

The truth is the only thing worth having, and, in a civilized life, like ours, where so many risks are removed, facing it is almost the only courageous thing left to do.

discoverable on the map It was however inviting like the short cut A similar impulse again directed his choice Only this time it seemed more insistent almost urgent And he became aware then of the exceeding loneliness of the country about him The road for a hundred yards went straight then curved like a white river running into space the deep blue green of heather lined the banks spreading upwards through the twilight and occasional small pines stood solitary here and there all unexplained The curious adjective having made its appearance haunted him So many things that afternoon were similarly unexplained the short cut the darkened map the names on the sign post his own erratic impulses and the growing strange confusion that crept upon his spirit The entire country side needed explanation though perhaps interpretation was the truer word Those little lonely trees had made him see it Why had he lost his way so easily Why did he suffer vague impressions to influence his direction Why was he here exactly here And why did he go now over Litacy Hill Then by a green field that shone like a thought of daylight amid the darkness of the moor he saw a figure lying in the grass It was a blot upon the landscape a mere huddled patch of dirty rags yet with a certain horrid picturesqueness too and his mind though his German was of the schoolroom order at once picked out the German equivalents as against the English Lump and Lumpen flashed across his brain most oddly They seemed in that moment right and so expressive almost like onomatopoeic words if that were possible of sight Neither rags nor rascal would have fitted what he saw The adequate description was in German
