2. For independent reading in the class or at home. Children can sit and read stories silently on their own. After using the Book Room with the children at the end of the session, tell the children to take the book home so their parents can help them to read it. There is a note at the end of the storybooks guiding parents on how to use the Book Room.

What happens if children finish the stories for their grade?
Encourage children to read each story repeatedly until they are fluent before moving on to the next story. Use your judgment for deciding if children are ready to move on to the next story's book. The student will have extra books for this purpose.
