Balogh, 2016-07-12 New York Times bestselling author Mary Balogh returns to Regency England in the second novel of her Horsemen Trilogy a tale of unforgiven sins and unforgettable passion Moira Hayes hadn't seen Kenneth Woodfall in nearly eight years Nor did she want to see this man who stirred such feelings of anger in her After all their families had been rivals since their great grandfathers day And he was the reason though indirectly for her own brother's death But Kenneth has returned from war and is home for good And he isn't willing to forget the past a time he shared with his first and only love Miss Moira Hayes The moment he sees her again he knows his future Because Kenneth is more than willing to forgive If only Moira can too A Daring Masquerade Mary Balogh, 2018-08-07 Kate Mannering a lady's companion is mistaken for the lady herself and kidnapped by a dashing masked highwayman When she hears his story however before being released she decides to help him recover his stolen birthright and soon gets herself embroiled in danger from smugglers and a would be seducer Meanwhile an annoying indolent guest at the home of her employer insults her at every opportunity but rescues her from every danger even when she does not need or appreciate his help She is alarmed to find herself falling quite inappropriately for both the highwayman and the guest

Someone to Hold Mary Balogh,2017-02-07 A reversal of fortune befalls a young woman in this charming Westcott novel from the New York Times bestselling author of Someone to Wed Humphrey Westcott Earl of Riverdale has died leaving behind a fortune and a scandalous secret that will forever alter the lives of his family sending one daughter on a journey of self discovery With her parents marriage declared bigamous Camille Westcott is now illegitimate and without a title Looking to eschew the trappings of her old life she leaves London to teach at the Bath orphanage where her newly discovered half sister lived But even as she settles in she must sit for a portrait commissioned by her grandmother and endure an artist who riles her every nerve An art teacher at the orphanage that was once his home Joel Cunningham has been hired to paint the portrait of the haughty new teacher But as Camille poses for Joel their mutual contempt soon turns to desire And it is only the bond between them that will allow them to weather the rough storm that lies ahead

The Trysting Place Mary Balogh,2020-02-04 Eight years ago Felicity Lady Wren married a wealthy older man in order to save her family from financial ruin Now widowed and free again she yearns to experience all the bright pleasures of a busy social life with the ton She longs for romance at last and a new marriage to someone young handsome and charming She fixes her interest upon a charismatic lord with a rakish reputation and dreams of changing him Tom Russell childhood friend of Felicity s has never forgotten the passion that flared between them all too briefly before she chose Wren instead of him But when she turns to him for support in her search for a new husband he puts his own feelings aside in order to be the friend she needs Even when she enlists his aid in making her lord jealous he goes along with her scheme Tom is perhaps too selfless and good natured for his own good And Felicity is perhaps too much in denial about her true feelings for her dearest friend

The First Snowdrop Mary Balogh,2019-12-03 Alexander Stewart Viscount Merrick is honor bound to marry Anne Parrish after a snowstorm strands them alone together overnight But nothing is going to force him into living with her when he believes she deliberately ensnared him He settles her on his country estate and does not see her again until his grandmother determined to bring them back together invites Anne to join the whole family at a house party in honor of her Golden Wedding anniversary Alexander finds Anne much changed and he discovers that his feelings toward her are changing too But will his angry newly confident wife allow herself to be wooed

Only a Promise Mary Balogh,2015-06-09 The new Survivor s Club novel from the New York Times bestselling author The Survivors Club Six men and one woman all wounded in the Napoleonic Wars their friendship forged during their recovery at Penderris Hall in Cornwall Now for one of them striking a most unusual bargain will change his life forever Ralph Stockwood prides himself on being a leader but when he convinced his friends to fight in the Napoleonic Wars he never envisioned being the sole survivor

Racked with guilt over their deaths Ralph must move on and find a wife so as to secure an heir to his family's title and fortune. Since her Seasons in London ended in disaster, Chloe Muirhead is resigned to spinsterhood. Driven by the need to escape her family, she takes refuge at the home of her mother's godmother where she meets Ralph. He needs a wife. She wants a husband. So Chloe makes an outrageous suggestion: Strike a bargain and get married. One condition: Ralph has to promise that he will never take her back to London. But circumstances change. And to Ralph it was only a promise.

Someone Perfect Mary Balogh, 2021-11-30 Sometimes just one person can pull a whole family apart. And sometimes it just takes one person to pull it back together. For fans of Bridgerton, New York Times bestselling Regency Romance author Mary Balogh shows how love truly conquers all in this new Westcott family novel. As a young man, Justin Wiley was banished by his father for mysterious reasons, but now his father is dead and Justin has been Earl of Brandon for six years. A dark, dour man, he nonetheless takes it as his responsibility to care for his half sister Maria when her mother dies. He travels to her home to fetch her back to the family seat at Everleigh Park. Although she adored him once, Maria now loathes Justin, and her friend Lady Estelle Lamarr can see immediately how his very name upsets her. When Justin arrives and invites Estelle and her brother to accompany Maria to Everleigh Park to help with her distress, she begrudgingly agrees for Maria's sake. As family secrets unravel in Maria's homecoming, Justin too uncovers his desire for a countess. And while he may believe he's found an obvious candidate in the beautiful 25-year-old Lady Estelle, she is most certain that they could never make a match. No

Ordinary Love Mary Balogh, 2017-09-05 NO ORDINARY LOVE The North Tower Daphne Borland has inherited an old castle from her grandfather, provided she marries the earl of Everett, whom she has never met. She has never seen the castle, either, yet she feels a deep connection to it as soon as she arrives there. As she awaits the arrival of the earl with trepidation, she gets caught up in the events and passions of long ago and finds herself falling deeply in love with a man who has been dead for a hundred years. The Dark Rider Malvern is an ancient house haunted by ghosts, but only a few people can actually feel and see them. Dinah Riddings sent there to avoid the measles that have attacked her younger siblings is one of them. As she feels the pain and longings of the dark rider and his lady cruelly separated two centuries before, she also feels the pull of attraction to the master of the house who looks incredibly like the dark rider. The Heirloom In order to celebrate his engagement, John Chandler drives his girlfriend from London to a remotely situated hotel in West Wales, once the home of his ancestors. However, when John produces her ring, an old family heirloom, and fits it on her finger, he finds himself catapulted back in time to become the John Chandler of Regency England, newly arrived at the house with his new wife and dying of consumption. The Obedient Bride

The Obedient Bride Mary Balogh, 2020-06-02 Geoffrey, the new Viscount Astor, needs a wife. Since he sets no great store by love and romance, he decides it would be eminently sensible to offer marriage to one of the three daughters of his predecessor. He has never met any of them and has no preference. He leaves the choice to them, and their mother, Arabella, the middle daughter, volunteers to make the sacrifice and marry the earl, since her older, far more lovely sister is already in love with someone else She prays that he will be an older man of few attractions for she sees herself as plain and uninteresting She is dismayed to discover that Geoffrey is in fact young handsome and fashionable She vows to be a dutiful obedient wife and to devote her life to making him comfortable Arabella's plan seems to be working nicely for both Geoffrey and herself until that is she discovers something about him that shocks her to the core It is an offense she considers quite unforgivable And when Arabella makes up her mind about something she is not easily persuaded to change it Geoffrey is finally shaken out of his complacency to the discovery that his wife means far more to him than he had realized But how is he to win her back when she flatly refuses to be wheedled out of her outrage

The Ideal Wife Mary Balogh, 2008-06-24 In this classic tale New York Times bestselling author Mary Balogh introduces a hero like no other Miles Ripley London's most irresistible bachelor who's about to lose his heart to the last person he ever expected to love his wife When Abigail Gardiner knocks at the door of Miles Ripley Earl of Severn the last thing she expects is a marriage proposal Desperate she'd come to this charismatic stranger's home to plead for her future Instead she shocks them both by saying yes Her impulsive decision will have consequences neither she nor her new husband can foresee For Miles has his own reasons for marrying her And Abigail is harboring a secret of her own As distrust gives way to desire as together they give in to the pleasures of the marriage bed a devastating scandal threatens their future Now these two wary hearts will risk ruin and disgrace for a love that has changed them both forever the kind all seek but few ever find

Second Chances Mary Balogh, 2019-02-05

SECOND CHANCES an anthology featuring four reissued novellas by New York Times bestselling author Mary Balogh

Another Dream Eleanor Thompson spinster owner and headmistress of a girls school in Bath finds herself somewhat lonely and not as happy with her chosen way of life as she had expected Then on her way to help celebrate the birthday of the Duke of Bewcastle her brother in law she is stranded by a storm at a country inn where she indulges in a brief sweet flirtation with a gentleman who is also stranded there with his two young children Neither adult realizes that they are bound for the same house party

The Treasure Hunt Constance Manning is eagerly looking forward to her twentieth birthday when her secret engagement to the man who has been her dearest friend all her life is finally to be revealed to her family and friends He is having second thoughts however and persuades his brother to go in his stead and make his excuses the brother who has long loved Constance without her knowledge

The Forbidden Daffodils For five years Kate Buchanan has been living in exile with her aunts in a remote part of Wales She has come to love them and the place and has convinced herself that she is happy with her quiet life But her hard won peace is put to the test when the Marquess of Ashendon takes up residence nearby the very man who caused her banishment

The Betrothal Ball The Earl of Dearborne had returned to his country home to host a house party and pay court to the beautiful daughter of one of his guests Laura Melfort his ward's governess is everything he most abhors in a woman She is intelligent and well read as well as being plainly dressed and unalluring Yet it is the governess to whose company he finds himself repeatedly drawn And it is the governess with whom he chooses to waltz at his own betrothal ball The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter, Kelly-Anne Riess, 2018-10-01 Volume 3 shifts its focus to Regina's literary culture and to the coming generation of younger writers but it continues to examine the best work from Saskatchewan. The impact, the relevance, the illuminations of our best writers' work tend to move well beyond the borders of our province. This work transcends the regional sources of its inspiration. Just as Marilynne Robinson has much to say to Canadians about the disruptions and the graces of family life, Dianne Warren has much to say to Americans about the omnipresence of the past, the shadows it casts on people's lives in the present. Many of our best books are nurtured by the history and the life of this province but they spring into literature roughly in proportion to their applications and their immemorial responses to the human condition. Irresistible Mary Balogh, 2016 Includes excerpts from Indiscreet and Unforgiven. Someone to Remember Mary Balogh, 2019 Abigail Westcott's dreams for her future were lost when her father died and she discovered her parents were not legally married. But now six years later she enjoys the independence a life without expectation provides a wealthy single woman. Indeed she's grown confident enough to scold the careless servant chopping wood outside without his shirt on in the proximity of ladies. But the man is not a servant. He is Gilbert Bennington, the lieutenant colonel and superior officer who has escorted her wounded brother Harry home from the wars with Napoleon. Gil has come to help his friend and junior officer recover and he doesn't take lightly to being condescended to secretly because of his own humble beginnings. If at first Gil and Abigail seem to embody what the other most despises, each will soon discover how wrong first impressions can be. For behind the appearances of the once grand lady and the once humble man are two people who share an understanding of what true honor means and how only with it can one find love. Longing Mary Balogh, 2015-03-03 From New York Times bestselling legend and author of the Survivors Club series comes a cherished novel about the risks and the compromises that come with falling in love. Governess and mistress he wanted her as both. The illegitimate daughter of an English lord, Sian Jones abandoned her heritage to live in a stalwart coal mining community in South Wales. Empowered by their cause, she's engaged to be married to the leader of a revolutionary movement that is bracing itself against the tyranny of English mine owners. But Sian's principles are unexpectedly shaken when she accepts a job as governess under Alexander Hyatt, the mysterious Marquess of Craille, the oppressive symbol of everything she has come to resist. She never expected Alexander to upend all her expectations. He is sympathetic to her cause. He is a loving father. A man of wealth and position, he is fatally attractive. And he is offering his heart to the independent woman who has illuminated his life. Now caught between two worlds and between the promises and desires of two men, Sian must make a choice that will define her future, one that can only be made in the name of love. Remember When Mary Balogh, 2025-07-29 Discover the beauty of second chances at love and life in this heartfelt new novel from New York Times bestselling author Mary Balogh. The Dowager Countess of Stratton, Clarissa Ware, née Greenfield, has just presented her younger daughter to the ton and the rest of her life belongs only to herself. She returns to Ravenswood intending to spend the summer alone there But the summer has other plans for her Born a gentleman Matthew Taylor has chosen to spend his life as the village carpenter Growing up he and Clarissa were close dangerously so considering his family s modest fortune As a young man he never would have been a suitable match for the daughter of the wealthy Greenfields Clarissa married Caleb Ware the Earl of Stratton so Matthew married another though he was widowed soon after Now everything is different Clarissa has already lived the life expected of her by society And Matthew is as attractive and intriguing as he was when they were young As their summer friendship deepens into romance they stand together on the precipice of change essentially the same man and woman they remember being back then but with renewed passion and the potential to take their lives in an entirely new direction
