Planning Adult Learning William M. Rivera, 2019-02-21 Originally published in 1987 this book challenged readers to consider the political issues agency practices and social directions of planning adult learning programs and services at the time It confronts the subject of planning from the perspective of federally constituted countries where policies of decentralization generally prevail It proposes that the concept of adult education may be too narrow to accommodate the breadth of adult learning in many different sectors not only the Education sector In clarifying main issues surrounding planning of adult learning the book opens up new horizons for thinking about a field which heretofore had at best appeared conceptually confusing and politically unclear Developing Programs in Adult Education Edgar J. Boone,R. Dale Safrin,Jo Jones,2002-05-10 The Second Edition of Developing Programs in Adult Education will serve as an indispensable guide for current and prospective adult educators in planning designing implementing and evaluating accounting for adult education programs Like the successful First Edition this revised and expanded volume presents a conceptual programming model that draws from many concepts constructs and theories generated by adult educators and other scholars in closely allied disciplines The updated model field tested and validated enhances and elaborates on the complex contextual relationships and processual actions represented in the original The authors offer illustrative applications within varied organizational contexts and provide a panorama of both macro and micro perspectives and actions of a program planning process with examples from various fields of adult education practice This innovative text is the definitive authority on one of the few theoretical models of the programming process based in systems theory merged with the practice ecology of adult education
