transformation Including an interview with Jacques Herzog and Nicholas Serota director of the Tate it provides a detailed analysis of Herzog and de Meuron's design and redefines the Tate's role within contemporary culture The New Tate Modern Tate Modern (Gallery),2016 Contemporary Performance and Political Economy Katerina Paramana,2025-02-18 Contemporary Performance and Political Economy examines haunting concepts relations and artworks that demand our attention Under capitalism political and ethical considerations are subordinated to economic ones and this subordination creates ghost worlds Performance works however can offer insights into alternative politico economic models In this major contribution to the fields of contemporary performance and political economy Katerina Paramana proposes that the investigation of performance works as economies can make the insights performance works offer visible She positions the examination in relation to contemporary critiques of capitalism neo feudalism and their by products and proposes and develops the notion of oikonomia as a means to theorize artworks which through their house oikos rules nomoi propose ethico political challenges to the economies in which they are embedded For this Paramana looks at politically positioned performance works created and presented in Cuba Europe Mexico the UK and the US Her interest is in the politics ethics and effects of these works house rules and the insights they offer to the reconceptualization of political economy Ultimately this book aims to transform our understanding of economy's purpose It contributes to the development of a new ethico political paradigm upon which a reconceptualization of political economy can be based This inspiring study seeks to keep the fire for change alive by demonstrating that political economies much like performances are experiments that can be changed This work will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance studies theatre visual cultures politics cultural studies dance and visual arts and critical theorists Not For Tourists Guide to London 2024 Not For Tourists,2023-11-07 With details on everything from Big Ben to Brick Lane this is the only guide a native or traveler needs Whether you've called London your home for decades or just arrived last night there's information in the Not For Tourists Guide to London that you need to know This map based neighborhood by neighborhood guide will help you master this amazing city like an expert Packed with more than 150 maps and thousands of listings for restaurants shops theaters and under the radar spots you won't find a better guide to London Want to score tickets to a big Arsenal or Chelsea football match NFT has you covered How about royal sightseeing at Buckingham Palace We've got that too The best Indian restaurant theater experience bookstore or cultural site whatever you need NFT puts it at your fingertips This light and portable guide also features An invaluable street index Profiles of more than one hundred neighborhoods Listings for museums landmarks the best shopping and more You don't need to be Sherlock Holmes to solve the mysteries of London NFT has all the answers Sculpture and the Museum Christopher R. in order to examine the many reasons why sculpture has enjoyed a position of such considerable importance and complexity within the institutional framework of the museum and how changes to the museum have altered in turn the ways that we perceive the sculpture within it In particular the contributors consider the complex issue of how best to display sculpture across different periods and according to varying curatorial philosophies Sculptors discussed include Canova Rodin Henry Moore Flaxman and contemporary artists such as Rebecca Horn Rachel Whiteread Mark Dion and Olafur Eliasson with a variety of museums in America Canada and Europe presented as case studies Underlying all of these discussions is a concern to chart the critical importance of the acquisition placement and display of sculpture in museums and to explore the importance of sculptures as a forum for the expression of programmatic statements of power prestige and the museum's own sense of itself in relation to its audiences and its broader institutional aspirations

What Is Contemporary Art? Terry Smith,2012-08-10 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today s multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going
