Justice, Equality and Tax Law Nevia Čičin-Šain,Mario Riedl,2022-10-05 An in depth analysis of the specific aspects of justice equality and tax law Justice Equality and Tax Law is a topic that is both old and new at the same time Even if the society changes the demands that tax needs to be just and equal seem to be immutable What changes of course is the perception of the content of those demands International taxation post BEPS has been fraught with new challenges that warranted urgent responses These challenges were mainly provoked by the unprecedented rise of the digital economy which truly marked a change in the way business is conducted how value is created and how goods and services are produced and consumed Digitalization in turn had repercussions on all aspects of taxation direct taxation indirect taxation and even tax procedures For instance the quest for more justice and equality in profit taxes was the reason why in October 2021 a historical deal based on a two pillar solution to address the tax challenges arising from the digitalization of the economy was negotiated within the OECD G20 Inclusive Framework on Base Erosion and Profit Shifting and agreed upon by 137 member countries It was also the motive behind the shift from a typical vendor collection model to an intermediary collection model supported by centralized registration points in indirect taxes notably the VAT GST Abundant data from the European Union or the OECD signaled an ever increasing gap between expected VAT revenues and VAT actually collected making it obvious that the classical system of VAT GST collection was unable to respond to challenges posed by the digital economy Therefore new solutions based on the participation of digital platforms as intermediaries had been introduced Finally new technologies such as blockchain paved new avenues in enhancing tax compliance In this context this volume entitled Justice Equality and Tax Law contains not only a selection of the best master's theses of the full-time LL.M programme in 2021/2022 but also represents an in-depth analysis of various aspects of this evergreen topic Research Handbook on International Taxation Yariv Brauner, 2020-12-25

Capturing the core challenges faced by the international tax regime this timely Research Handbook assesses the impacts of these challenges on a range of stakeholders evaluating various paths to reform at a time when international tax policy is a topic high on politicians' agendas Global Perspectives on Income Taxation Law Reuven Shlomo Avi-Yonah, Nicola Sartori, Omri Marian, 2011 In Global Perspectives on Income Taxation Law Avi Yonah covers basic corporate and international tax law from a comparative perspective The book both supplements readings in U.S. tax law courses and serves as a textbook for a comparative tax law class It is arranged by subject matter in the order in which they are usually covered in U.S. tax law classes The materials are drawn from a wide variety of countries including developing countries Revenue Law John Tiley, Glen Loutzenhiser, 2012-10-11 This is the 7th Edition of John Tiley's major text on revenue law now massively restructured to focus upon the UK Tax system Income Tax Capital Gains Tax and Inheritance Tax What were previously sections dealing with Corporation Tax International and European Tax Savings and Charities have been spun off to an entirely new book entitled Advanced Topics in Revenue Law While this narrowing of the scope of Revenue Law means that it focuses on the most important UK taxes its reduced size also makes it a more manageable and portable volume for law students and practitioners As with previous editions the text has been revised to incorporate changes wrought by new enactments in the past four years This however remains the only book on tax law which continues to explain the new law found in ITEPA ITTOIA and ITA in light of its legislative predecessors with references to the former enactments still remaining where relevant Those familiar with the old law of income tax but wanting to find their way round the new will find this work particularly valuable The book is designed for law students taking the subject in the final year of their law degree course or for more advanced courses and is intended to be of interest to all who enjoy tax law Its purpose is not only to provide an account of the rules but to include citation of the relevant literature from legal periodicals and some discussion of or reference to the background material in terms of policy history or other countries' tax systems Tiley's Revenue Law Glen Loutzenhiser, 2022-05-05 This is the 10th edition of John Tiley's classic textbook on revenue law covering the UK tax system income tax capital gains tax inheritance tax and corporation tax as well as incorporating sections dealing with international and European tax savings charities and new to this edition value added tax and stamp duties The new edition has been comprehensively revised and fully updated with the latest case law statutory and other developments including the Finance Act 2021 The book's companion website provides bonus chapters on investment intermediaries pensions charities and the UK's value added tax and stamp duties The companion website will also supply annual updates to the print edition as well as study questions to help students navigate this complex subject The book is designed for students taking modules in tax law in the final year of their law degree or for more advanced courses It is also a valuable resource for academics and professionals in the field It provides an account of the rules as well as citation of the relevant literature from legal periodicals and some discussion of or reference to the background material in terms of policy history or other countries tax systems to give readers a contextual overview of the subject Accompanying online resources for this title can be found at bloomsbury pub tileys revenue law These resources are designed to support teaching and learning when using this textbook and are available at no extra cost

VAT Neutrality Charlène Adline Herbain,2015-05-04 Most major economies use a value added tax VAT which is a derivation of the French 1954 taxe sur la valeur ajout e The initial imposition of VAT in France and its spread around the world have been driven by economic reasons This book focuses on one of these economic triggers the neutrality of VAT as regards the functioning of the economy It demonstrates that the reason VAT was chosen in France and why thereafter it spread around the world was because it offered the possibility to collect governmental revenue while allowing the economic forces of the market to interplay without being adversely affected The prerequisite conditions for the existence of VAT neutrality are therefore identified herein along with an overview of the VAT mechanism demonstrating that the concept of neutrality is built into the VAT system in a manner that allows for the preservation of the natural functioning of the market After the definition of VAT neutrality is set forth the elements that comprise VAT neutrality are tested against the realities on the ground and the issues that infringe the neutrality of VAT are identified and analysed In conclusion remedies for these issues are being sought by a review of the causes of infringement of VAT neutrality in the perspective of selected proposals for modified VAT systems These proposals include redesignating the place where VAT is levied and improving VAT collection Ultimately the proposed solution has recourse to the roots of VAT together with the most advanced technological tools available to give back to VAT the power to levy revenue while letting the economic forces of the market interplay without instigating any adverse influence

It features a stellar cast of established and early career researchers from a variety of jurisdictions who have entered into conversations about the nature of the rule of law, its relevance to questions about tax, welfare, distribution, and public spending, and the challenges involved in applying legal standards in these fields. There is a particular focus on the interaction between the rule of law and the rapidly emerging world of cross border tax avoidance reforms influenced by the OECD's Base Erosion and Profits Shifting project and the evolution of EU level governance over direct as well as indirect taxes. The book is accessible to those new to taxation and public finance as well as to experts and to lawyers and non lawyers alike.

The Routledge Companion to Tax Avoidance Research Nigar Hashimzade, Yuliya Epifantseva, 2017-10-02 An inherently interdisciplinary subject, tax avoidance has attracted growing interest of scholars in many fields. No longer limited to law and accounting, research increasingly has been conducted from other perspectives such as anthropology, business ethics, corporate social responsibility, and economic psychology. This was recently stimulated by politicians, mass media, and the public focussing on tax avoidance after the global financial and economic crisis put a squeeze on private and public finances. New challenges were posed by changing definitions and controversies in the interpretation of tax avoidance concept as well as a host of new rules and policies that need to be fully understood. This collection provides a comprehensive guide to students and academics on the subjects of tax avoidance from an interdisciplinary perspective, exploring the areas of accounting, law, economics, psychology, and sociology. It covers global as well as regional issues, presents a discussion of the definition, legality, morality, and psychology of tax avoidance, and provides guidance on measurement of economic effect of tax avoidance activities. With a truly international selection of authors from the UK, North America, Africa, Asia, Australasia, Middle East, and continental Europe, with well known experts and rising stars of the field, the contributors cover the entire terrain of this important topic. The Routledge Companion to Tax Avoidance Research is a ground breaking attempt to bring together scholarly research in tax avoidance, offering rigorous academic analysis of an important and hotly debated issue in a structured and balanced way.

Complexity of Tax Simplification Simon James,Adrian Sawyer,Tamer Budak,2016-04-29 Simplicity in taxation has considerable potential advantages However attempts to simplify tax systems are only likely to be successful and enduring if they take account of the reasons why taxation is complex There are strong pressures on tax systems to accommodate a range of important factors as well as complex and changing national and international environments within which modern tax systems have to operate This book explores the experiences of simplification in a range of countries and jurisdictions The authors analyse a range of manifestations of simplification including tax systems tax law taxpayer communications and tax administration They also review the longer term or more fundamental approaches to simplification suggesting that in order to strike the optimum balance between simplicity and the aims of a tax system in terms of efficiency and equity a range of complex environmental factors must all be taken into account With chapters reflecting on experiences from Australia China Canada Malaysia New Zealand Russia South Africa Thailand Turkey the UK and the US the authors illustrate differences between jurisdictions and the changing environment in which they operate This book addresses the crucial balance between simplicity and the other objectives of tax design and reform and suggests that reformers of the tax system should include simplicity as one of the key evaluators of any design or reform proposal

Taxation of Investment Derivatives Antti Laukkanen, 2007 This dissertation aims to provide a comprehensive overview of the taxation of investment derivatives and the relationship between the derivatives and the accrual and realization methods Investment derivatives such as convertible bonds include an initial investment and a derivative an option to buy or sell or to participate in the value movements of some underlying property The principal focus of this study is on three universal tax issues namely valuation timing and the taxation of unrealized gains As a common principle interest income and capital gains are treated more similarly in corporate taxation than in individual taxation Moreover the taxation of financial instruments is currently in a turn around phase in several countries not least because of the implementation of the IFRS rules in accounting and the related fair value principle The obligation to use fair values in accounting apparently motivates tax legislators to strive to use the same principles in taxation as well The comparative method plays a major role in this study by examining the tax legislations and the tax practices of different countries An in depth analysis of the similarities and differences of tax laws and practices in the United States the United Kingdom Germany Finland and Sweden is provided This is of particular interest as the underlying components single and often specified financial derivatives are basically identical While this study does not deal with individual tax treaties or bilateral transactions the OECD Model is scrutinized in order to highlight the underlying principles of the given recommendations especially with respect to interest income and capital gains Due to the increasing importance of IFRS rules in accounting the study is not limited to tax law but also looks at issues from the perspective of finance accounting and economics
