Presenting Oprah Winfrey, Her Films, and African American Literature T. Green, 2012-12-28 Oprah Winfrey has long promoted black issues by being involved as a producer or actor in the adaptation of works by African American writers for film This volume evaluates Winfrey's involvement in the visual interpretation of African American literary texts using film music black masculinity black feminist and cultural theory Racial Cleansing in Arkansas, 1883-1924 Guy Lancaster, 2014-07-30 Even before the end of Reconstruction in Arkansas the state already possessed a long standing reputation for violence including lynchings duels and feuds However the years following Reconstruction witnessed the creation of new forms of mob violence All across the state gangs of whites sought to drive African Americans from their homes their jobs and their positions of authority creating communities shamelessly advertised as 100% white This happened not only in the highland regions the Ozarks and the Ouachitas where the expulsion of African Americans created so called sundown towns but it also occurred in the low lying Delta lands of eastern Arkansas where cotton was king and where masked mobs of landless whitecappers and nightriders regularly dealt terror and murder to black sharecroppers Racial Cleansing in Arkansas 1883 1924 Politics Land Labor and Criminality by Guy Lancaster is the first book to examine the phenomenon of racial cleansing within the context of one particular state illustrating how violence relates to geography and economic development Lancaster analyzes the wholesale expulsion of African Americans and the emergence of sundown towns together with a survey of more limited deportations including those with blatant political goals as well as vigilante violence The book has broader implications not only for the study of Southern and American history but also for a deeper understanding of ethnic and racial conflict local politics and labor history
