The Premiership 2008-2009 , The Future of Football Jon Garland, Dominic Malcolm, Michael Rowe, 2000 Covering a range of issues which players fans and administrators will have to confront this study looks at the impact of global marketing industries shareholding and the financial powers of mass media The New Business of Football S. Morrow, 1999-04-12 This dynamic study of the business of football considers its income and cost drivers its capital structure and its accounting policies through UK examples and international comparison Also addressed are the conflicts arising out of the incorporation of football and the dichotomy between sport and business leading to a suggested contemporary framework for accountability and business behaviour Readings in Law and Popular Culture Steven Greenfield, Guy Osborn, 2007-05-07 Fascinating and varied this is the first book to bring together high quality research with an emphasis on context from key researchers working at the cutting edge of both law and cultural disciplines

The Global Football Industry James J. Zhang, Brenda G. Pitts, 2018-01-29 In recent years football s status as the world s sport has shown little sign of waning From increasing participation at grassroots levels and to the highly lucrative media rights deals secured by the top elite clubs the game appears to be thriving as it continues to excite and enthrall billions of people around the globe Nevertheless there are a number of challenges and opportunities facing the football industry today that warrant further examination This book brings together leading international researchers to survey the current state of the global football industry exploring contemporary themes and issues in the marketing of football around the world With contributions from Europe Asia and the Americas it discusses key topics such as football club management the economics of the football industry match fixing social media fan experiences the globalized marketplace and the growing popularity of the women s game Offering insights for researchers managers and marketers who are looking to stay ahead of the game The Global Football Industry Marketing Perspectives is essential reading for anyone with an interest in international sport business European Commission White Paper on Sport Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee, 2008 The European Commission white paper on sport published on 11 July 2007 was referred to the Culture Media and Sport Committee for an opinion by the European Scrutiny Committee The white paper consists of three policy discussions on the social value of sport the economic value of sport and the organisation of sport Various action points emerge from the discussions and with the white paper these form the Action Plan Pierre de Coubertin included as an appendix to this report There is a lack of competence for sport under existing EU treaties though not under the Reform or Lisbon treaty The report examines the content of the white paper and sport and EU law in detail The Committee believes that sport has distinctive characteristics that need to be taken into account in the application of EU law Much of the white paper is useful in exploring scope for using existing networks and programmes to support participation in sport But the Committee does not believe there is any justification or necessity for the Commission to take a more active role in driving the development of policy on sport and notes the alarm created by the lack of a clear statement on the autonomy of sports organisations Governing bodies of sport should have the freedom to decide for themselves how their sport is run
