Philip Wilkinson

The Origin Of The Myth Of The Zi:

The Origin of the Myth of the Zi Francois Lenormant, 2005-12 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving, and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high-quality modern editions that are true to the original work. Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1880 Babylonian Creation Myths Wilfred G. Lambert, 2013-10-03 For much of the last half of the twentieth century W. G. Lambert devoted much of his research energy and effort to the study of Babylonian texts dealing with Mesopotamian ideas regarding creation, including especially Enuma Elish. This volume, which appears almost exactly 2 years after Lambert's death, distills a lifetime of learning by the world's foremost expert on these texts. Lambert provides a full transliteration and translation of the 7 tablets of Enuma Elish based on the known exemplars, as well as coverage of a number of other texts that bear on or are thought to bear on Mesopotamian notions of the origin of the world, mankind, and the gods. New editions of seventeen additional creation tales are provided, including Enmesharra's Defeat of Enki and Ninmah, The Slaying of Labbu, and The Theogony of Dunnu. Lambert pays special attention, of course, to the connection of the main epic Enuma Elish with the rise and place of Marduk in the Babylonian pantheon. He traces the development of this deity's origin and rise to prominence and elaborates the relationship of this text and the others discussed to the religious and political climate of Babylonia. The volume includes 70 plates, primarily hand copies of the various exemplars of Enuma Elish, and extensive indexes. Jan Verschueren's Description of Yéi-Nan Culture Jan Verschueren, 2012-12-11 Joannis Cornelis Verschueren, 1905-1970 worked as a Roman Catholic missionary in southern Irian from 1931 until 1970. In the 1950s he wrote a number of papers on the Yéi. These papers, based on older field notes and a research trip through the area, are recapitulated in this volume. Verschueren provides genuine inside information, and his data are new and authentic. The four papers in this volume create a picture of a typical lowland culture with a surprising emphasis on headhunting, an uncommon way of segregating the sexes, and a highly elaborated system of phallic symbolism. Topics discussed in this volume are territorial clan and moiety organization, kinship, marriage, and conjugal life; the founding myths of Yéi; nan ritual and other rituals; initiation, sickness, and healing; death, burial, and mortuary feasts; other ceremonies. History and Chronology of the Myth-Making Age J. N. J. Girardot,2008 Myth and Meaning in Early Daoism examines some of the earliest texts associated with the Daoist tradition primarily the Daode jing Zhuangzi and Huainanzi from the outlook of the comparative history of religions and finds a kind of thematic and soteriological unity rooted in the mythological symbolism of hundun the primal chaos being and principle that is foundational for the philosophy and practice of the Dao as creatio continua in cosmic social and individual life Dedicated to the proposition that ancient Chinese texts and traditions are often best understood from a broad interdisciplinary and interpretive perspective this work when it was written challenged many prevailing conceptions of the Daode jing and Zhuangzi as primarily philosophical texts without any religious significance or affinity with the later sectarian traditions While controversial and at times playfully provocative the methodology and findings of this book are still important for the ongoing scholarship about Daoism in China and the world
