Dillon, 2005-06-20 Based on research in both education and New Testament studies James Dillon s new scholarly study presents a detailed analysis of the famous teacher Jesus of Nazareth as well as a comprehensive review of the literature written on the subject over the last hundred years Professor Dillon s multidisciplinary approach provides unique insights into the nature and quality of Jesus teaching Of particular interest to New Testament and Education scholars as well as teachers and religious educators Jesus as a Teacher will also appeal to all scholars interested in the person of Jesus his students and the circumstances of his teaching Teach Like Jesus Josh Hunt, 2012-12-04 No one ever taught like Jesus When we learn from Him we truly are learning from the Master Teacher Josh Hunt is uniquely qualified to help us teach like Jesus because these are the practices he has personally used for years Anyone who wants to become a better teacher must have this book Allan Taylor Author Sunday School in HD I have had the pleasure of hearing Josh teach this material in person and I can assure you that it always has an impact on the audience It is both entertaining and informative It will challenge you to communicate more effectively It is biblically based and practically oriented Your teaching of Jesus as a teacher is both proverbial and fascinating especially for a teacher but can his many strategies and methods go beyond religious teaching and be translated widely into the 21st century That is the question Roy Pitcher asked His positive conclusions are described in three parts An analysis of Jesus situation decisions and methods An examination of seven inter related social psychological themes evident in his teaching A translation and application to our contemporary scene of eight strategies and a planning model that can be applied to wide ranging age groups and areas of teaching Its success has been evident in many contexts and deserves careful consideration Tasmai Shri Gurave Namah Johanna Mohapatra, Tasmai

Faith-Based Education That Constructs HeeKap Lee,2010-08-09 Constructivism is everywhere It is a hot issue at this time in the field of philosophy education technology and religion However can constructivism be an alternative approach in faith based education While some conclude that Jesus knew learning was an active knowledge creating process and that he always encouraged his disciples to think deeply and go beyond the surface level others would find that constructivism undercuts faith based education because of its claims to relativity For example constructivists claim that meaning is imposed on the world by us rather than existing in the world independently from us Thus they proclaim that truth is relative to particular times places and people Christians hold that truth does exist absolutely So how can there be a way forward for faith based educators who see the good in the constructivist approach In Faith Based Education that Constructs readers will find a unique approach whereby constructivism may appropriately be applied to a faith based education setting Although disagreement can occur between constructivism and faith based education this book concludes that constructivist thought and Christian faith based education are in the end congruent and harmonious in significant ways Those faith based educators who continue to hold cautionary views of radical constructivist assertions against absolute truths need not disregard all other aspects of constructivism Teaching for Spiritual Growth Perry G. Downs,1994 Teaching for Spiritual Growth is a textbook that explains what it means to be spiritually mature and how churches can help people achieve spiritual growth
