The Veiled Majesty W. Kelly, 2013-02-22 Chapter 1 begins In the foregoing general dissertation on the Real Presence we have shown that the Catholic belief concerning the Eucharist has a claim to the serious consideration of all who love truth and justice We now propose to discuss more fully the foundations on which this belief rests and in the first place we shall endeavour by an appeal to the authority of the New Testament and the belief and teaching of the Church from the time of the Apostles to show that our Saviour in His love for man condescends to dwell on earth in the Sacrament of the Eucharist as truly as He does in heaven where His glory is manifested Then we shall put before the reader our reasons for believing that Our Lord at the Last Supper instituted a Sacrifice as well as a Sacrament and that that Sacrifice has been offered up continuously from the time of the Apostles to the present day Then proceeds a defense of the doctrine of the Church in regard to the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Most Holy Eucharist Then follows a chapter on the Last Supper and this is followed by a chapter on the mode of the fulfillment of Jesus' command that we eat His Body and drink His Blood In the chapter on the testimony of history we read In showing that Scripture in itself affords to any Christian a sufficiently reasonable proof of the Catholic doctrine we have done even more than was necessary for it would have been sufficient to show that the doctrine was not opposed to the teaching of Scripture The primary criterion of Christian dogma is not Scripture but the authoritative teaching of the Catholic Church The truths taught in Scripture were taught by the Church before the Gospels were written and several hundred years before the New Testament began to exist in its present form Hence if we believed only what is expressly stated in Scripture we would have no foundation at all for our belief for we have to accept the Scriptures themselves and their inspiration on the authority of the Church There is no Scriptural proof that the Gospels and Epistles were divinely inspired nor is there any Scriptural proof of the authorship of many of the writings of the New Testament It was the Catholic Church which in a General Council collected these sacred writings together and testified to their genuineness and inspiration IN the chapter on the old sacrifices we read In the meantime as He did not wish to leave His children without help He taught our first parents a religious rite by which they and their descendants might have a present interest in the work of redemption This religious rite was Sacrifice and it prefigured the great Sacrifice which the Redeemer should offer up on Calvary It was established as the proper means of performing that public duty of worship which man owes to God as His Creator and Sovereign Lord and also to serve as a continual reminder of his sinfulness and need of forgiveness so that by the offering of sacrifice men offered themselves to God acknowledged their dependence upon Him and made expiation for their sins In his state of innocence man was bound to worship God since He owed everything to Him After his fall the obligation became more pressing for he then owed God not only the homage of his entire being but also the penalty of death "Art not thou also one of this Man's Disciples?" A tract upon the Holy Communion ,1867 Celebrating the Eucharist Yvette Nelson,1999-05 Discovering is a comprehensive parish religion curriculum for adolescents grades six to eight Each section comprises a student booklet and an accompanying teaching guide which is bound with a student booklet A Handshake from Heaven Lesson Plan Carol S. Bannon,2012-12 A Handshake From Heaven Lesson Plan book contains lessons and activities successfully used across the country with both large and small groups of children in conjunction with the children s Eucharistic book A Handshake From Heaven In this book children are shown how the Eucharist is truly the Body of Christ and it is the means by which we as Catholics come to know Jesus the best friend we will ever have Teaching children about the Eucharist is one of the most rewarding tasks a catechist is called upon to do Parents and teachers alike will find these lessons taken as a whole or taken individually successful and easy to implement Lesson One will help children understand that being Catholic is a conscious choice we make in our journey of discovering Jesus Lesson Two will aid in teaching about the importance of attending Mass on a regular basis In the other lessons they will be shown how the altar is the table upon which is set the greatest gift of all Christ s Body and Blood Most important of all these lessons will teach children that when they hold the Body of Christ in their hands they are touching God This is Jesus gift to all who believe The art work provided in the lesson plan book are taken directly from the artwork contained in A Handshake From Heaven and is intended to be used for the purposes of augmenting lessons suggestions as to their use can be found in each lesson Catechists are encouraged to use the illustrations that best fit the needs of their individual classes I have tried to include alternate activities for many of the lessons if you discover a modification you feel would be helpful to other catechists please share that idea with others on my author page We are in this together as we impart the beauty of the Eucharist to another generation of God s children God bless each and every catechist and parent as they begin the wondrous job of sharing the Good News of the Eucharist with our youth Lectures on the Holy Eucharist Charles Coupe,2008-07 Many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork TIJ First Eucharist Teaching Guide Pflaum Publishing Group,2017-04 The Sacrifice of the Mass M. Gavin,Rev M Gavin Sj,Brother Hermenegild,2013-04-13 With an increasing interest in the Latin Tridentine Mass this work will prove quite useful to those who truly appreciate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass The earnest hope is entertained that this explanation of the Mass will help to a deeper appreciation of the greatest act of worship in the Church It is impossible to have laboured for many years in London without painfully realizing that the Mass is neither known nor understood nor attended nor loved as it deserves Surely there are many Catholics who might with a little self denial hear Mass if not daily at least sometimes in the week If we inquire the reason from those who find time for other things and not for Mass we shall probably learn that they do not understand what they lose Mass is a closed book to them The love self sacrifice and humiliation of a Divine Person lies before them in the Eucharist they have eyes and see not With an intelligent grasp of the doctrine of the Mass they would discover a method of discharging every obligation of the creature to the Creator and of procuring all they want from His gracious bounty Let me explain simply the object of the Mass Mass is the supreme act of worship in which Christ as the Head of our race offers His own Body and Blood in acknowledgment of the Creator s dominion over Him and over all mankind Our Lord is the chief celebrant at every Mass and at the altar renews His profession of perpetual service Reason alone proves the obligation of giving God honour and glory Our best is indeed small whether we consider the deeds performed or the abject condition of every man clad in infirmity from head to foot Our deficiency is supplied in the Mass which gives infinite honour and glory to God s Supreme Majesty One Mass for which we cannot spare half an hour yields more honour and glory to God than the adoration of the blessed in Heaven and of their Queen Once more Thanksgiving is another duty of the creature to the Creator Thank you are almost the first words a mother teaches her child The duty of thanking God is so obvious that any explanation weakens its claims The duty is self evident We are surrounded by the unmerited blessings of Heaven as a fish by the waters of the sea Man is the neediest and most helpless and most ungrateful of all creatures and for him God has done incomparably more than for the angels The Crib the Cross and the Tabernacle are three fountains of mercy and love whence grace floods this earth Man is powerless to thank God for all His benefits The unsearchable riches of Christ paid the debt of gratitude a thousandfold in the first Mass in the Supper Room The Church calls the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ the Eucharist which means thanksgiving just as pain means punishment At the Mass Christ chants His Te Deum in honour of His Father or rather the Mass is His Te Deum and the faithful on earth in Purgatory and Heaven join the song of praise You have received great temporal and spiritual blessings have the Mass offered in thanksgiving and assist at the Holy Sacrifice for the same intention And though we may not aim so high it is useful to remember that the saints recognized mercy even in crushing sorrow Although He should kill me I will trust in Him Job And they thank God at the Mass for sending it to them Once again We are sinners In this all men are akin and we need some Being to appease the anger of God to obtain His forgiveness and to avert or lessen the punishment due to crime Mass is the great appeasing power of the world for Mass is Calvary over again The scene on Calvary is re presented to us in the drama of the Mass Death on Calvary was the consummation of the Sacrifice That death was caused by the separation of the Blood of our Lord from His Body that separation is to use the words of the Council of Trent represented to us placed again before our eyes in the double consecration of bread and wine Eucharist Quizzes Revs. Frs. Rumble and Carty,1992 Four Celebrations Norman Todd,Michael Kindred,1981 The Hidden Manna James T. O'Connor,2010-06-25 The Hidden Manna has become a classic on Eucharistic teaching Now in a second edition accompanied by a new introduction by Fr Kenneth Baker a new preface from the author new material from John Paul II and the original foreword by Cardinal John O Connor this in depth study lets the breadth and richness of the Church s Tradition speak for itself Fr O Connor presents and comments on substantial excerpts from the major sources of the Church s Tradition extending all the way back to apostolic times Focusing on the doctrine of the Real Presence he follows the earliest witnesses through the challenge in the Middle Ages of Berengarius through the Protestant Reformation and modern disputes Father James O Connor gives us nothing less than a comprehensive study of the Church s meditation on the Mystery of the Eucharist The Hidden Manna is a superb work Cardinal John O Connor We owe a debt of gratitude to Fr James O Connor for writing this beautiful treatise on the Sacrament of Sacraments The Hidden Manna is a remarkable accomplishment of Catholic scholarship Fr Kenneth Baker S J The Miracle of the Eucharist George E. Pfautsch,2018-03-23 There is no greater need in the Catholic Church today than to assist our younger generations in understanding the Holy Eucharist Such understanding is crucial to having greater participation in their Catholic faith It is church teaching that the consecration of the Eucharist changes the nature of bread and wine into the body and blood of our Savior Jesus Christ The church calls this change transubstantiation which is a miracle because it is a supernatural event The miracle of the Eucharist extends to the linkage of our soul to our Divine Lord whereby we share in his divinity Divinity is a mystery because it is beyond the nature of earthly things The transformation of our souls to become more closely aligned with our Divine Lord is an extension of the miracle of transubstantiation The acceptance of church teaching as regards the Eucharist is an embrace of his words at the last supper to do this in memory of me It is the optimal way humans have to express their love of their Redeemer Bread of Life David E. Rosage,2008-10-14 What better way to contemplate the wondrous gift of Jesus in the Eucharist than to pray and meditate on a different Scripture reflection every day of the month In each of the thirty one chapters of The Bread of Life bestselling author Monsignor David E Rosage offers a Scripture passage and a short commentary to guide the reader into prayer followed by two additional Scripture passages will be preparing their hearts to more fully appreciate the Eucharist as our bread for the journey and the Mass as the perfect act of praise Among the topics covered Eucharist as Thanksgiving The Mass as a Prayer of Intercession The Eucharist and the Holy Spirit The Healing Presence of the Eucharist The Eucharist as Our Source of Peace Catholic Teaching on the Eucharist Otto R. Piechowski,1998 TIJ Confirmation/First Eucharist Teaching Guide Pflaum Publishing Group,2017-04 Teaching and Worship of the Liberal Catholic Church Edmund W. Sheehan,1925 Reclaiming Catholic Social Teaching Anthony Esolen,2014 Many claim that Catholic Social Teaching implies the existence of a vast welfare state In these pages Anthony Esolen pulls back the curtain on these false philosophers showing how they've undermined the authentic social teachings of the Church in order to neutralize the biggest threat to their plans for secularization the Catholic Church With the voluminous writings of Pope Leo XIII as his guide Esolen explains that Catholic Social Teaching isn't focused exclusively on serving the poor Indeed it offers us a rich treasure of insights about the nature of man his eternal destiny the sanctity of marriage and the important role of the family in building a coherent and harmonious society Catholic Social Teaching explains Pope Leo offers a unified worldview What the Church says about the family is inextricable from what She says about the poor and what She says about the Eucharist informs the essence of Her teachings on education the arts and even government You will step away from these pages with a profound understanding of the root causes of the ills that afflict our society and thanks to Pope Leo and Anthony Esolen well equipped to propose compelling remedies for them Only an authentically Catholic culture provides for a stable and virtuous society that allows Christians to do the real work that can unite rich and poor We must reclaim Catholic Social Teaching if we are to transform our society into the ideal mapped out by Pope Leo a land of sinners yes but one enriched with love of God and neighbor and sustained by the very heart of the Church's social teaching the most holy Eucharist Essentials of the Faith Alfred McBride, 1994 Father McBride's eloquent style reveals the essence of the Catechism in a way is sure to inspire a desire to know the teachings of the Faith more completely and to live them more fully
