values often painting Christian opponents as sell outs to secular culture But can there be a genuinely Christian case for same sex marriage This book makes that case While sensitive to scriptural issues it focuses on a question that cannot be answered by Scripture alone What does love for our gay and lesbian neighbors demand This question calls us to pair theological philosophical and scriptural reflection with something else attention to gay and lesbian lives We must attend to the psychological research and more importantly to the stories our gay and lesbian neighbors tell us about themselves and their experience Love does not permit us to plug our ears with Bible verses While this book argues that Christian love calls us to make same sex marriage available the deeper conclusion is that Christian values prevail when we wrestle with these questions in a spirit of love love for those with whom we disagree and love for those most affected by the decisions we reach

The secret life of romantic comedy Celestino Deleyto, 2019-01-04 The secret life of romantic comedy offers a new approach to one of the most popular and resilient genres in the history of Hollywood Steering away from the rigidity and ideological determinism of traditional accounts of the genre this book advocates a more flexible theory which allows the student to explore the presence of the genre in unexpected places extending the concept to encompass films that are not usually considered romantic comedies Combining theory with detailed analyses of a selection of films including To Be or Not to Be 1942 Rear Window 1954 Kiss Me Stupid 1964 Crimes and Misdemeanors 1989 and Before Sunset 2004 the book aims to provide a practical framework for the exploration of a key area of contemporary experience intimate matters through one of its most powerful filmic representations the genre of romantic comedy Original and entertaining The secret life of romantic comedy is perfect for students and academics of film and film genre Poetics of Love in the Arabic Novel Wen-chin Ouyang, 2012-06-20 Considers the Arabic novel within the triangle of the nation state modernity and tradition Wen Chin Ouyang explores the development of the Arabic novel especially the ways in it engages with aesthetics ethics and politics in a cross cultural context and from a transnational perspective Taking love and desire as the central tropes the story of the Arabic novel is presented as a series of failed illegitimate love affairs all tainted by its suspicion of the legitimacy of the nation modernity and tradition and above all by its misgiving about its own propriety Raymond Chandler, Romantic Ideology, and the Cultural Politics of Chivalry Anthony Dean Rizzuto, 2021-12-03 Raymond Chandler Romantic Ideology and the Cultural Politics of Chivalry responds to the general consensus that Philip Marlowe represents a chivalric knight out of romance The book argues that this commonplace reading requires a stunningly rosy rewriting of Marlowe knighthood chivalry and romance The book offers a history of the cultural politics of chivalry from the Middle Ages through British Romanticism to the modern United States exposing the elitism violent masculinism racism and ethno national othering harbored within Rizzuto also considers the survival of the chivalric ideology after World War I and argues that the narrative of the Great War destroying chivalry rewrites the ghastly history of warfare Touching on Chandler throughout these cultural histories the book then directly confronts the question of knighthood and romance in the Marlowe novels Rizzuto identifies an explicit rejection of romance in the service of hardboiled gender class and genre norms including a seldom remarked pattern of violence against women and sexual assault The volume concludes by offering some ideas about Chandler's motivations and the reception of the Marlowe novels The Language of Romance Crimes Elisabeth Carter, 2024-04-11
