes to Ken Chen's Juvenilia stress the strikingly pervasive theme of beginning accommodating a new demand for career development even as it distances the poets from that demand Combining literary analysis with cultural history The First Book will interest scholars and students of twentieth century literature as well as readers and writers of poetry

Versification Frog,Satu Grünthal,Kati Kallio,Jarkko Niemi,2021-12-24 Versification describes the marriage of language and poetic form through which poetry is produced Formal principles such as metre alliteration rhyme or parallelism take precedence over syntax and prosody resulting in expressions becoming organised as verse rather than prose The aesthetic appeal of poetry is often linked to the potential for this process to seem mysterious or almost magical not to mention the interplay of particular expressions with forms and expectations The dynamics of versification thus draw a general interest for everyone from enthusiasts of poetry or forms of verbal art to researchers of folklore ethnomusicology linguistics literature philology and more The authors of the works in the present volume explore versification from a variety of angles and in diverse cultural milieus The focus is on metrics in practice meaning that the authors concentrate not so much on the analysis of the metrical systems per se as on the ways that metres are used and varied in performance by individual poets and in relationship to language      Keats to Morris Rossiter Johnson,1876      Autumn number Florence Rae Signor,1926      A History of Twentieth-century African Literatures Oyekan Owomoyela,1993-01-01 African literatures says volume editor Oyekan Owomoyela testify to the great and continuing impact of the colonizing project on the African universe African writers must struggle constantly to define for themselves and other just what Africa is and who they are in a continent constructed as a geographic and cultural entity largely by Europeans This study reflects the legacy of colonialism by devoting nine of its thirteen chapters to literature in Europhone languages English French and Portuguese Foremost among the Anglophone writers discussed are Nigerians Amos Tutuola Chinua Achebe and Wole Soyinka Writers from East Africa are also represented as are those from South Africa Contributors for this section include Jonathan A Peters Arlene A Elder John F Povey Thomas Knipp and J Ndukaku Amankulor In African Francophone literature we see both writers inspired by the French assimilationist system and those influenced by Negritude the African culture affirmation movement Contributors here include Servanne Woodward Edris Makward and Alain Ricard African literature in Portuguese reflecting the nature of one of the most oppressive colonizing projects in Africa is treated by Russell G Hamilton Robert Cancel discusses African language literatures while Oyekan Owomoyela treats the question of the language of African literatures Carole Boyce Davies and Elaine Savory Fido focus on the special problems of African women writers while Hans M Zell deals with the broader issues of publishing censorship resources and organization      First Poem of Words Jef Harris,2012-02-16 This first book is a personal reflection of experiences places peoples trials and successes of the author The goal is to inspire by sharing poignant thoughts encourage by spreading ardent hope and enlighten by being honest and forthright The words in this glittering collection of poems and lyrics form one of the most naked self exposures undertaken by a retired Soldier Jef Harris reveals himself with vibrant literary invention Speaking face to face to his readers he paints a colorful tapestry of language that invites you to read or listen appreciate and understand as you relate to the emotive messages in his voice      A Harvest of Russian Children's Literature Miriam Morton,1967 An anthology of favorite Russian poems stories and folk tales for children arranged in sections for three different age groups and a collection of folklore      Scotland's Harvest Richie McCaffery,2023-07-24 This study is the first exploration of the impact of World War Two on Scottish poets of both the front line and the home front World War One has always been thought of as a poet s war one of horror and futility The poetry of World War Two by contrast has long languished in its shadow though there was a much greater amount of it written This book asks whether these poets felt they were grown for war or rather that they grew through war experience with an emphasis on the possibilities of the future instead of cataloguing the senseless horror of the battlefield How were the hopes of Scottish poets different from their English counterparts How was their poetry different and how did it impact on their later lives      The Chronology of American Literature Daniel S.
