first months of a child's life with an indication of the major movement milestones which all children should reach before they enter the pre school phase. The rest of the book gives information about developing children's physical skills in dance games and gymnastics throughout the pre school and infant school phase. It also addresses many of the contemporary issues surrounding the delivery of the PE curriculum in schools including the assessment of pupils' performance. This book will help students, teachers and curriculum leaders deliver a sound PE education to children aged 3-7 and will also prove useful to all those involved in early years education. Pauline Wetton is currently a lecturer in education and an assistant director of sport at the University of Durham. The Teaching and Learning in the First Three Years at School series is edited by Joy Palmer.

Resources in Education, 2000-10      Geography in the Early Years Joanna Birch, Joy Palmer, 2004-09-09 This completely revised and updated second edition of Geography in the Early Years presents a lively and comprehensive overview of teaching and learning in geography. Theoretical aspects of early years teaching in geography are complemented by up to date research findings and illustrated with discussion, a wealth of case studies and suggestions for the development and implementation of sound geographical work in practice. In a practitioner friendly style this book provides an examination of the essence of geography in terms of children's conceptions of the physical environment, a detailed description of geography in the national curriculum and of the place and nature of environmental education within early years teaching guidelines for taking a whole school approach in policy planning and organisation of geographical learning, examples of initial teacher training and continuing professional developments. This highly accessible illuminating book will be immensely helpful to teachers, student teachers, policy makers and all other providers of education for children aged three to seven years.      A Guide to Early Years and Primary Teaching Dominic Wyse, Sue Rogers, 2016-04-20 How do people become effective teachers?
